Chas. Doupe Died Very Suddenly

The community was stunned on Saturday morning when it became known that Mr. Charles Robert Doupe, young farmer living on the West Back Line, about 3 miles from town had passed away. Mr. Doupe who was the only child of Mrs. Susan and the late Ephraim Doupe was in his 42nd year and was born on the homestead where he has since resided. Mr. Doupe had been in his apparently good health. In addition to farming he had operated a threshing machine, and had been threshing all day Friday and retired at night as usual and when Mrs. Doupe wakened on Saturday morning about 5.30 she realized something had happened and immediately sent for Dr. J. E. Milne of Flesherton, who on his arrival found that life had been extinct for some time.

Mr. Doupe was a well known and successful farmer and thresherman and was married about 17 years ago to Miss Millie Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haney of Eugenia, who survives together with a family of two boys and three girls, Edgar and Irene, the eldest, who are twins, Edna, Eva and John, all at home, also his mother, Mrs. Susan Doupe. His father passed away in a much similar manner about 12 years ago.

Mr. Doupe was a staunch Orangeman, a Past Master of Proton Lodge No. 244, Past District Master, Past K. C. in C. of the Royal Scarlet Chapter. He was a member of the former Methodist Church, now United.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, November 9th, with service at his late residence, conducted by Rev. G. R. Service, pastor of St. John's United Church. Interment was made in the family plot in Flesherton cemetery. Following the religious service the beautiful service of the Loyal Orange Association was held by the members of his Lodge, No. 244, Proton Station, and brethern from other Lodges.

The pallbearers were: Messrs W. Walker, F. W. Duncan, S. Campbell, W. Irwin, R. W. Vause and W. Dever, Members of the Orange Association.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Ottewell, Monday evening. The president read a few verses from St. Luke Gospel. Mrs. Inkster then led in prayer, minutes were read and adopted. Collection 55c. Several pieces were read from clip sheet. Mrs. Williams then read a piece from Tidings, then there was quite a lengthy discussion on taking up different subjects at each meeting, at the next meeting the subject will be "Christian Stewardship" to be taken by Mrs. Wolstencroft. The meeting closed by all repeating the W. C. T. U. Benediction.

Gift of Gideon Bibles

Mr. Glenn Petch of Toronto, representing the Gideon Organization, gave a very interesting discourse last Sunday morning. After bearing his own testimony to his personal religious experience in Christ he went on to give a very interesting account of the origin and work of the Gideon Organization. This band of commencial travellers in America have placed copies of the Bible in all hotels, hospitals, jails, prisons and penal institution throughout the continent and also in Palestine. One million copies in all representing so many dollars have been distributed. The Bibles which were later placed in the Munshaw and Park House and in a hotel in Markdale were dedicated at the morning service. Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Toronto rendered two very beautiful duets, and Miss Barbara Petch a violin solo.

Next Sunday morning we are having an exceptionally fine treat when the Virginia Jubilee Singers, eight coloured folk, will bring special music. The male quartette is exceedingly good. If you want to be really thrilled with the wonderful harmony which is peculiar to the coloured people, do not miss next Sunday morning service. Mr. Service had had this group on his previous charge and says "you cannot recommend them too highly." Our pastor will be in charge of the service and will bring the message.

On Monday night, November 16th, there will be a public concert given by the Virginia Singers in the Church auditorium. Admission, Adults 25c, Children 15c.

No Hunting In Grey

Word was received by Mr. F. R. Oliver, M. P. P., to the effect that deer hunting would not be allowed in Grey County this season, as has been the custom the past two years.

County Council Session Opens Next Monday

The November session of the Grey County Council will open at 7.30 o'clock on Monday night at the Council Chambers, Owen Sound with John E. Dolphin, Reeve of Derby, presiding. This is the final session of the year, which has been a very busy one, two special sessions having been necessary this year, owing to unforeseen matters respecting the system of collection of taxes, which has been satisfactorily cleared up. There was also the matter of equalized assessment appeal from which was taken by seven municipalities, and which was only cleared up after it had been taken to the courts.

The session is not expected to be a heavy one, although several of the reports of committees, such as Good Roads, Finance, etc., will be important and there is some interest in connection with the statement of the County Treasurer to be given early in the session.

Local Men Attend Ford Demonstration

For the first time since the Ford Motor Company was founded, more than thirty-three years ago, Ford dealers from all parts of the United States and Canada gathered in Dearborn Friday, November 6, for a huge dealers meeting with Henry Ford, founder and Edsel Ford, president of the company. Messrs. A. Down and R. Boyd, Ford dealers of Flesherton, attended the gathering.

Advance indications pointed to an attendance of approximately 8,000 dealers. The influx was expected to tax hotel capacities in Detroit and crowd to its capacity the huge coliseum at the State Fair Grounds where the big meeting was held. Preparations were made to house the dealers group in various hotels and in pullmans parked in various railroad stations.

The purpose of the meeting was the unveiling to the dealers of new Ford V-8 cars for 1937, but the climax was to come when the dealers presented to Henry Ford in historic Greenfield Village the 300-year-old Cape Cod windmill, built by the pilgrims in 1633, once a landmark of the Four Corners of West Yarmouth, Massachussetts.

The wndmill was purchased for Mr Ford more than a year ago by a committee of dealers. It was carefully taken down, timber by timber, each numbered, and now has been re-erected in a corner of the historic American village.

The Canadian Ford dealers gathered at the Windsor plant of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, when a tour was made through the large buildings where the new models are being built. In the afternoon a large group photograph of the dealers was taken and in the evening a banquet was held in the Prince Edward Hotel.

The majority of dealers from all sections of Canada and the United States gathered Friday morning. A fleet of 332 buses transported them to the State Fair Grounds for the meeting. Traffic experts of the Detroit Street Railways selected a number of routes from the downtown district to the fairgrounds, over which the buses operated in groups to insure the minimum of traffic congestion.

An address of welcome by Edsel Ford, as president of the company, opened the meeting. Information on the new cars and plans for the forthcoming selling season were presented by W. C. Cowling, director of sales, and J. R. Davis, his assistant.

The highlights of the session was the presentation of the new 1937 cars. Their lines were disclosed for the first time as the new cars, of all body types and in all colors, were driven into the Coliseum and around the arena. A presentation of the new car features, carried out with the aid of giant models, in a setting designed by Walter Dorwin Teague, noted industrial designer, was also made. The meeting adjourned at noon for luncheon at the Dairy Building in the State Fair Grounds.

At the conclusion of the meeting the dealers were transported in a bus fleet to Greenfield Village for the ceremonies incident to the presentation of the Cape Cod windmill to Mr. Ford.

A special program was arranged for newspaper and publication correspondents invited to attend the meeting.

The editorial guests attended the opening session of the dealers meeting at the Coliseum, where they were seated in a special section. At the conclusion of the morning meeting, they were transported to Dearborn Inn for luncheon, after which they crossed the street to the Ford Airport for a demonstration of the new cars on the mile-long concrete runways and over the new Ford test track, construction of which was completed in time for the preview. At the close of the demonstration, the press guests were taken to Greenfield Village to attend the windmill presentation ceremonies.

Good Luck First Day

Word from the High Falls Hunt Club was received the first of the week and two deer had been secured by the party on the first day of the hunt, Thursday. Mr. John Nuhn, a rookie in the deer hunting game, bagged one of them, a fine large buck. Good shooting, John.

DISTRICT DEPUTY VISITED CHAPTER

Grey Chapter No. 170, Eastern Star, enjoyed the official visit of Sister Viola Fox, of Wingham, District Deputy Grand Matron, at the regular meeting Monday evening. Sister Vera Gibson W. M., Bro. W. J. Colgan, W. P., and the other officers exemplified the degree work very satisfactorily. A banquet followed by speeches brought a very delightful evening to a close.

John McGowan Died At His Durham Home

Durham lost a highly-respected citizen and a prominent business man in the death on Sunday at his home here of Mr. John McGowan, who passed away after a year's illness from a complication of ailments in his 76th year. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death. Though seriously ill for the past twelve months, Mr. McGowan had been in failing health for the past three years. Only a month or so ago he was able to come down town in a car, but later was unable to move about, gradually sinking until the end came.

The late Mr. McGowan was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1861. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGowan and in 1867 he came to Canada with his parents, settling at Hawkesbury, on the Ottawa river near the Ontario-Quebec border, where his father entered the milling business. Ten years later, the deceased moved to Priceville, where he conducted the Priceville flour mill purchased by his father, and where he remained for some ten years, later running the flour mill at Kimberley. In 1902 he came to Durham, and after the death of his father, with his brother, W. A. McGowan, ran the People's Mill for two years, then taking over the mill himself and continuing until ill health forced his retirement a couple of years ago, when his sons, Arthur and Wallace, took over the management of the business. The flour mill was burned in 1925 and since then the business has been continued as a chopping and feed mill.

The late Mr. McGowan was married in 1888 to Miss Mary Gray of Glenelg township, who survives, with a family of three daughters and four sons: Mrs. W. G. Breen (Jean), Port Stanley; Mrs. P. J. Trotter (May), Port Arthur; Mrs. R. McCracken (Alice), Munson, Alberta; William R., Arthur and Wallace, Durham; and John S., Southampton. One sister, Mrs. Violet Sawdon, Toronto, and one brother, W. A. McGowan, Lucan, also survive.

Besides his business life in Durham, the late Mr. McGowan was identified with many of the town's activities. He was for three years a member of the council, served 23 years on the Public school trustee board, was a former president of the board of trade, and an active worker in the Presbyterian church, being for a number of years an elder, and was for many years a member of the board of managers. He was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had long been a member. The church was filled to overflowing with friends from Priceville and surrounding district, Durham and district, and from distant points. A short family service was held previous to the public service, both being conducted by the pastor, Rev. David Gowdy, who referred to the many activities of the deceased in church work, his loyalty, and the interest he had always taken.—Durham Chronicle.

Robt. Plantt Passes

Death came to a well known Artemesia resident on Tuesday morning in the person of Mr. Robt. Plantt at the age of 82 years. Mr. Plantt has been with his son, Fred, near Portlaw for the past two months, after residing for several years at Eugenia. He had been ailing for some time and death was not unexpected. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon, November 12th, with service at the home of his son, Fred, at 1.30 p.m., with interment taking place in Salem cemetery.

BACK TO COLLINGWOOD

Friends in Collingwood are pleased to learn that our former townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Ellis are returning to Collingwood to reside. They will transfer from Owen Sound during November. Here Mr. Ellis will be manager of the Dominion Engineers' Supply Co. When here Mr. and Mrs. Ellis were active in a wide circle of friends, who unite in welcoming them to their midst.—Bulletin.

The trouble with too many people who "want what they want when they want it" is that likely after they get it they'll not want it.

Santa Claus is specializing in streamlined playthings for the coming Christmas season. Next thing he'll be insisting upon air-conditioned chimneys.

Britain now leads the world in regular air route mileage, Empire machines covering a total of 53,291 miles. It s remarkable how successful Britishers seem to be in hiding that decadence that their enemies are so fond of talking about.

Mrs. J. I. Graham Died On Friday

Residents of this district will learn with the deepest regret of the passing away, at Vandeleur, on Friday evening of a well known and highly respected resident of that village, Mrs. John I. Graham. Deceased who was in her 74th year, had been ill for the past two weeks, contracting a heavy cold which was followed by congestion of the lungs. The late Mrs. Graham, whose maiden name was Margaret Blair, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Blair of Artemesia Township, West Back Line, where she was born and brought up. Following her marriage to John I. Graham on July 12, 1887, they took up farming on the Meaford Road between Flesherton and Meaford and always resided in the Vandeleur District.

The late Mrs. Graham leaves to mourn her passing her aged husband, four sons, Howard of Vandeleur, David of Kimberley, Wilfred of Markdale and Russell of Euphrasia Township, near Rocklyn, two daughters, Annie Mrs. Russell Freeman, of the townline of Artemesia and Euphrasia and May, at home, a sister, Mrs. W. R. Burnett of Markdale, and two brothers, Robert and Frank, residing in Saskatchewan.

The late Mrs. Graham was a member of the United Church at Vandeleur and a regular attendant while her health permitted. She also took an active interest in all community affairs.

The deceased is the third member of the Blair family to pass away during the past year. A sister, Mrs. Dorsey of Saskatchewan, pre-deceased her a month, and a brother, W. J. Blair of Florida ten months ago. Two brothers, Robt. and Frank of Rocanville, Sask., and a sister, Mrs. W. R. Burnett of Markdale survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham would have celebrated their "Golden Wedding" next summer, and the family were looking forward to the occasion.

For many years she was keenly interested in the work of the Women's Institute. She was President of the local branch, District President of Centre Grey and was on the first executive of Grey County, in the capacity of Vice President, and was later County President for a couple of years.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from her late residence to the Markdale cemetery and was exceptionally large. The pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren had charge of the service, and gave a comforting message. The pallbearers were the four sons, the son-in-law, and her only surviving brother-in-law, Mr. W. R. Burnett of Markdale.

The foral tributes included a pillow from the family, and sprays from the grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burnett, Miss M. K. Graham, Vandeleur, Ladies' Aid and the Women's Institute.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Graham and family of Clarksburg, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham of Walkerton, Miss M. K. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. W. Jenkling of Listowel. Mrs. Lowery and Mr. Webb of Schomberg. Mr. W. G. Blair of Toronto, Mr. Jos. McKee of Priceville.

Bought Town Property

The property on the south side of the Ceylon road, west of the pond was sold on Saturday by Earl and Roy Best to Mr. Jack Beatty of Maxwell. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty and two children expect to move shortly to their new home.

Any Day A Fish Day

A Message From The Premier of Ontario

Ontario's commercial fishing industry is an important factor in our industrial life. In view of this fact and the exceptional value of fish as food, it is a pleasure to direct the attention of the people of this Province to a Dominion-wide campaign to encourage greater consumption of Canadian fish.

In Ontario alone we have more than twelve varieties of food fish from which to choose, so that there should be no monotony occurring in this course of the menu.

An appeal is made to the people of this Province to promote in every way possible consumption of Canadian fish, thereby assisting in the further growth and development of an important Provincial asset, the commercial fisheries.
