EUGENIA

COOK—FENWICK

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, August 24 at high noon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Fenwick, 8th line, Artemesia when their daughter, Delmar Sadie Marie was united in marriage to Mr. Harold Cook, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cook, Owen Sound.

The pretty bride looked charming attired in a frock of white crepe with a yoke of hand-fagotting and wore the groom's gift, a necklace with pendant with cameo setting. Carrying her bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses and leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, she took the place beneath an arch of evergreen. Miss Edith Fenwich, gowned becomingly in a flowered crepe costume with white accessories and carrying a bouquet of maiden-hair fern and rose buds, was her attendant. The groomsman was Mr. Ward Agnew of Owen Sound. Two winsome little girls, Elnora Fenwick, (the bride's sister) and Peggy Linton, (her niece) were prettily dressed in white and green organdy and carried pink and white baskets containing sweet peas and baby's breath. Miss Madeline Hoath of Woodford, cousin of the bride acted as pianist and played the wedding Bells march. Rev. Jos. R. Wolstencroft, Baptist minister of Flesherton performed the marriage ceremony.

The groom's gifts were: to the pianist and bridesmaid, each a compact; to the flower girls, each a bracelet.

After the ceremony the guests which consisted of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, assembled in the dining room where a sumptuous wedding "breakfast" was served. A delicious three-story wedding cake centred the table. The happy young couple took the afternoon train for Toronto and other points to spend their honeymoon. The bride travelled in a becoming suit of turquoise blue crepe with hat and other accessories to match. We extend our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a happy wedded life. They will reside at Barrow Bay Ontario, where the groom will teach school.

On Friday evening of last week the many friends and nieghbors of Mr. and Mr. Harold Cook assembled at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fenwick and spent a few pleasant hours with them before their departure for Barrow Bay. The bride and groom were the recipients of a miscellaneous shower of useful gifts conveying best wishes from their many friends.

GO 'LONG BRIGHT

Shelburne people chuckle when Glen Phillips of Keldon district comes to town to do the family shopping. He rides into town on an ox and carries home the groceries on the animal's back. The aniaml has now got accustomed to cars and, while most of these whizz by, some of them stop and give this unique outfit a closer scrutiny. To date Phillips has escaped being "pinched" for exceeding the speed limit.

A school inspector began by putting a few questions to the small girls.

"Now," he said, "If all the good people were white, and all the bad people were black, what would you be?"

Some of the children said white, and others black, but little Gloria, who had remained silent until the others replied, said: "Please, sir, I'd be streaky."

Bates and Maddocks New Funeral Chapel

Modernizing Establishment Brings Toronto Funeral Firm Very Much to Front.

Fred. R. Maddocks.

A BEAUTIFUL Funeral Chapel has just recently been completed in the Funeral Establishment of Bates & Maddocks, 124 Avenue Rd., Toonto.

The chapel, which is equipped with oak pews, provides seating accomodations for 125 persons, while an adjoining room can be used to seat an additional 50 people.

New air conditioned ventilation and indirect lighting are two of the many fine features of the Chapel. The room is panelled in oak and is designed to include an alcove, which is provided with special floral display racks, and which contains a handsome Casket Bier in Bronze. Adjoining the Chapel a vestry is provided for the use of attending clergy. Another convenience is the location of the exits, which are so arranged that the flowers can be conveyed to the waiting cars by a separate route to that used by the mourners. There is no extra charge for use of the chapel. The business was established 25 years ago by the late John W. Bates, formerly of Flesherton, and has been under the management of his son-in-law, Mr. Richard Maddocks, for the past 20 years. Fred R. Maddocks, a son of Mr. R. Maddocks, joined the staff three years ago.

We render a dignified personal funeral service whether you pay less than One Hundred Dollars, or more.
