Acton Legion news

Let's hope for a better week ahead so we can sit on the patio and enjoy the view of the lake. With all of this rain it is hard to plan anything at all.

Here's hoping everyone enjoys their summer holidays.

Comrades, the branch will be closed this coming Sunday (July 14) for maintenance but will be open again next Sunday.

On June 23, we had our Honours and Awards ceremony. This was a special day for four members who received their life memberships. Congratulations to Keith Andrews, John McNabb, Jim Thornhill and Kerwin McPhail. These gentlemen have worked very hard around the branch and in the community and deserve a life membership for all they have done.

We also had initiation of seven new members: Vicki Anderson, Debra Crooks, Chad Crooks, Nancy Johnston, Ida Bogartaj and Patricia Schouteten. Congratulations to you all. Our awards

We also made a donation to the Georgetown Hospital for $4,000.

Thank you to all of the volunteers that helped make Canada Day a huge success. The fireworks are always beautiful. It makes the evening light up the sky.

Thank you to all of the firemen. Your light show was beautiful. Every year it gets better.

Recently teams from the branch went to district horseshoes in Waterdown. Keith Andrews and Teresa Uiterwyk came in first in doubles. Amy Newman came in first in singles and in senior shoes Bob Merrikin and Dave Windsor came in third.
