LOCAL DISTRICT NEWS

PRICEVILLE

It was our good fortune to enpoy a trip through the fine scenery from here to Thornbury and Meaford, last week, and in the congenial company of an M. D. It was no less a pleasure to meet in both places kind friends of long ago, including the only remaining Col. of the six we knew, Col. Hugh Cleland, still hale and hearty.

Events and happenings of old times were recalled pleasantly. Our mutual friend, Mr. S. Thurston was also met with, agreeably.

Mr. J. C. Harrison with characteristic energy, is again putting up an improved and larger building for the mill recently burned, the timber being already on the ground, much help is, and will be offered in its erection.

We were also a pleased listener to the Virginia Jubilee Singers at Amos near Dromore, on Saturday, September 5th and again on Sunday following, with wonderful precision, harmony and vim,
