The way we were

Norval's Hollywood Hotel

The northeast corner of Highway 7 and Winston Churchill Road is unrecognizable in this photo taken in the early 1900s. Built in the mid 1800s, the Hollywood Hotel did a roaring business as Peel was 'dry' and Norval was the first place to quench your thirst over the county line. The building was eventually gutted by fire in 1993.

A HAIRY BIRTHDAY

Georgetown resident and Region of Peel Community Counsellor Trista Roberston donated nearly 30 inches of hair to Angel Hair for Kids, a local organization which provides children with wigs who have lost their hair for medical conditions. Robertson had her hair cut by Melissa at Studio North Salon in Brampton. Trista donated her hair for her birthday and says that it was very rewarding and encourages others to do the same.

Splash pads are the place to be

A new exhibition of work by community artists will be on view at the Town of Halton Hills' Helson Gallery from June 27 to September 8. The exhibit features a diverse selection of work, in various media, by Halton Hills artists.

Kids are now out of school for the summer; please drive with caution.

Now that the warmer weather is here; please be cautious of walking in the woods by wearing long pants and sleeves. Those nasty ticks can spread Lyme Disease. There are more and more cases every year in Ontario; including Halton Hills. If you want further information on Lyme Disease, please visit the Canadian Lyme Disease Foundation at <http://www.canlyme.com>.

If you have little ones, why not bring them to one of Halton Hills' three splash pads to cool down! You can cool down at: Gellert Community Centre, Dominion Gardens Park in Georgetown and the Superior Glove splash pad located in Prospect Park, Acton. During the extreme heat, the Civic Centre is a great place to cool down. While you are here, take a look at the Mayor's art wall; showcasing artist Marlene Madole.

In economic news: there was a major land sale in the Halton Hills Premier Gateway. Pure Industrial Real Estate

Trust (PIRET) announced that they purchased 11000 Steeles Ave for $9.8 million. The 123,750 sq. ft. building is fully leased by RONA as a distribution warehouse and sits on 13.8 acres that are zoned Prestige Industrial.

A big thank you to all of the volunteers who helped make Canada Day a huge success in Acton and Glen Williams. Congratulations to the Credit River Anglers Association, named "Glen Williams 2013 Citizen of the Year".
