CENTRE LINE

We wish the Editor and staff and all the readers, a very merry Christmas.

Miss Fern Magee spent a week with her cousin, Miss Florence Tuohy.

Mr. John Osborne's foot is healing nicely. He can walk a short distance on it now.

Saturday was Santa Claus Day in Dundalk. A very large crowd was present to see the jolly old fellow.

Wareham Day school and Sunday school have combined forces and are putting on their Christmas concert in the church on Dec. 20.

Mr. Luther Love shot a fine large white owl one day recently. It measured four feet nine inches from tip to tip.

Mr. Joe Little and Elmore Fisher spent Sunday at Mr. Gilbert Little's.

The Mt. Zion Woman's Association held their annual meeting on December 10th at the home of Mrs. Florence Lyons. The pastor, Rev. Bushell presided. The meeting was opened by singing the hymn "Work for the night is coming," followed by repeating the 23 psalm in unison. The president gave a short report of the work, the secretary gave a report of the work done by the association for the year. The treasurer, Mrs. Meldrum gave a report of the receipts and expenses of the year, the association has raised $135.00 in the past year. The reports of the committees were taken and then the following officers were elected:

Pres. — Mrs. Dave Jamieson.
Vice Pres. — Mrs. R. J. Fisher.
Sec. — Mrs. Robt Osborne.
Treasurer — Mrs C. D. Meldrum.

Rev. Bushell closed the meeting with prayer.

ROCK MILLS

Your correspondent wishes the Advance staff and its many readers a merry Christmas.

Don't forget the Christmas concert to be held in the school Friday night A good program of songs, recitations, music and dialogues will be given.

Mr. D. E. Ritchie was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Betts one evening last week.

The ladies aid held a social in the church, Thursday night, when only a fair sized crowd was present. A programme of readings, songs, recitations and dialogues was enjoyed after which a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies. Rev. Mr. Wolstencroft acted as chairman for the evening.

Mr. John Ottwell is busy buzzing wood for some of the farmers in this locality.

Mr. Ned Croft has taken a contract cutting logs for the Durham Furniture Co. and started work with his men Tuesday.

Little Viva Atkinson has been very ill with pneumonia but we are very pleased to report her improving nicely.

MAXWELL

We are pleased to report that Miss Isobel Pallister has returned from Toronto much improved in health.

Mrs. Larsen, who has spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Wilton has returned to her home in Walkerton.

The Sunday School of the United Church will hold a social evening in the church hall on Friday, Dec. 27.

Mr. Ren Acheson visited with friends in Toronto last week.

Mr. Allen Priestly has arrived home from the West, where he has spent the past months.

At the close of the last session of the Osprey township council, Mr. John Lockhart treated the members to a complimentary dinner, seventeen enjoyed a bountiful fowl dinner, prepared by Mrs. Priestly

The five day course on, Home Utilization of wool came to an end on Friday 13th, although the membership was small no one who commenced the class missed a day. Maxwell W. I. was the only one to secure this class in Grey County, this year. Miss Edith Hopkins of the Dept. of Agriculture instructed the members on washing wool, carding, knitting, also quilts and quilt making and hand sewn leather gloves. Every day brought most helpful instructions and all members felt the time was profitably spent.

THE TIME SIGNAL

The builder's foreman knocked timidly on the door. It was answered by rather a portly woman.

"Excuse me, madam," said the foreman, "b-b-but are you the lady wot sings a lot in the morning?"

"Yes," she replied. "Why?"

"Well," said the foreman, taking his courage in both hands, "might I ask you not to hold on to the top notes so long? The men on the building site over there 'ave knocked off twice, mistaking it for my mid-day whistle."

Death of Mrs. F. Wilson

Death came as a distinct shock to the many friends and relatives of Mrs. Frederick Wilson when it became known she had passed away at her home in Toronto, on Saturday, November 30.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Julia Ann Catherine Meads, was a daughter of the late Ellen Griffin and John Meads, and was born 74 years ago at Hamilton. When just 3 years old she moved with her parents to Grey County ,to the farm now occupied by Mr. William Meads Jr. O. D. Rd.. She attended the D. Rd. school, later going to Toronto where she met her late husband and they were married 51 years ago. To them were born seven children, the two younger dying when quite small Surviving to mourn the loss of a devoted mother are: William, Edith, (Mrs Brooks), Frederick and Thomas, all of Toronto and Julia (Mrs. Calway) Detroit, also one sister, Annie (Mrs. Joseph Oliver) and one brother, Mr. Will Meads Sr., both of the O.D. Rd. Another sister, Maggie (Mrs. Ferris) predeceased her some few years ago. Mr. Wilson died only three years ago.

The late Mrs. Wilson had been in failing health for several years being completely invalided the last two years, but bore her suffering with heroic fortitude. She was a member of St. Anne's Anglican church, the rector had charge of the funeral, Tuesday last, interment taking place in the family plot. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oliver and Mr. Will Meads, Jr. attended the funeral. The sympathy of the community is extended the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

NEEDED

"I say, Brown, have you got that umbrella I loaned you?"

"No. I loaned to a friend. Are you wanting it?"
