By the time this reaches publication 1936 wll be nearly spent and 1937 will be waiting to enter. Here is hoping that "peace on earth, goodwill toward men" will be the motto for 1937. Happy New Year to the staff and subscribers of The Advance.

THE COLORS OF A MAN

He's black when he is wicked,
He's purple when he's angry,
He's yellow when he's cowardly,
He's blue when he's loyal.
He's white when he's straight.
He's brown when he is roasted.
He's pink when he is toasted.
He's green when he's ignorant.
He's grey when he's old.
He's colorless when he's uninteresting.

Would you say that persons employed in munition factories are on peace work.

KIMBERLEY

Christmas has been here and gone again, bringing with it the usual joys and merry-making and its re-unions of families.

Misses Bessie Stafford, Iola Graham, Tena Hutchinson and Russell Chard are home from their schools. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McMullen entertained their several brothers and sisters and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kirkpatrick had several members of their families and Mr. and Mrs. Art Wardman of Toronto visited with the Weber family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber, Lee, Ted and Lois were guests for a week with Mrs. Weber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLean at Warren, Ohio.

The Christmas tree held by the public school teachers, Mr. Glen Jenkins and Miss Jean Carruthers, for the Sunday School was a splendid success. The opening recitation was given by little Blanche Pickles, followed by many splendid numbers. There were no poor numbers and no long intervals between. Particular mention might be made of the girls' drill "Scrooge's Christmas," and "No room in the inn." Proceeds amounted to $39.35.

The recent rains have flooded the flats to an unusual degree and also some of the cellars in the village. Mr. D. L. Weber is one of the latter unfortunates.

Mr. Billy Flavin of Toronto is the guest of his cousins, the Chard boys.

We wish The Advance and staff a happy and prosperous New Year.

The Y. P. S. withdrew their meeting on Wednesday evening of last week. On Wednesday evening of this week the meeting will be in the form of a social evening.

The Christmas concert held in the hall on Tuesday evening, December 22, was a joint affair, the Sunday school, Public school and 8th line public school all taking part. A fine program was delivered which speaks well for all the teachers of both the public schools and Sunday school, who trained the pupils. After the program Santa Claus distributed the gifts from off the well laden tree. A nice sum was realized.

We wish ye Editor of the Advance, also the staff and readers a prosperous and happy year 1937.

Provincial Election In 1938

Ontario's next Provincial general election will be held in 1938, Premier Hepburn has indicated. There will be two sessions of the Legislature before a general election, and no redistribution bill will be brought down at the sessions of the House after the New Year, announced the Premier. Redistribution is necessary, but will come at the final session. At the present, it is not the intention of the Government to remain five years in office. This is possible under amending legislation put through by Hon. Howard Ferguson when he ws Premier, but it was attacked on the hustings of Mr. Hepburn, and it is expected the election will come in 1938.
