The Flesherton Advance.

VOL. 56; NO. 24. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1936 W. H. THURSTON & SON, Proprietors

Prince Arthur Lodge Has Diamond Jubilee

Thursday evening of this week is gala day for Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A. F. & A.M., when the 60th anniversary of the Lodge will be celebrated. Rt. Wor. Bro. W. J. Dunlop, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario, will be the guest of the Lodge and the principal speaker. Others prominent in the Masonic fraternity will also be present. Following the special meeting of the Lodge at 7.30 p.m., a banquet will be held in the auditorium for which the Eastern Star is catering and for which a splendid program has been arranged.

A large delegation from Grey Lodge, Toronto, will be received by the Worshipful Master of Prince Arthur Lodge, Wor. Bro. A. Down, and also one from Prince Arthur Lodge No. 334, Arthur, which is also observing its diamond anniversary this year. The Master, officers and brethern of Prince Arthur Lodge, expect to give a cordial welcome to a large number of visitors at this celebration.

HUNTERS HOME

The High Falls Hunt Club returned home early Tuesday morning from their annual hunt with their complement of deer. Messrs. G. A. McTavish and J. A. Richards motored to the Club camp on Friday, returning with the other members of the party. Splendid weather made the outing most enjoyable.

VISITED AT CHESLEY

Mrs. Fred G. Karstedt of Flesherton was in town last Friday and called on many former pupils and other friends as time would permit. As this was the first occasion most of those she met had seen their popular music teacher since she became a bride, many and hearty were the congratulations to the former Miss Elizabeth Meuser from pupils and other friends and best wishes for happiness in her new conjugal relationship.—Chesley Enterprise.

The Elmwood correspondent in the Enterprise says:

Mrs. Karstedt of Flesherton spent the week end in town with her aged mother, brother and sister. This was the former Miss Elizabeth Meuser's first visit back to her native village since she became a bride and her many friends here were delighted to again meet this bright, cheerful and helpful woman who had contributed for several years to the best musical and religious services in this burg.

Died From Injuries

Mr. Ord Cornett, Osprey township farmer, died in Orangeville hospital early Tuesday morning of last week, as a result of injuries received in a fall while assisting with the threshing on the farm of Mr. Sam. Talbot, a neighbor.

Mr. Cornett was hurt on Monday shortly before noon, when the leg of a table was being used to carry the sheaves from the mow to the grain separator collapsed under his weight. He fell, an upright pipe on the table piercing the rectum.

He was removed to Orangeville hospital late that night, where he died.

The late Ord Cornett was born in Melancthon township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cornett. He was a returned veteran having gone overseas with the 147th Regiment. He was widely known and was very popular wherever he went. He was a Past Master of East Grey County Orange Lodge and was prominent in the Royal Black Knights.

He was 47 years of age and unmarried. He leaves to mourn his loss, his father, Mr. R. J. Cornett, one brother, Oliver of Artemesia and two sisters, Mrs. Herb. Dresser of Bethel and Miss Roberta Cornett of Toronto.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from his late home to Dundalk cemetery, and was under military and orange auspices.

A number of Orange brethern from this district attended the funeral.

The Jubilee Singers

St. John's United Church was well filled on Monday evening when the Virginia Jubilee Singers gave one of their wonderful concerts. The audience was a very enthusiastic and appreciative one, nearly every number being enthusiastically encored and obligingly acknowledged. The program was in two parts, the first made up of spirituals such as "Lord I want to be a Christian," "Goin Home", "John Saw the Holy Number," and many others. Many of these numbers were given by Elder Hawkins throughout Ontario, fifty years ago, but many were new. The second part of the program was made up of plantation songs of the southland and the whole concert of two hours duration was intensely enjoyed by the large audience.

BORN

BETTS — In Artemesia on Thursday, November 12th, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Betts, a daughter.

"SUNWORTHY" REGISTERED TRADE MARK
ITS BEAUTY LASTS
WALLPAPER
MADE BY CANADIAN WALLPAPER MANUFACTURERS LTD.

100 Patterns To Choose From

Special Low Prices

FLOOR COVERING SPECIALS

6x9 Borderless Rex. Rug $2.29

9x12 Borderless Vel Felt Rug $5.79

Linoleum, Congoleum Rugs
New Low Prices

8 piece Dining Room Suite, Sale Price $54.50

3 Piece Chesterfield Suite, Repp Covering .. $67.50

4 piece Bedroom Suite, Walnut Finish, Venetian Mirror $63.00

RADIOS

Battery 2 volt sett complete installed only .. $54.95

Electrics from ..... $31.75 up

Bennett & Richards

HOME FURNISHERS

Phone 78 We deliver FLESHERTON, Ont.

Scurried For Licenses

There was a general scurrying around town on Thursday last to secure licenses by radio users when Mr. E. John Mepham, Hanover, radio license supervisor for Grey and Bruce, visited town. Those who had neglected to renew their licenses were obliged to come across and become reinstated to good standing with the Canadian Radio Commission. Mr. Mepham will continue his canvas throughout this district until completed. He will be around again next year and hopes for the same courtesy that has been extended on this his first visit.

Rev. Ferry Spoke At Memorial Service

The annual Memorial Day services were held in the town hall on Wednesday morning of last week, and we are sorry to say that the attendance was not as large as the occasion warranted. Those present, however, heard a splendid address by Rev. Alan Ferry of Corbetton. His theme was directed to the horrors of war and the uselessness of the sacrifices made by humanity. He illustrated his address by personal experiences in the war zone. In closing he stated that it is far cheaper to build for peace than to go through the ghastly business of war again. Messrs. George Banks and Harry Fellow placed a wreath before the altar in memory of those from this district who had laid down their lives for, what they thought, freedom, the names being read by the chairman, Mr. Wm. Miller. Two minutes of silence was observed at the commencement of the service and the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" was sung followed by Rev. G. R. Service reading the Scripture lesson, following with prayer.

Many Attended Funeral

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral of the late Charles Doupe on Monday of last week were: Mr. Herb Haney, Mr. Reuben Spence, Mrs. Katherine Spence, Mrs. Burton Field and Bruce, all of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brooks of Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Skippen of Heathcote, Mr. and Mrs. Victor McArthur of Ravenna, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Liversage and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie and family, Nathaniel, Willie and Emma Shier, all of Cedarville.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends were a spray from the teacher and pupils of Springhill School and a spray from L.O.L. No. 244, Proton.

PRENTICE—ARMSTRONG

A wedding of wide interest took place on Wednesday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Armstrong, when their daughter, Mary Isabel was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. Taylor Prentice, B. A., of Toronto, son of Mrs. Prentice and the late J. A. Prentice of Collingwood, Rev. A. E. Armstrong officiated.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. W. Armstrong, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, sister of the bride.

A quartette consisting of John, Albert, Maurice and Hartley Armstrong brothers of the bride, sang during the signing of the register.

A lovely buffet luncheon was served by Misses Mary Campbell, Duntroon, Elsie Somers, Lillian Cooper, Meaford, and Alice Armstrong, Flesherton.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Prentice left on a two weeks' motor trip to Washington and other points in the United States. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Mr. Geo. Armstrong and Miss Alice Armstrong of Flesherton attended the wedding.

PLAY AT EUGENIA

A humorous play "The Family Disturber" will be presented in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on Thursday, November 19th, at 8 p.m., by the Badjeros Dramatic Club. Varied program between acts. Lunch served. Admission: 25c and 15c.

Turn about isn't fair play when the peroxide blonde becomes a brunette again.

J. E. Moore Died At Age of 88 Years

Many people of Flesherton and Ceylon will learn with regret of the passing of Mr. J. E. Moore on October 29, at his home, 576 Bailey Ave., Mountain View, California, he having resided many years in Flesherton, in the furniture and undertaking business and also in Ceylon, where he ran the planing mill (later run by R. P. Legate). In 1873 he was married to Marion Elizabeth Leitch and in 1900, Mr. Moore and his eldest daughter, Florence, left for San Mateo, California, to look for a home and in 1901 Mrs. Moore and family left Flesherton and joined her husband. In 1906 they moved from San Mateo to Mountain View, where since they have resided. Mr. Moore and family were ardent workers in the Baptist Church when in Flesherton.

The following account of his death appeared in the Register-Leader, Mountain View, Calif.:

A large and very representative gathering of local people met in the parlors of the Anway Funeral Home last Saturday afternoon to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of James Edward Moore, 88 year old patriarch, who has been a resident and good citizen of Mountain View for 30 years. Mr. Moore passed away at his home on Bailey Ave., Thursday afternoon, October 29, 1936, after an illness of less than a week. Strong and vigorous during all of his long lifetime, death came like a peaceful sleep and found him ready to go to whatever lies beyond the mystic veil. He suffered no pains and his mind was clear and bright until the last moment of time. He recognized the different members of his family as he gave them his blessings. A wonderful ending of the life time of a grand old man.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. R. G. McIntyre, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church of which Mr. Moore had been one of the most faithful members for many years and a deacon for a long time and until his death. Rev. McIntyre spoke a sincere and beautiful eulogy for his friend; the Rev. Dr. Lendels, once pastor of Memorial Church, now pastor of the Union Church in Los Altos, offered a prayer. The people filed slowly along beside the flower-decked bier and looked in tender respect upon the calm face of him who slept serenley, sweetly there.

Six stalwart young men, all grandsons, or the husbands of granddaughters of the deceased carried the casket to its last resting place in beautiful Alta Mesa. They were Alfred Moore Jr., Luther Dirkson, Russel Goulding, Willard Paul, Eugene Downs and Elward Moore.

James Edward Moore was born in England in the year 1848. A youth of 18 he migrated to Canada, where in 1873 he was married to the sweet faced girl who, a sweet faced wife for more than 63 years followed him to his last resting place. In 1899 the family came to California and in 1906 settled in Mountain View and Mr. Moore began business as a furniture dealer which he continued for some 16 years, which is still carried on by his son, Charles. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were the parents of 10 children all of whom with children and grandchildren survive. They are Miss Flor-Moore of this city, Mrs. David Goulding of Santa Criez, Alfred S. Moore of San Mateo, Mrs. Henry Downs of San Matoe, Mrs. W. E. Paul of Berkeley; Mrs. Will Ervine of Dixon, William T. Moore of Madera, Charles Moore of Mountain View, Mrs. Chester Veerkamp of Los Angeles and Harold Moore of Long Beach.

On March 4, 1936, Mr. and Mrs. Moore celebrated the 63rd anniversary of their marriage, an event of very unusual interest, not only because of their long and happy life together, but because a splendid clan of almost two score sons and daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren, were all alive and well and nearly all of them present to celebrate the occasion. Mr. Moore was exceptionally active for a man of four score and eight years. As lately as May of this year he regularly drove his automobile about the country, where ever he had occasion to go, and on the day before he went to bed for the last time he was down town and attending to business matters as usual.

The tax collector has a taking way about him.

"Husband must pay the costs."—heading. Stung again.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Smith upon celebrating their golden wedding anniversary on Monday of this week, November 16th, at their residence, 22 Geoffrey Street, Toronto. A reception for friends was held from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 to 10 o'clock in the evening. They were assisted in receiving by their daughter, Miss Ina, and son, Charles, and also their little granddaughter, Joan Elizabeth Smith. Mrs. Chas. Smith, daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. J. McGee of Markdale and Mrs. Wighton and Mrs. F. Pipher of Toronto poured, tea while Mrs. Ridout and the Misses Betty Milligan, Dora Boland, Ruth Myles and Dorothy Ottewell acted as assistants. Mrs. W. Swanton had charge of the golden book in which one hundred and two guests inscribed their names. Mrs. J. J. McGee was the only guest present who attended the wedding in 1886.

Many beautiful gifts and a profusion of flowers and good wishes were presented to the very youthful-appearing bride of fifty years ago.

This estimable couple were married in Flesherton fifty years ago by Rev. Andrew Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church and for many years resided in Markdale, where Mr. Smith was employed in the Markdale furniture factory, when they moved to Toronto nine years ago. Mr. Smith was born in Artemesia township in 1858, and Mrs. Smith, who was formerly Henrietta Osborne, was born in 1864. Mrs. Smith was a daughter of the late John and Jane Osborne, pioneers of Osprey township. They have two children, Charles D. Smith of Oshawa and Ina, at home, also one grandchild, Joan Elizabeth.

Mr. Wm. Stewart and Mr. Jas. A. Stewart of Flesherton attended the reception.

Miss Macphail's Tour

Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P. of Grey-Bruce, who is on an extensive tour in the United States will give an address in New York City on December 1st. Cities where Miss Macphail has already spoken since starting out on the tour the last week in October include Kalamazoo, Detroit, Cleveland, Springfield, Chicago, Rockford, Milwaukee and Oklahoma. Her itinerary includes about 20 speaking engagements in different states in the United States. She has yet to speak at Des Moines; North Hampton, Mass.; Syracuse, N. Y., Washington, D. C., New York City, Toledo, Ohio; Louisville, Kentucky, Oak Park, Illinois; and Grand Rapids, Mich.— Owen Sound Sun.Times.

W. M. S.

The W. M. S. will meet in St. John's United church on Thursday 19th at 3 p.m. The election of officers will take place. All women are invited.

The population of the United States is now 128,249,000.

ACCIDENTS ARE COSTLY

LOST TIME IS LOST MONEY

Then there is the Doctor's bills, Nurse's fees, Hospital bills.

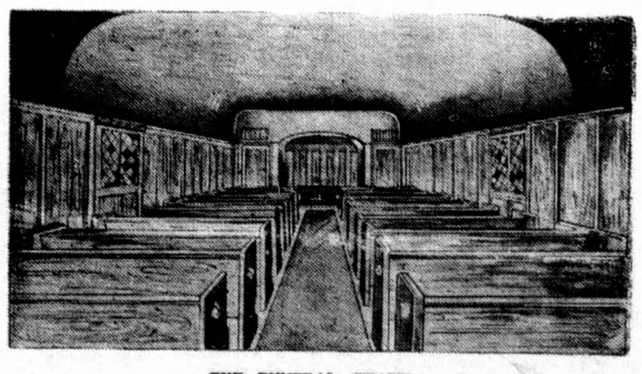
A month in the Hospital may devour the earning of several months.

HERE IS OUR OFFER:—

In the event of an accident we will pay for your lost time, also your Surgeons, Hospital and nurses fees. Yes and even pay your Doctor's bills on none-disabling injuries.

Write or Phone

ROY L. LANGFORD,
Phone 61
Flesherton



THE FUNERAL CHAPEL.

A dignified, personal funeral service. Available in all parts of Toronto and suburbs at prices to suit the income of every family.

Bates & Maddocks Burial Co.

FORMERLY BATES BURIAL CO.

Fred Maddocks Richard Maddocks, Mgr.
KI. 4344-3456 124 AVENUE ROAD

ONE BLOCK SOUTH OF DAVENPORT ROAD