KIMBERLEY

For over two weeks the 'flu has been going its rounds. We are thankful that no one has been very seriously ill, although many were quite sick. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carruthers and little Gerald Kirkpatrick were the worst sufferers, but both are improving.

The dance given by the Hall Board on Friday night was not largely attended, but all had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Betts and Janet of Flesherton and Mr. and Mrs. Art Wardman of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber on Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Proctor on Tuesday afternoon, when there was a good attendance. It was decided to have programs this year. Mrs. Dillon kindly offered to look after them. A vote of appreciation was given Mrs. Soul, who for the past seven years had been a very efficient secretary. It was decided to continue making more quilts.

Miss Odessa Wickens, who was suddenly stricken with an attack of appendicitis, was rushed to Collingwood hospital. Following the operation her condition was very grave for a few days, but we are pleased to report that she is making satisfactory progress.

We are sorry Rev. McAuslan is ill and unable to take the service Sunday night. His place was taken by Mr. H. Baker, who gave a splendid talk from Ephesians 4: 13.

Mrs. A. E. Ellis and Mrs. S. S. Burritt spent an afternoon visiting with Miss Fannie Abercrombie at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Pottage, Fairmount. Miss Abercrombie is in her 89th year and enjoys fairly good health.

Mr. Joe Ward is moving this week to the home of Mrs. A. E. Myles. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ward and family are already in the home.

PROTON STATION

The autograph quilt, made by the Proton Station ladies in the interests of the Proton Station hockey team, is on exhibition in Dever Bros. store. The quilt is a beautifully finished article in white cotton with three hundred and fifty-three iames worked thereon wth red etching thread. In the centre the figure of a "bear" is outlined, and the names of the hockey team and their officers are artistically grouped around it. The names were all written by Mr. Bert Sims, manager of the hockey team and Mrs. Sims directed the making of the quilt.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. R. G. Acheson were: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duncan of Vermillion, Alta., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Duncan Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Christie Johnson and Mr Hogg of Shelburne..

That revolution destroys its own children has once again been demonstrated in Russia.

VANDELEUR

The February meeting of the Vandeleur United Church Woman's Association was held at the home of Mrs. George Buchanan with a fair attendance of members. Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson presided and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson gave a splendid paper, following which Mrs. Davison was in charge of the contest. Luncheon was served by the hostess. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson.

The last meeting of the Y.P..S. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shannon on Friday evening of last week. The meeting was in charge of the Missionary department. Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson, the convenor, presided. Mrs. Lundy Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Harold Thompson, gave a splendid address on missions, and Miss Lillian Buchanan also gave a reading.. Mrs. Harold Thompson was in charge of the contest. Following the program luncheon was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McGee on Friday evening.

Miss Marion Summers had a birthday party on Saturday afternoon, twelve girl friends being present to celebrate with Marion her eighth birthday.

Mr. Elmer Warling spent a couple of days last week in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson visited friends in Orangeville over the week end.

Miss Minnie Graham of Listowel is visiting her home in the Valley and friends in the community.

Mrs. Ray Genoe and daughter spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Will Ratcliffe.

CENTRE LINE

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson of Shelburne visited at the home of Mr. Fred Taylor recently.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Jack Haney is in bed with blood poisoning in his foot and leg. Mrs. Fred Plantt is also suffering with blood poisoning in her face.

Mr. Lloyd and Joe Little and sister, Miss Evelyn, spent Sunday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Croft, Dundalk.

The Mount Zion W. A. held their regular monthy meeting at the home of Mrs. Florence Lyons last Tuesday with ten members present and five visitors. The afternoon was spent in quilting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Hopps at Portlaw..

VICTORIA CORNERS

The ladies of the W. A. met at the home of Mrs. J. Batchelor on Wednesday. There was an unusually small attendance on account of the 'flu and the icy roads, the latter being very prevalent this winter.

Wm. Talbot and family visited their son, Dave, and wife at Moorefield. Mrs. Talbot remained for a couple of weeks.

Miss Ina Acheson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Walton, Hopeville.

Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones in our vicinity. We would especially mention the death of Mr. H. H. Gallagher at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allan Montgomery, of Dundalk. Mr. Gallagher was for many years a faithful attendant and great help at the Inistioge church, as well as a very respected resident in the neighborhood.

FLORENCE JANET ADAMS DIES

The community was filled with sorrow when it became known that two homes had been bereaved over the week end.

Little Florence Janet, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Adams died very suddenly late Saturday night. The child had been cutting teeth and developed 'flu and although every possible care was given her, she expired after only a two days' illness. Florence would have been two years old on March 3rd. Rev. Service had charge of the private funeral Monday afternoon, when service was held at the house at 3 p.m., with interment being made in the mortuary chapel in Flesherton cemetery. the pallbearers were: Jim Kennedy, Melville Hunt, Emerson Plester and Charlie McWilliam.

BENJAMIN HARGRAVE DIES

Mr. Benjamin A. Hargrave of the west backline, Artemesia, passed away about 11.30 Saturday night. He had suffered a broken hip early in the week from a fall on the ice and the shock proved too much for his delicate state of health.

The late Mr. Hargrave was born on the townline of Egremont in 1867 and when a year and a half old came to the Hargrave homestead, where he remained until 17 years ago when he moved to the farm on the west backline, formerly owned by the late Geo. L. White. He received his education at the school on the 8th line of Artemesia.

Thirty-seven years ago he was married to Susan Thompson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of the 3rd line, Artemesia, who survives with one son, George. He is also survived by two brothers John of the Collingwood Gravel, Artemesia, and William of Dundalk. A sister, Jane, died some 55 years ago.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon with service at his late residence at 2 p.m.. with Rev. Pherrill of Markdale Anglican Church in charge. Interment took place in the family plot in Maxwell cemetery.

Progressive euchre parties have become very popular on Stone's Line this winter. Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sturrock's home was the scene of the jolly crowd. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. D. McLeod and Mr. J. D. Campbell, while Mr. Jack McMeekin and Mr. J. D. McLeod carried off the consolation prizes. Lunch was served and a jolly social hour spent after the games.

Mrs. Snowden McLeod has returned after a two weeks' visit in Toronto.

Mr. Bill Cairns is on an extended visit in Toronto.

Miss Dorothy Snell is spending a week in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirk Sr. of Berkeley were viistors on Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. A. C. Muir.

Mr. Sangster Hemphill and Miss Maud Hemphill were at Laskey on Friday attending the funeral of Miss Watson.

Mr. Farquhar Oliver, M.P.P., returned to Toronto on Tuesday.

Mr. F. D. Cairns and Mr. J. F. Collinson and two daughters, Margaret and Jean, attended the funeral of the late Mrs.. James G Collinson in Toronto on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bailey and family of Shrigley visited on Sunday with Mrs. D. Macphail.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Corbett of Proton were callers at J. F. Collinson's on Monday.

The community extends its sympathy to the Adams, Hargrave and Vause families in the sorrow through which they have been passing.

Mrs. Anna McMillan has returned home from Owen Sound, having recovered from her tonsil operation.

Mrs. Murray Farnell underwent an operation in Markdale hospital the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Archie Sinclair spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Messrs. Joe and Wilfred Campbell have returned from the North camps.

The Ladies' Aid meets Tuesday evening, February 23rd, instead of Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Jas. Pattison at 8 p.m. The Valentine program will be in charge of Mesdames Genoe, Sinclair and Gibson; the roll call to be answered with the name of a book and its author. Cake: Mesdames Hunt and T. Stewart; sandwich, Mesdames Snowden McLeod and Earl McLeod.

Mr. Levi Coutts visited with Maxwell friends over the week end.

Card of Thanks

The committee in charge of the hockey at Markdale on Monday night desire to acknowledge with gratitude the kindness of those in charge in having the hockey match at Flesherton postponed in our favor. Markdale people certainly appreciate your kindness, Flesherton friends. We'll not forget your good sportsmanship, and assure you that your events will receive our hearty support.

Signed on behalf of the committee,
—G. A. Beaton, F. D. Sawyer.

EUGENIA

BORN — On Friday, February 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goddard (nee Hilda Genoe) a daughter, Blanche Marline.

Mrs. Thos. Genoe of Ceylon is with her daughter, Mrs. Goddard, at present.

Mrs. A. Cameron attended the funeral of her cousin, Mr. Thos. Blakeley at Flesherton on Saturday. Mrs. C. Martin also attended the funeral, as the late Mr. Blakeley was her uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Parliament have moved from apartments in Mr. Jake Williams' residence to Mr. John Magee's home, where they have rented a few rooms.

Mrs. W. C. Hanley is visiting in Flesherton with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Akitt, who is ill.

On Friday evening the Y.P.A. met in the basement of the church for a social time, as well as for their regular meeting. The room was artistically decorated with hearts, mottoes and streamers, observing Valentine's Day. Mrs. C. Martin presided, taking the devotional and discussion periods. The topic of discussion was "Youth and Romance." Miss Dinsmore was organist for the evening. Scripture passages were read by Miss Phyllis Graham, Miss Dinsmore and Miss Mabel Betts from Genesis 24th chapter, which told of the noteable romance of Rebekah and Isaac. Prayer was offered by Miss Dinsmore, after which the social period opened by a "Friendship" chorus, followed by a reading "St. Valentine" by Miss Dinsmore. A Valentine chorus "A Valentine For Me," was given by the Y.P.A. members, followed by community singing and recitations by Margaret McMillan and Marge Martin. Three musical selections were given by the orchestra, composed of Miss Dinsmore organist, Miss M. Park violinist, Ruth Graham, Dorothy Falconer and Jean Proctor with guitars and Margaret McMillan a ukelele. A trio was given by Burton, Arthur and Evelyn, accompanied by the latter with the guitar and little Dennis Campbell chording at the organ, who did real well for a little lad. Two contests "Musical Hearts" and "The Stings of Spooks" were conducted. Miss Phyllis Graham directed a "heart" contest, which resulted in partners for lunch. (She thought she made some pretty good matches.) Lunch was served, after which the president thanked all who assisted and attended the function. The National Anthem brought a very enjoyable evening to a close. The proceeds of the meeting will be given to the M. and M. Fund.
