PRICEVILLE

Another "fine big dance" was held, we are told, in the Agricultural Hall under the auspicies of that body. The best of order and managment prevailed with Mr. W. G. McBride floor manager in charge. The Nite Owl Orchestra of Mildmay did the "Hoo-Hooing" necessary for the light fantastic.

On Friday evening following a farewell appreciation shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Allen McInnis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McInnis, where they had been spending their Eatser holidays. The Address of appreciation good will and best wishes was read by Mrs. Wilfred Watson, and spoken to by Messrs Robt. Parslow, H. B. McLean, Henry Beaton, Arch McCuaig, D. L. McArthur, Rev. J. W. Johnston while Chas. Kennedy acted as chairman. Had we been there, (the walking distance was to great from my office) I would have enjoyed adding my quota to the pleasure of his agreeable presence. His valuable assistance and quick ready improvement made in reading of the notes with the choir in St. Columba, I, as leader, have often remarked upon this ready accomplishment. Our very best wishes to a young married couple go with them to Palgrave, where he teaches.

Mrs. Albert E. Haw Died Very Suddenly

CEYLON

Death came with tragic suddenness early Sunday morning when Margaret Knox, wife of Mr. Albert E. Haw of Salem, formerly of Ceylon, passed away at her home, the result of a stroke. Mrs. Haw had been about her home as usual on Saturday and during the day had assisted her boys in planting their school garden. She retired about 11 p.m. and was suddenly seized with a severe pain in her head and although medical aid arrived she passed away two hours later.

The late Mrs. Haw was the daughter of the late James Knox and Mrs. Jane Richardson Knox and was born 45 years ago on the 8th concession of Proton. After attending the Ottawa Normal School she joined the Edmonton, Alta., public school teaching staff and remained there until her marriage to Mr. Haw when they settled on the latter's farm near Salem. Thirteen years ago they left the farm and conducted the general store at Ceylon retiring only last spring to the farm.

Mrs. Haw possessed a keen sense of humor and was a devoted mother. Her executive ability and leadership were marked in the activities of the church and community and her untimelf death has cast a deep shadow on the hearts of her many friends.

Besides her grief-stricken husband she is survived by a family of five children, Mable 15, a student at the Dundalk high school, Allan 13, Gordon 8, Eric 6 and Billy 4. She also leaves her mother, Mrs. Jas. Knox of Ceylon, and three sisters: Mabel (Mrs. W. McCormack) of Salem, Vina (Mrs. Howlet) Carvel, Alta., and Marion (Mrs. Gillespie) of Hopeville, and three brothers, Robert in the States, William of Bowmanville and Alex. of Toronto.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Haw was largely attended, this afternoon.

There was a short service at the house and then they proceeded to the church where Rev. Johnston assisted by Rev. McDonald, preached a comforting sermon. Mr. Johnston based his sermon on John 5 and 24. He referred to the leadership of Mrs. Haw in the church, altrough often labouring under impaired health and left a message of comfort with the sorrowing husband and family.

Two beautiful quartettes were rendered, "In the Land far away" and "In that Beautiful Land", by Messrs. Heard, Richardson, Fowler and Weir.. At the close of the service the body was conveyed to the cemetery opposite her home, preceeded by the flower carriers with their tokens of sympathy.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Edwin Fowler, Wilfred Black, Bob Black, Roy McNalty and Ed. Haw.

To the grief stricken family the community extends its sincere sympathy.
