Rev. Mr. Bushell preached an excellent sermon on Sunday. appropriate for Palm Sunday and also rendered a beautiful sacred selection, "The Palms," accompanied by Miss Muriel Carruthers on the organ. On Sunday Sacrament was also taken by the members of the church.

Sunday was the first day of what is known as the Great week; Passion Week or the Holy Week; because of the very things that took place on the last week of Jesus' most Holy Life, such as the cleansing of the Temple, the institution of the Lord's supper on the same night that he was betrayed, the watch in Gethsemane, the cruel Cross and passion, His precious death and burial. Therefore this week is a Holy week.

SWINTON PARK

Nothing new under the sun, and very little sun; yet, we in the Park wish all the readers of the Advance a joyous Easter season, and all the school children a fine holiday after the long cold winter, and this Monday looks like the worst day of all the bad ones.

George Campbell of the Campbell Construction Co., Toronto, has been in this burg for some time looking after the old home farm, he has stocked the farm with sheep and has engaged Mr. James McLean to look after it, to remodel the barn and house, also refence the farm. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. McLean back to the land of their birth. They have for some years lived in New Ontario.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ferguson on the birth of a daughter last week in the Park.

Syrup making, as yet, has been mostly in anticipation, but after this storm the sap will run. A good friend brought us in a bottle of the very best and we licked our lips as far as we could reach.

This morning all kinds of conveyances are on the road, the snow banks are softened by the rain, and trucks are having lots of trouble getting through them, but live stock and cream has to go to market. Not many are getting out to church, but next Sunday being something special, we trust it may be fine and many able to be out.

Now that Hauptmann has left this world of cares, what will the United State's Courts concentrate on for the next four years, but the election is coming on.
