LOCAL DISTRICT NEWS

MAXWELL

A splendid program was presented by the Virginia Jubilee singers Saturday, October 17 in the Orange hall to a very large audience. The singers also gave two very fine selections at the morning service in the United church. Rev. Wolstencroft of Flesherton preached a very acceptable sermon at the evening service that was much appreciated. The choir rendered two fine numbers and Rev. Bushell and Mrs. Bushell a duet. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers for the occasion.

Mrs. J. Jones of Buffalo and Mrs. Walters and daughter of Whitby visited their father, Mr. T. M. Guy last week.

Rev. Douglas Kendall and Mrs. Kendall called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Emerson Wright has returned home from Toronto much improved in health. Mr. and Mrs. Angus Morrison returned with her.

The many friends of Mr. Robert and Miss Ella Alister met at their home to spend a social time with them on Friday evening, as they are leaving this neighborhood for their new home in Collingwood. The evening was spent in games and music. An address was read by Mr. Geo. Ross and Mr. Fred Hale presented them with a handsome electric floor lamp and Mr. E. Hawton and Mr. Chester Long presented each with a purse of money. Mr. and Miss Alister expressed their thanks in a few well chosen words. The ladies served a dainty lunch.

The opening of the professional hockey season is only a matter of a little over three weeks and that should bring up thoughts of storm windows.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Holman and Jim and Miss Jean of West Monkton; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hodgkinson and Ronnie visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carruthers.

Master Harold Graham visited with his friends, Jim and Earl Thurston, at Flesherton over the week end.

Turkeys were scarce for Thanksgiving and we are inclined to think the turkey is a wise bird in making himself scarce at this season of the year.

PRICEVILLE

The stirring lively Women's Institute of this neighborhood held a fine at-home on Wednesday evening last at the home of one of their popular members, Mrs. W. G. McBride, at which a good program was rendered and opened with a fine duet by little Miss Sarah Marie McMillan and Mac Watson, a wonderful offering from such youngsters, keeping their parts so well and harmoniously, better than some larger ones at times. Mrs. Wright sang a couple of solos, accompanied by her husband, Rev. Wright. Principal Bell of the school here also sang twice, self accompanied on the guitar, Mrs. (Rev.) Sutherland also sang a solo, Miss A. C. Macphail gave a fine address, descriptive of her journeyings in Europe, specially in Russia, which was attentively listened to, and appreciated with a vote of thanks.

We enjoyed a very fine motor trip on the finest day of last week, with a fine old-time friend, an egg and pop man, and on the way met with other fine friends and enjoyed their kind hospitality and friendship at Flesherton. Other towns were called upon on the way to Holland Centre, Williamsford and home by Durham. A rough detour was made to escape road improvements being made on the way to Berkeley. A trip like this is satisfying in a double sense, a pleasure in seeing fine farms and buldings, and others again, well, it makes one feel more satisfied with their own by comparison.

The third court case recently held in Hanover involving some of our boys was dismissed. The reason given (by the "Hanover Post") was, as one of the four had been fined $100.00 or three months in jail already this was sufficient. It would be a fine act for the other three implicated to chip in and help bear the brunt.

A. W. M. S. meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Oliver on Wednesday.

A play, "The old New Hampshire Home," will be given on Friday evening in St. Columba United by the Wareham Dramatic Club, which we hear is well spoken of.

SALT FISH DE LUXE

1 1-lb. package of boneless cod or other Canadian salt fish freshened. Butter
¾ cup of hot water 2 hard-boiled eggs
½ tsp. of pepper 1 tsp. of dry mustard

Flake freshened fish into pieces. Turn three-quarter cup of hot water in which fish was freshened, over fish, which has been placed on platter or shallow dish. Sprinkle with teaspoon of dry mustard and half teaspoon of pepper. Chop hard-boiled eggs over fish and dot generously with butter. Serve with tomato sauce.
