EUGENIA

The Y. P. U. are preparing to hold a Valentine social in the basement of the church on Friday evening. A good time is anticipated.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. P. U. was held on Wednesday evening, February 3. Mrs. Martin presided and took the devotional part; Miss Dinsmore acted as organist; Scripture passages were read by Miss Jean Tudor. The citizenship topic, "Planning a New Home," was taken by Mr. Ross Smith, who gave a very interesting discussion. Mrs. Martin read a selection about the home life of our present King and Queen, which revealed the Christian fellowship and the Christian ideals in the royal home which would be fine examples to follow. Some fine musical numbers were rendered by Miss Dinsmore on the organ, Miss Park on the violin, Dorothy Falconer, Ruth Graham and Jean Proctor on guitars and Margaret McMillan on the ukelele. Some games were played after which the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Mr. Edwin Purvis and winsome little daughters, Shirley and June, also his friend, Mr. William Tipple of Toronto visited over the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Purvis.

Mrs. C. Martin went to Flesherton on Saturday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Miss Mabel Clark of Clinton, who passed away suddenly on Wednesday of last week.

We are pleased to report Mr. John Parson recovering after having the misfortune to accidentally fall a week ago or so and consderably injure himself. Mrs. Parson has also been laid up with the prevailing epidemic and we are glad to hear that she is almost well again.

We are glad to report Mr. Robt. Haney who has been quite ill the past couple of weeks has almost fully renewed his good health again.

Mr. John Parson received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. James Findlay (nee Miss Naomi Parsons) whose death occurred at her home at Swift Current, Sask., where she has resided for over 25 years. After a prolonged illness of several months, she passed away on Jan. 30, at the age of 68 years. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves in sad bereavement, a married daughter, who resides in the West, also two brothers, John of Eugenia and William H. of Owen Sound and one sister, Mrs. John J. Benson of Guernsey, Sask. We extend our sympathy to the Parson family.

Mrs. Jos. Williams and son Jos. visited the Partridge family at Rock Mills on Sunday.

Mr. Will Fenwick and sister, Miss Edith motored to Palermo on Saturday to spend a few days with their mother and sister there.

Little Miss Elnora, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Russell Linton at Victoria Corners.

The Misses Rowena, Lillian and Doris Magee were home from Flesherton over the week end.

Mr. Ben Hanley has returned home from St. Catherines where he has been working for some time.

Quite a number has been on the sick list with the cold the past few weeks.

Miss Olive Hughson of Singhampton is visiting for a time with Mr. and Mrs. Kaitting and son Ken.

Ted — A Dog

Ted is gone where the good doggies go. He was just a mongrel black collie known for miles as Marjorie Stevens' bodyguard.

Marjorie is an only child who lived almost two miles away from a public school. She had a lonely road to travel, and there were no neighbor children attending school to be company for her. So when she was beginning, the intelligent little dog was taught to accompany her, and every day during her entire public school life, Ted proudly trotted along beside her. He would spend the day at Marjorie's grandparents, who lived posite the school, but at four o'clock he was at the school yard gate. We could write columns of incidents that occurred during schooldays, of the dog's devotion for his little mistress, how he showed dislike for any stranger who was walking along the road, and very many times if the girl was offered a ride he showed such disapproval that if she accepted, the driver would have to give the dog a ride, also. A rabbit or ground hog were very alluring to Ted for he dearly loved a chase, but not when on duty. Oh my, No!

Marjorie is in High School now and Ted has passed on. He had grown old, he was partially deaf and blind, and his eyebrows were white, but he had been faithful to his trust and saved the girl's parents many an anxious hour. Good old Ted!

Mr. H. B. Jackson has sold his village property to Mr. I. B. Whyte.

Mr. and Mrs. Consley and Miss Edith Consley received the gift of a radio from friends in the city.

Mrs. Duncan McNicol of Toronto returned home after spending a few days at the home of her father, Mr. Chas. Lyons.

CENTRE LINE

We are having another ice storm at the time of writing, making it very hard to get around.

The attendance at Mount Zion church has been very good all winter. Rev. Bushell gave another wonderful message yesterday. His talk being about Jacob and Esau. He intends to give a series of sermons for the next six Sundays. We hope every one who can possibly come will be out to hear these sermons.

Mrs. Robt. Taylor of Toronto spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plantt and family the past week.

Miss Hazel Osborne returned home from Maxwell last week, where she has spent the past two months.

Mrs. Fred Plantt entertained a number of ladies at a quilting on Thursday afternoon last.

Mr. Edwin Little and Mr. Vance Jerrett are visiting friends near Clarksburg at present.

Mr. John Osborne, Fred and Arthur Betts spent Sunday at Robt. Osborne's.

The man out in society who will admit that he is fond of bean soup, you can depend on entirely.

"The fact remains," says Mr. Roebuck, "that one dollar saved on a bill is as good as a dollar saved on any other bill." Is there no moral difference between a dollar saved on the baker's bill and a dollar saved on a liquor bill?
