SWINTON PARK

This Tuesday morning a very heavy fog is over the Park.

Potatoes are being gathered in between and although they are not cean, are a fair crop. We have heard men say that they have had over 200 bag per acre. That is a bumper crop, which comes seldom. Another gentleman on a visit from Manitoba with friends here received a letter from his wife last week notifying him that the potatoes had been taken up there and they were as large as marbles. More of them were like peas and the remainder little fellows, yielding a half bag to the acre. This may help some of us to contribute liberally to the relief car for the West.

Bad colds are common at present.

Mrs. Hardy Snr. is not well these days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wilson spent Sunday at Noble Wilson's, Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Heard and Mr. and Mrs. John Aldcorn attended the funeral of a friend, Mrs. John Knox, near Creemore, on Friday, with burial in Stayner cemetery.

Mr. Lloyd McEachnie and Misses Myrtle and Betty McTaggart visited friends in Guelph on Sunday.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in St. Andrew's Church here, on Sunday, November 1, with preparatory services the Thursday night previous.

Local and Personal

Mrs. McRae last week moved to the H. Wilson residence.

Mr. Geo. McMaster of Brantford is spending a week at his home here.

Miss Catherine Quigg of Highvale, Alberta, is visiting this week with Mrs. Archie Stewart and family.

Mr. Jas. Freethy of Stayner was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. G. R. Service over the week end.

Miss Dell Thurston has returned to her teaching duties at Toronto after a two weeks' illness at her home here.

Messrs. Howard Eubank and Bob Phillips attended the Queens—Varsity rugby game at Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freethy and son, Harold, of Rob Roy were the guests of the Long and Miller families over Sunday.

Mr. Fred Gorrell returned on Saturday after writing his examinations in Toronto for an embalmer's and funeral director's certificate. Fred has been apprenticed to Bennett and Richards, funeral directors, and his many friends wish him successful results.

Mrs. Thos. Banks is visiting with her son, Geosge and his family, at Flesherton. On Saturday, 17th inst., Mrs. Banks will mark her eightieth birthday, and at that age we can think of no one at the present moment as active in mind and body as she. Long may she continue her useful life.— Durham Review.

Mrs. Edgar Patterson of this township sold 3,400 chickens during the past hatching season. This bunch would make a fine lot of chicken broth —or something. Mrs. Patterson has evidently found the road to success. This may not be a paved road, but the going is probably fairly smooth. At least she has no idea of calling a halt in production.

PROTON STATION

Fall threshing is nearly done in this locality and the fall anniversaries are about all over. A number from Proton Station and vicinity were at Inistioge two and three times last Sunday. The evening service here was cancelled in favor of the Inistioge anniversary. The minister Mr. A. McKaye was preaching at Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Prosser of Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, Jack and Helen Nichols of St. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. MacLean and Miss Lillian Hemphill of Toronto were guests at Mr. R. G. Acheson's for the week end and holiday.

Miss Quigg of Alberta on her return trip from the Vimy Pilgrimage, France, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Sherson Sr. and her uncles and aunts in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood and daughter and Miss Gertrude Lyons of Toronto were week end and holiday guests at Mr. Charles Lyon's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dyson of Hamilton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Park.

The annual sectional conference of the Grey Presbyterial met in Proton Station United Church in the afternoon and evening of September 30th. Splendid delegations were present from Owen Sound, Hanover, Durham, Shrigley, Hopeville and Inistioge and perhaps some from other points which we did not know of. The president, Mrs. Howse of Durham, effficiently presided at both sessions. Mrs. Rutherford of Owen Sound led the devotional period in the afternoon, taking as her theme, "Sharing" making the word the key note of the conference. Mrs. Staples of Hanover gave a wonderful talk on "Stewardship" illustrating it with charts of her own drawing. Several interesting reports were given by members of the executive. Mrs. Rev. Smith of Durham introduced the guest speaker, Miss Florence Clearihue of Central India, who spoke at both sessions. Anyone who is interested in foreign mission work, who did not hear her missed a treat. She told in such a comprehensive way of the habits and customs of both the temporal and religious life of the people among whom she labors. Miss Clearihue is home in Canada on her fourth furlough. When she finishes her next term, she wil be retired. She pleaded for recruits to take the place of those who are retiring each year from the foreign fields. Mrs. H. Bailey led a discussion on "The problems of your auxilliary in a bright efficient manner. At six p.m., the Proton Station auxiliary served supper to between fifty and sixty guests.

At 7.30 p.m., the Dundalk auxiliary led the devotional exercises with Mrs. Isaac in the chair. Mrs. McKee taking the Bible reading and Mrs. Hockridge the prayer. Mrs. Crosby sang a solo very sweetly, accompanied on the piano by Miss Rundle. After Miss Clearihue's address, the executive illustrated in drama from the first and second chapters of the study book.

"I'm a MAGICIAN"

I work my wonders all for you. I provide a magic carpet to carry you into the homes of your friends, no matter where they may be.

In my seven-league boots you can hop in a moment from one shop to another, though they may be blocks apart, even miles, or perhaps continents!

I weave a protecting spell that guards your home against all kinds of emergencies, little or big. And — miracle of miracles — my magic costs only a few cents a day.
