—What is a dollar anyhow? The question is an easy one to answer. A dollar is the price of a day's work for some men and a single night's drink for others. It is what the wife frequently needs but seldom has. It is the power that makes or unmakes men. It is the hardest thing to get and the easiest thing to get rid of known to mankind. It is a blessing in a small measure and curse in many instances. It is mighty and scarce. No man ever had more than he wanted and no man ever will. A dollar is a snare and a delusion and everyone of us is chasing the delusion.—Ex.

The Tennis Club street dance ran into cold weather last Friday night and the dance was held in the Fraternity Hall. A capacity crowd was in attendance and the Mildmay Nite Owl orchestra supplied splendid music for the dancing. It is expected that a street dance will be held when the weather clears and becomes warmer.

The dry weather of the past few weeks has at last broken when showers of rain fell Mondy afternoon and somewhat refreshed the ground which had become exceedingly dry. More will be needed before the land will feel the moisture to any depth, as that on Monday just damped the surface. The leaves have also come forth and the landscape is becoming more summer like as each day passes. Many people have their gardens planted for the harvest to come and many of the others will have finished this week.

Anniversary Services

Large congregations assembled for the anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday, when Rev. A. Homer of Mulock was the principle preacher, his sermons being highly instructive and impressive.

At the morning service Rev. Homer's topic "The Journey of Life" was dealt with from the text "Let a double portion of Thy Spirit rest upon me." The choir rendered "The End of the Road" and "Jesus Lover of my Soul," Miss Ruth Wolstencroft taking the solo in the latter piece.

The pastor, Rev. J. R. Wolstencroft had charge of the evening service, assisted by Rev. W. J. Scott of St. John's United Church, who kindly withdrew their evening service for the occasion. Rev. Mr. Homer chose as his text "And there stands One among you, whom ye know not." The choir contributed two selections, "Come Unto Me" and "Wonderful Story of Love." A duet entitled "In Jesus" was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Homer.

The church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers for the occasion.
