VOL. 56; NO. 47 — WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1937 — W. H. THURSTON & SON, Proprietors

Farewell Service By Rev. Wolstencrott

Rev. J. R. Walstencroft of the Flesherton Baptist circuit preached hs farewell sermon on Sunday last to a large congregation, from the text, "Ask for the old paths," Jeremiah 6—16. The sermon was much appreciated. The family move this week to their new home at Oschweken, on the Brantford Indian reserve. He is exchanging charges with Rev. Frederick Ashton, who has been in charge of the Oschweken circuit for the past six years. Mr. Ashton will arrive here this week and occupy the pulpit in the Baptist church next Sunday.

The Brantford Reserve is a district 12 square miles in extent. There are eleven public schools on the reserve all manned by native teachers. Some fifty advanced pupils are taken in by truck every day to Brantford collegiate. Oschweken lies ten miles south of Brantford. Anglicans, United Church and Baptists have missions on the reserve.

Mr. Wolstencroft has cared most acceptably for the charge here for the past eight years, and leaves with the well-wishes of all, including all members of the other churches.

Damage From Gales

During the past week high eaterly gales have been sweeping this district retarding growth and with the occompanying rain kept the farmers from working the land. Wednesday afternoon and evening of last week a regular hurricane levelled several trees in town and a driving shed on Mr. R. Bentham's farm south of the village. Herb Betts had the large doors of his barn on the 4th line torn off and blown several rods away and a colony house on the farm of Fred Brown was moved a couple of feet. Fences were blown down and minor damage resulted from the high winds. The farmers had an anxious few hours while the storm, which was accompanied by rain, was at its height.

BORN

SMITH — In Flesherton on Monday, April 26th, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of Singhampton, a son.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends, also the people of Feversham for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in our recent sad bereavement in the death of our infant daughter and sister.

Right Hon. R. B. Bennett says that reports that he plans retirement are erroneous. Can it be that all the nice things said about him since rumors of his retirement became current have caused him to change his mind?

Painting Activity

With the considerable increase in painting activity this Spring it is interesting to observe the very decided trend toward satin finishes for interior decorating. One of the advantages claimed for a satin finish is that while it has a high light reflection value, the reflected light is evenly diffused over the whole surface and there is no eye-straining glare.

A tremendous impetus was given to the vogue for satin finishes by the introduction this year of Semi-Lustre, a washable satin enamel made by Sherwin- Williams. This was used most effectively in House & Garden's "Model Home," Woman's Home Companion's "Mystery House" and other famous model homes.

In this connection we notice that Duncan's Hardware Store is putting on a 10-day introductory sale of Semi-Lustre, which offers an excellent opportunity to obtain Spring requirements of this famous satin-enamel at a great saving in cash.

SENSABAUGH—CROFT

A pretty spring nuptial was solemnized at the manse of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 1052 Third Avenue West, Owen Sound, on Saturday, April 24th, by the minister, Rev. J. T. Strachan, when Marguerite Roberta Croft, daughter of Mrs. Harry Patton and the late Robt. Croft of Flesherton, and Charles Ernest Sensabaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sensabaugh of Owen Sound, were united in marriage. The pretty bride was gowned in rosewood crepe with shoes to match and carried red roses. She was attended by Miss Jean Adams, who wore a bridesmaid's gown of dark green and carried roses. Mr. Bert Haswell was groomsman.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sensabaugh. The bride's mother, Mrs. Patton, and her sister, Miss Edna Croft, both of Flesherton, were in attendance. Relatives and friends present for dinner numbered 13. The table was centred with the wedding cake.

In the evening the bridal couple entertained about 20 close friends and were made the recipients of many gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Sensabaugh are taking up residence in Owen Sound.

Stopped Suddenly

Master Clifford Littlejohns, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Littlejohns, met with an accident on Saturday last that will prevent his attendance at school for awhile. As he was going to a neighbor's on his wheel on No. 10 highway, and forgetting that a rail had been placed where the gate usually was, he rode into it, striking his face on the rail. His lips were cut badly, loosening a tooth, and skinning the whole side of his face. One eye was so badly injured that it refused to open. When he returned to the house he was a sad looking boy, and is now receiving the sympathy of his friends.

A story from Italy says that an Italian woman has spent 72 years in bed. There will be a lot of folk in Ethiopia will wish that a great many more Italians had followed her example.

JOHN NUHN, Prop.

Richard Watters Died Thursday

Many friends will learn with regret of the sudden passing on Thursday morning, April 22nd of Richard Watters, late of the Township of Collingwood, and formerly of the Township of Artemesia. The immediate cause of his death being heart failure.

He was the third son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watters of Artemesia Township and was born there in 1870.

On completing his Public School Education in what is known as "The Old Durham Road School," he commenced High School in Owen Sound, graduating there. He then attended Durham Model School after which he entered the teaching profession. Following this he entered the Ministry and took charge of a Methodist Congregation in Manitoba, having charge of this field for some years.

In 1904 he returned to the old home in Artemesia Township and in 1910 moved to Lot 25, Concession 8, Collingwood Township, where he farmed successfully for eight years. Upon selling this farm he located on Lot 27, Con. 12, Collingwood where he farmed until his death.

In March, 1915, he was married to Miss Annie Wright, Collingwood, who predeceased him by sixteen months. He leaves to mourn his passing six children, Jean, Isla, Bruce, Nelson, Ruth and Louise, also two sisters, Mrs. John McKechnie of Priceville, Mrs. Gardiner of Toronto, and one brother Will, of Detroit.

The service which was held at his home on Sunday afternoon was conducted by Rev. Mr. Goff, of Clarksburg, assisted by Rev. Mr. White of Heathcote United Church. The text was taken from the Gospel according to St. John, 5th chapter and seventh verse. Two of his favorite hymns were sung, "There's a Land That is Fairer than Day," and "Meet Me There." Mrs. George Phillips of Toronto contributed a very comforting message by her solo, "In That City Four Square."

Many beautiful floral tributes of love and remembrance were placed upon and around the casket by the family and friends.

The deceased was of a very bright and intellectual nature, and from early boyhood always took a keen interest in all religious work, always keeping the Golden Rule "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watters and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Troutman of Detroit.

Mr and Mrs. John McKechnie and family, Mr. Elford Watters, Mr. W. G. Watson, Mr. F. P. Reiley, Mr. Peter Muir, Mr. Jos. Oliver, Mr. Jas. Oliver, Mr. John Oliver, and Mr. Wm. Meads, all of Priceville.

Miss Beatrice Watters, Miss Margaret Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bramston and Kenneth, Mrs. M. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips and Mrs. Hamilton and son, all of Toronto.

Mrs. Annie McLean Died At McIntyre

It is our sad duty to record the passing of another of our pioneers, Mrs. Annie McLean, wife of the late Neil McLean, who predeceased her by 32 years. Mrs. McLean passed away on Thursday, April 22nd, in 1937, in her 85th year. She had been in her usual health until three months prior to her passing.

Left to mourn her passing are one son, A. D., four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Two broths also survive, namely: Lachie Cameron of Newberry, Mich., and Malcolm of Galena, B. C. Two daughters predeceased their mother, namely: Julie, 37 years ago, and Mrs. John S. Winters (Sarah) four years ago.

Interment was made in the McIntyre Cemetery on Saturday, April 24th. Service was held in the church and conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Macpherson. The pall-bearers were Archie and Alex. McIntyre, L. Cameron, J. McKinnon, R. Stewart and Geo. McDonald. Floral tributes included a sheaf of carnations from Dr. D. H. Guy; wreath from Duncan McLean, and wreath from the son and grandchildren.

Friends from a distance attending the funeral were: Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Guy, Newmarket; Mrs. Duncan McLean and son Jack, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Niblock, Toronto; Mrs. W. Doran and son, Meaford; Mr. Wm. Winters, Stouffville.— (Courtesy of Dundalk Herald.)

You can't rise with the lark if you've been on one the night before.

Hockey Players Are Recipients of Gifts

All Flesherton and vicinity turned out last Friday evening in the Fraternal Hall to pay homage to the winners of two trophies, the Centre Grey and McDougall Cups. The two splendid teams which were Flesherton's contributions in the Centre Grey and Semi-Pro. Hockey Leagues for the season of 1936—37, emerged victorious from a series of "hard-fought" games, and for such deserve both credit and appreciation.

Father Callaghan of Dundalk, president of the Centre Grey League, presented that cup, with an appropriate speech in which he praised the boys for their good-sportsmanship throughout the entire season. A. D. MacIntyre, manager of the club, received the cup on behalf of the team. John McVicar president of the Semi-Pro. League, presented the McDougall trophy, in a like manner, to Delbert Smith, captain of the team and scoring ace of the entire Semi-Pro. League. Reeve H. A. McCauley addressed the assembly.

Presentation of leather windbreakers to members of both teams was fustrated as it was impossible to obtain delivery in time. However the one which was already on hand, was displayed, and judging from the acclammations of approval which greeted its appearance, there is every possibility of them giving complete satisfaction. They are cream, "gloveweight" horsehide, trimmed with tan and bearing blue and white crests.

In addition to the presentation ceremony dancing was enjoyed to the music of Grant St. John's orchestra of Owen Sound.

Many Attended J. A. Kernahan Funeral

The funeral of the late John A. Kernahan, who passed away at his home near Feversham on Monday of last week, was held on Thursday afternoon, April 22nd. A large number of sympathizing friends attended, as the deceased was well and favorably known throughout his native township. The service at the house and cemetery were conducted by Rev. Clifton, Presbyterian minister of Feversham, assisted by Rev. Belt, Anglican minister of the Dundalk circuit of the Anglican church, Rev. Bushell, United church minister of Maxwell, and Rev. Dean of the Gospel Workers' church, Feversham. Rev. Clifton gave a very comforting message to the bereaved family and referred to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The beautiful burial service of the Canadian Order of Foresters was given at the graveside by members of the Order, following the regular church service. Interment was made in Maxwell Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. John Lockhart, Geo. McDonald, E. Buckingham, Geo. Ross, Chas. Long and Eli Robinson, personal friends of the late Mr. Kernahan and associated with him in the various public affairs of the township.

Among the many beautiful floral offerings which surrounded the casket were emblems of sympathy from many friends, including a sheaf from the members of the Council and officials of Osprey Township, sheaf from C.O.F. Court No. 534, Feversham; a sheaf from C.O.F. Court No. 535, Maxwell; Maxwell Anglican Guild; wreath from the Scutt family; wreath Hugh Davidson; sheaf, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanley, sheaf, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mounter; sheaf, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Ottewell; sheaf, Miss Queenie Kaitting; sheaf, Eby family; sheaf Mrs. R. McGirr and Rose; sheaf, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heitman, and a spray from Mr and Mrs. W. J. Wadsworth.

It must be annoying to be born rich and never have an opportunity to brag about your humble start.

J. H. Smith, school inspector of Stratford, says if it is necessary to spank a pupil, then it should be done in private. Much better that way, for it is not possible for either teacher or pupil to appear to advantage during the process.

Answers to last week's questions

1. A Blackbird's eye is yellow.
2. A Robin's bill is also yellow.
3. Paul was the great Apostle to the Gentiles.
4. We have full moon once in every 28 days.
5. The four Gospels are, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

We have been speaking the last few weeks about developing our minds, and increasing our fund of knowledge; about "Increasing in wisdom" even as Jesus did.

In the battle of Vimy Ridge, nearly all the officers of a certain unit were either killed or disabled. Shortly following the action the question of promotion to fill the gaps was discussed. Among many others one boy came up to be questioned as to his ability to fill one of the vacancies. The very first question that was asked was, "What is your education?" Here on the battle front where the lives of men and the honor and existence of a country were at stake the very first question asked was, "What is your education?"

Times are changing. A few years ago some boys did make good with only a very short period at school. But to-day business competition is so keen that unless a boy has at least a few years at high school he is handicapped in his efforts to make good.

When a boy starts out in life he is generally given a fine, healthy body. If he does not take care of it and give his muscles lots of exercise, it grows weak and the muscles get flabby and useless. Likewise he is generally given a fine healthy brain. If he does not take care of that brain, and give it lots of exercise, it does not develop the way it should. Physical exercise developes the muscles and makes them tingle with health and vigor. Mental exercise or study developes the brain and makes it act quickly and clearly. When a boy sticks to school, even when he would rather be doing something else, he is developing and disciplining his mind which will help him to persevere in the face of other difficulties as the years go by.

Canada to-day is demanding boys of a high order. She will be satisfied only with boys who are clean, strong and well educated. Trail Rangers are boys who are endeavouring to answer this demand completely.

Till next week good climbing along life's trail.

GREY MUSIC FESTIVAL ON MAY 25, 26 AND 27

May 10th is the last day that prospective entrants to the 5th Annual Grey County Festival of Music may file application with the secretary.

The Festival, this year for the first time, is being held in Owen Sound, the dates being May 25th, 26th, and 27th, and the committees have been meeting regularaly making plans, and so outlining the proceedure for the three days of competition, that nothing other than a success can possibly result.

Competition is open to amateur talent only and is divided into two classes: class 1, open to the entire Province of Ontario, and class 2, open to all of Grey County, and to other places within a radius of 55 miles of Owen Sound.

The official Syllabus and entry forms may be had from the secretary, Miss Isobel Cowie, Owen Sound.

It is expected that competition in all classes, vocal, instrumental, choiral, and orchestral, will be exceptionally keen and competent adjudicators will select winners from each class. Season tickets, admitting the bearer to all sessions of competition are now available.

The bible tells us to love our neighbour, and also to love our enemies; probably because they are generally the same people.
