On December 4, Acton man John Beaulieu drew a lucky ticket.

In the evening Keno daily draw, he pulled a $50,000 winner, as well as an additional $110.

"I've been playing the lottery for about 10 years," Beaulieu said, while collecting his winnings at the OLG Prize Centre in Toronto.

The 47-year-old mechanic went to the store to validate his ticket, "and that is when it all started to feel real," he said.

"This couldn't have come at a better time. I am so happy to be able to treat my family with a little extra this holiday season and to save for the future," he said.

The winning ticket was purchased at Royal Jug City on Queen Street in Acton.

On Dec. 4, Acton resident John Beaulieu won $50,000 in the evening daily Keno draw.

Stolen car suspects nabbed by service dog

A Halton regional police service dog helped track down a pair of suspects late Monday evening after a vehicle reported stolen in Toronto was identified by an officer on patrol.

The officer's vehicle was equipped with an automatic licence plate reader, which indicated that a 2004 Honda Accord travelling on Guelph Street in Georgetown had an expired validation sticker.

The suspect vehicle sped up as the cruiser approached and turned off onto some side streets in a residential neighbourhood in the area of Delrex Boulevard just before midnight.

The officer spotted the Honda parked in a driveway and observed two people running away. Further investigation revealed that the vehicle had been reported stolen in Toronto.

A perimeter was set up and a canine track was initiated. Service dog Nero located both suspects hiding under parked cars. They were arrested and held for a bail hearing.

Charged with two counts of possession of property obtained by crime under $5,000 and two counts of breach of probation is Andrew Lamore, 33, of Toronto.

Ludmila Lishchenko, 31, of Innisfil is charged with two counts of possession of property obtained by crime under $5,000, breach of probation and possession of cocaine.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Const. Mark Brewster of the 1 District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-878-5511 ext. 2428.
