REMINISCENCE

When reminiscing o'er the past, ...
My heart is saddened to the core,
When there within my visions grasp,
Comes scenery I have loved of yore.

Once more I stand upon the hills,
And view the lake and rugged shore.
The memory holds the picture firm,
Though failing strength returns no more.

How ancient are those nooks and hills
Since out the mist this world began,
We leave our foot prints in the sand.
But fleeting are the days of man.
