PRICEVILLE

The golden wedding celebration of Mr. W. W. and Mrs. Ramage was observed on the 24th, amid glorious weather and kind, loving friends. Nothing need be said by us, suffice it to say that the good wishes given and appreciation shown in the congratulations by the callers, was gratefully received with warm hearts by the honored recipients. Worthy of special mention, it may be, was the visit of Rev. A. N. and Mrs. Cooper of Hanover, the latter an old-time friend of the family. Others present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groat and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Groat and family of Mount Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ramage and little son of Gorrie. These were among the 86 who signed their names on the attendance register.

There were also present Mesdames Thos. E. Brown and John Burgess of Durham and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lennox of Varney, who, in his fine car, was able to bring their son, Reggie Ramage, who is just recovering from a severe illness, with them, which, in itself, was gratifying to the parents to have him with them on the occasion of their celebration. Many thanks to all.

[The senior editor was pleased to attend and convey his good wishes to this highly respected couple, who were able to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. May their remaining years be full to overflowing with the good things of life.]
