THE REASON

A young man walked pensively into the village post office.

"Any letters for me today?" he asked the postmistress.

"No, Harry," she replied rather sharply.

"Thats strange," he murmured, half to himself.

"Nothing strange about that, young man," replied the postmistress. "You haven't answered her last letter yet!"

Uncertainty and expectation are the joys of life. Security is an insipid thing, though the overtaking and possessing of a wish discovers the folly of the chase.

SOURCE OF KNOWLEDGE

The Manchester (Eng.) Guardian drove its readers to the dictionary with this one:

The small boy's teacher had asked her pupils for a sentence containing the word "veil". Amid numerous written replies one stood out above the remainder—"The lady wore a veil on her deuterogamy."

"Deuterogamy!" exclaimed the teacher. "Where did you get that word, Johnny?"

"Crossword puzzle, mum," replied Johnny, glibly.

"But what does it mean?"

The teacher turned to the dictionary and found Johnny was correct.
