ENCOURAGE PROPERTY OWNERS TO FIX UP

The Ontario Government has announced that a change is to be made in the Assessment Act whereby property owners will not be penalized for making ordinary or reasonable improvements to their buildings by having their assessment increased, says The Aylmer Express. This is certainly as it should be, and the amended Act will be appreciated. Heretofore when such work has been done, it has, in too many instances been followed by an increased tax bill. The amendment will, in all probability, result in much neede improvements being made which make for the beautification of the municipality, and also provide work for mechanics and painters. We never could understand why a person who shows civic pride by improving his property should be penalized for doing so. The people are now overburdened by varied taxes imposed, and any possible increases have tendency to discourage people from either building [illegible] buildings already con-

Advance Recipes For The Ladies

WONDERFUL RESPONSE

There has been a wonderful response by the women readers of The Advance in sending their favourite recipes for publication and to be used in the proposed cook book. It will take us several weeks to publish all the recipes received. We have now decided to accept all recipes received or posted up to Saturday of this week and after that the list will be closed.
