ABBA tribute band to perform in CASHh fundraiser on Aug. 8

The Four Swedes present a tribute to ABBA in a concert in support of Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHh).

The concert will take place on Thursday, August 8, at the Acton Arena & Community Centre, 415 Queen St. E., Acton. The concert starts at 8 p.m. with doors opening at 7:30 p.m.

This rock musical will take you back to the disco era, when ABBA was one of the best pop bands in history.

The Four Swedes, not only look like Anni-Frid, Bjorn, Benny and Agnetha (ABBA), they also sound like them. Recently returning from a Malaysian tour, the group is now performing throughout Canada and the U.S.

The Four Swedes perform 21 of ABBA's hits, with all the costume changes, choreography, live band and a big studio sound.

For tickets call 1-800-516-5810.

GLT Youth Company gives back to the community

By ROXANNE THORTON
GLTYC

Georgetown Little Theatre Youth Company has a strong desire to give back to their community. Not only do they facepaint for free at public events such as Canada Day in Glen Williams and the Georgetown Fair, but they also seek to help others within their community.

This past May, their sensational production of Macbeth at the GLT studio raised sufficient funds that they were again able to share their wealth with a charity of their choice, the Georgetown Hospital Foundation. Their donation of $400 will be used to enhance the healthcare services for their fellow citizens in the Georgetown community. Although these teens are very generous with their hard-earned cash, it is interesting to note that statistically, it is the people who can least afford to give, that actually give the greatest percent of their income to support local charities.

Georgetown Little Theatre is very proud of their youth company and their magnanimous support for others. Their program runs on Saturdays from September to June at the GLT Studio, 33 Stewarttown Rd. They acquire skills not only in theatre, but also in teamwork and good citizenship.

If you are a teen between the ages of 12 and 18 and are interested in getting involved with the youth company check their website, www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca or leave a message at the studio 905-877-3422.

Knox Church rewards artists

At Acton's Knox Presbyterian Church, young artists (from left, Cassie Coker, Dakota Lepard and Melissa Benham) were awarded monetary gifts from the donations to the Assistance Fund at the Local Artist Benefit Concert held in January. Coker, an already achieved pianist has been accepted at Sheffield University in England for her third year of musical studies. Lepard, a portrait artist and Benham, a landscape painter and designer, both wish to further their education in these fields. Thanks again to all the other artists and the public from the Georgetown and Acton area who supported the benefit concert in January and contributed to making these achievements possible.
