On Friday, Georgetown Little Theatre's Improv team will help Memorial Arena celebrate its historical past by performing vignettes. Yours truly has researched and designed these with the help of Dave Kentner and Lois Fraser.

In March 1923 the Arena Co. produced Katcha Koo in the brand new Memorial Arena. As one door closes, another one opens, "goodbye arena, hello new refurbished John Elliott Theatre".

GLT's subscription series will open November 8 with Norm Foster's Skin Flick directed by Kathryn DeLory. This new comedy is a delightful romp through the lighter side of the adult porn industry.

On Feb. 7, the multi-tech Terry Pratchett fantasy Going Postal, adapted by Stephen Briggs and directed by Pamela Niesiobedzki-Curtis, will appear complete with hero, villains, dancers and... postal workers?

The farcical American comedy, Who's in Bed with the Butler by Michael Parks, directed by Alex Kanarek, opens April 18. The late Mr. Olden's daughter sets out to "buy off" the three mistresses but someone is definitely in bed with the butler!

Other GLT shows at the Studio, 33 Stewarttown Road, include GLIC improv August 23 & 24; the seven one-act play Studio Show Sept. 12, 13, 14 and again Sept 19, 20, 21 at the Acton Townhall Centre; as well as the Youth Company Y1A Nov. 28-30 and their May Noel Coward show Semi-Monde. To buy a season subscription call the JET 905-877-3300 and for GLT tickets to studio-located shows call at 905-877-3422.
