Miss Annieta Turner took the discussion topic, "The habits of daily consecration." Mrs. C. Martin gave a reading entitled "Let me walk with the man in the Road." Another reading, The Bridge Builder" was given by Miss Phyilis Graham. During the course of the evening Miss Belva Genoe bride-to-be was called forward and asked to take the chair, then Miss Rowena Magee read an address and a presentation on behalf of the Y. P. S. was made by Miss Phyllis Graham and Miss Edith Fenwick. The address was as follows:—

Dear Belva,—On hearing of your sudden plunge into the sea of Matrimony, we, the members of Eugenia Y.P.S., take this opportunity to extend to you our appreciation of your helping hand in our Society. Soon you will be looking through the long vista of wedded bliss with a pleasant life companion and we trust that your future experiences will excel the happiest hours you have enjoyed and will make the years before you worth while. We will certainly miss your presence at our meetings, as well as in the choir and social functions of the community. We are glad to know that your new home will not be far distant and we will have the pleasure of meeting you occasionally.

As a slight token of our esteem, we ask you to please accept this combination pyrex casserole and pie plate, also these custard cups, and as you use each gift remember your Y.P.S. friends and our pleasant associations together.

Along with wedding congratuations we extend a welcome to you and Allan to attend our Y.P.S. meetings at any time convenient for you, and may God's richest blessings be bestowed upon you both and that you will live long to enjoy the deep peace and blessednsss of married life.

Signed on behalf of the Y.P.S. members — Rowena Magee, Phyllis Graham, Edith Fenwick.

Belva, who was taken by surprise, replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the Society for their kindness and inviting all to visit her in her future home. All joined in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow."

Contests were indulged in afterwards and then the usual closing took place, ending a very pleasant event.

We neglected to mention in a previous issue to extend our sincere sympathy to the Walker and Thurston families in their sad bereavement, also to Mr. John Magee in the loss of his brother.

We extend our heartiest congratulations to Miss Belva Genoe, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Genoe and Mr. Allan Short, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Short of Feversham, who were married on Saturday.

WAR ON STARLINGS
(Gravenhurst Banner)

The town council requests the assistance of all citizens in an effort to exterminate the starling bird by locating their nests and notifying the town clerk at his office. Starlings have increased rapidly during the past few years, particularly in Southern Ontario in the fruit belt, where orchard owners have suffered heavily in loss of fruit and trees from these destructive birds. By locating their nests in this vicinity it will greatly strengthen the hand of the council to rid the community of these pests. The council has acquired the services of a man who will attend promptly to notices sent in and destroy the nests. If starlings are allowed to increase in numbers, it will take but a few years to destroy many other varieties of birds which are so valued for human welfare in destroying numerous forms of insects, bugs, beetles and worms. Your assistance in this request will be apreciated.

Nearly 2,000 inquiries have been received from prospective tourists who want to see the Dionne children. In years to some the volume may be less, but the intensity will be greater.

When we get television on the phone it will be more difficult to say "I am so busy today that I cannot see you."
