SWINTON PARK

Crows and Starlings galore and the robin is also here. Snow is gradually disappearing and the roads are in bad shape. Those who have sugar maples are preparing to make syrup these days and others, we notice, are taking seed to be cleaned or clover to be hulled.

Mr. Howard Watson has purchased lots 8 and 9, con. 14, the old Parslow farm, at present occupied by Archie McTaggart.

Kitchener Flood is assisting G. W. Parslow at present with farm work.

Miss McLeod, Reg. N.. is on duty at Priceville at present.

We are sorry to learn of the death of John McQueen in Durham Saturday night. John was one of the pioneer boys of Boothville and an early member of Swinton Park church. Our sympathy is with the bereaved family.

The men of this locality are attending Alex. Moody's sale this Monday.

(Intended for last week)

Spring is expected, as we noticed a mechanical contraption called by some a snowmobile, we think just plain bile, would be suitable, as it met with many difficulties on the way. Drifts yet are too large for pleasure driving; the roads are quite navigable for a good horse and strong rig, but not fast driving.

Sorry to hear that Wallace McCormick had his shoulder dislocated in a ski-ing accident last week.

George Hay lost a fine fat steer, Sunday morning, after it being sick only a short time.

John Lane spent most of last week in Toronto, with brothers and other friends.

Mrs. Hugh McMillan, Con. 14 is in the city at present.

Mr. Dick Moody, who has farmed for some time on lot 8, Con. 18, is having an Auction Sale on the 23rd inst. and is giving up farming. Hadden Hutchinson, a neighbor is taking over the farm, the old Jim Knox property.

Friday was a real blizzard in the Park, and the dance in the hall on the evening, was not well patronized.

The weather is fine again and this Monday evening, the Young People's Society are having a social evening in the church, and on Wednesday night in Salem church, a social evening is being held, and a play put on by the home Young People.

On Wednesday afternoon, the W. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Dick Hardy.

Miss Jessie Tresidder of Toronto is at present a guest of her sister, Mrs. Dick Hardy.

Mrs. Bowden, (nee Margaret Knox) has gone to a position at Woodland, South Egremont.

"I dislike to face all these bills."
"My dear, you don't have to. All I want you to do is foot them."

The editor who printed. "The Ladies' Aid will hold another fool sale," instead of "food" sale is doing as well as can be expected.

The March meeting of St. Columba Woman's Missionary Society and Woman's Association was held on the afternoon of the 19th, at the parsonage. Mrs. Johnston presided, the devotional theme was, "the Spirit of Jesus settles disputes," Mrs. McKinnon gave a timely Temperance reading. Miss B. James took the study period, dealing with the penetration of Africa by Christian Missionaries. The woman's Association discussed general business, with the President, Miss Edith James in the chair. After which a social time was spent and tea was served by the hostess.

Mr. A. B. McArthur, Town Line, after a pleasant visit with relatives and other friends in Toronto for some time, returned on Friday last, much refreshed.

The St. Patrick's Social held in St. Columba passed off successfully. The stew served was excellent. After the opening address of chairman Rev. Johnston, and an unaccompanied chorus by the children, Mr. W. G. McBride gave a fine address, re the Saint. his birthplace in Scotland, sold to a landowner in Ireland, escaping to Rome, latterly back to Ireland and founding Christianity there; a fine address, with many interesting facts of the Saint, of the country, its scenery, and its people, with the usual Irish jokes, all well given. The lantern slides which followed, views of lakes, rivers, falls, streets, buildings, castles, palaces, etc., was given in a fine enunciatory voice by Mrs. J. W. Johnston; the slides were handled by Mr. F. P. Reiley. A short play was given by the young people. The choir sang several selections out of courtesy to Thos. Moore Ireland's poet, one piece deserving of special mention was a ladies quartette, unaccompanied, by Mesdames Joseph McKee, J. C. Harrison, H. B. McLean and Miss Belle Weir, met with warm approval and was responded to in an encore. This was a pleasing revelation in this neighborhood, so well and so harmoniously performed. Another pleasing feature was a duet by Mrs. McKee and Mrs. McLean, "I'll take you home again, Kathleen."

Votes of thanks were tendered to all who took part. God Save the King, and Benediction closed a fine entertainment.

Miss Lizize Mather paid a visit to friends in Toronto last week.

Miss Mary Mather is assisting in the home of Mrs. Bowes, Markdale.

Friends here were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. John McQueen, Durham, who was so well know here.

On Tuesday p.m. the W.M.S. and Willing Helpers held their monthly meeting at the home of Miss Mary McEachern, with an attendance of 21. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W. M. S., Miss May Stewart, gave a splendid paper on "Stars". Mrs. Sutherland read a letter from the Glad Tidings about receiving Christmas bale in the Peace River district. Plans and arrangements were made for the Presbyterial to be held here in May after which the meeting closed with a hymn and prayer.

The W. H. meeting followed and was presided over by Mrs. J. Nichol. After the usual opening exercises, the Roll call was answered by the use of flour sacks. A very interesting debate then took place, on the subject resolved, That a tidy crank would be easier to live with than a good-natured slouch. The affirmative was taken by Miss Margaret McArthur and Mrs. Jack McMeekin and the negative by Mrs. Boyce and Mrs. Wilf. Watson. The papers were exceptionally good and was much enjoyed. Mrs. D. Campbell, Mrs. Henry Tucker, Miss Nellie McLean were appointed judges and gave their decision in favour of the negative side. The concert which was postponed in February will be held on April 15th. Three new members were added to the roll. Lunch was served by Mrs. Boyce and Mrs. Wilfred Watson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Nichol (Sr.) on April 21st, meeting closed with prayer.

At last we have a little indication that winter has some intention of folding her white tent and moving out, certainly spring will be accorded a welcome, after a severe cold winter.

Mr. Murray Nichol has been teaching school in the upper room owing to the illness of Miss Elda Frook.

Mrs. E. Bennett, Flesherton, visited Sunday with her parents and attended church service in the morning.
