EDITORIAL NOTES

Have you decided to plant a tree to commemorate the Coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth?

A man was fined for driving too slowly on a highway near Toronto. There is more danger from a slow driver on a crowded highway, impeding traffic than from a speeder.

There has been a great demand for scrap iron during the past few weeks and local truckers have been busy collecting and trucking large amounts to the market in Toronto. Manufacture of war-material in Canada for the British government has raised the prices of scrap iron to the point where it was profitable to collect iron that has been accumulating for years.

Since our remarks in the the last issue of The Advance in regard to the disgraceful condition of the entrance to the village dump on the Ceylon road, we have heard many comments on the disregard of some persons for the appearance of their village. If it is possible they should be taught a lesson in cleanliness.

Due to the reduction in rates to farmers the Bell Telephone has installed a number of telephones recently in this district. Many have wished to have telephone connection, but until the present time considered that the former rates were prohibitive in relation to the income received from the farm.

VANDELEUR

The Y. P. S. held their weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. McGee on Friday evening of last week. Mr. L. Johnston, who has given good leadership in the Young Peoples' work during the winter presided. The program was under the direction of Mrs. C. Dolan. Readings were given by Mrs. H. I. Graham and Miss Evelyn McGee. A splendid discussion was led by the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren. The next meeting will be held on Sunday evening, May 9th, in the church.

Mrs. H. I. Graham spent a few days at her parental home in Shrigley.

Following the Sunday School period, a coronation service will be held in the church next Sunday afternoon, May 9th, when a special program will be used. The following Sunday, May 16th, the annual Mother's Day service will be held at 1.30 p.m. The pastor will be present at both services.

Miss M. K. Graham and Miss Edna Lee of Listowel spent the week end at the former's home here.

Be game — but not everybody's.

LEAVE EDWARD ALONE

(Durham Chronicle)

"Coronation Commentary", written by one Geoffrey Dennis, and to which the Duke of Windsor objected because it libelled him, has been suppressed by the publishers, and book dealers thwarted those who would have purchased a copy by telling them that they were not issuing it as present.

We haven't read the book, nor do we want to. We are not interested in the private life of the former Edward VIII, and now that he has abdicated the throne of Britain, we believe he should be allowed to go his way, live his life in the way he sees fit, and be treated as any other decent citizen would expect to be treated.

The publishing of such a book gives a pretty true picture of the public mind today. Perhaps it has not changed from other eras. A national hero today, one may be forgotten to-morrow, or, as was the case of the former King Edward, be the butt of some writer's vitriolic and libellous pen.

Leave Edward alone. He has hurt nobody but himself, and don't forget that he was the most popular and useful Prince of Wales who ever lived. Whether he did right, or whether he did wrong is his to answer. At any rate, he is not deserving the attention of those who are looking for the sensational.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

(Burks Falls Arrow)

Seven or eight hours of work a day and six days a week—fair labour—will never injure any normal man. Idleness will ruin the world. Our idea is to pension the aged indigents, promote a scheme of unemployment insurance, cut out the so called relief (which in many cases—too many cases— goes to those who do not need it), pay a decent wage per hour, give fair and honest labor, and employ all who will work. Private business would then be relieved of the highly competitive relief wage scale. Things would ease up a bit then, and it would start the wheels of progress with all hands at the wheel. In the early days the employer had nothing to say to his people about automobiles and joy rides, but instead said "those who won't work, cannot eat." They worked. No matter what certain politicians may say, unemployment insurance is becoming not only a necessity but an obligation, and the sooner the Dominion Government realizes this the better it will be for Canada and Canadians. Relief doles should have no place in Canada's curriculum, but those who cannot secure work must be looked after by those who can work, and do work.

A BLEAT FROM MILDMAY

(Mildmay Gazette)

Many complaints are being heard these times concerning the use that many farmers are making of the Farmers' Creditors' Arrangment Act. Mortgagees complain that when they make a request for the payment of interest, they are met with the threat that if pressure is used, they will place their affairs in the hands of the receiver, appointed under the Act. Many mortgagees do not like the idea of having their affairs thus ventilated, and are therefore coerced into making adjustments that are not warranted by the circumstances of the case.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Seeding is started in this locality and a warm rain would do a lot of good.

Mrs. Dave Genoe spent a couple of days last week in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Teed and son, Kenneth, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Thomson.

Mr. James Sled accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brackenbury and Marjorie of Flesherton were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. G. McMullen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Idle spent the week at the former's home in Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Welsh of Duncan were Sunday callers on the line.

Mr. Bert Wyville spent the week end at his home near Markdale.

Mrs. J. Wickens of Kimberley spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. A. Idle.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McCullough and family of Union spent Sunday with Mr. T. Allen.

KIMBERLEY

It is with much sympathy that we report the death of a former resident of Kimberley, Mr. Henry Ellis, who died on April 26 at his home in Powassan. Mr. Ellis had not been sick long, but an attack of pneumonia followed the flu, taking him away. He was born here and lived here until after his marriage to Miss Maggie Lawrence, when they went to New Hampshire to live for a few years and then moved to Powassan. He was one of the first to join our church after its opening, also with his sister Libbie and W. H. Stuart was married to Maggie in the church over 47 years ago. He leaves to mourn his passing, 3 sons and 2 daughters at Powassan, also Mr. W. T. and Mr. A. E. Ellis and Miss Selena Ellis of Kimberley. Several of the friends from here attended the funeral.

A splendid play was given in the C. M. Hall by the Young People of Collingwood. The play "Where's Grandma," was well given and deserved a full house. We regret that the weather was so unfavourable that the audience was not large.

The concert on Tuesday night, given in the church by Cyrus Gates was much enjoyed by a full house.

The W. I. met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Wickens There was a good attendance.

Mrs. Ross Ellis and little Beth are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Weber and other friends. Other vistiors for the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Don. Neff with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Art. Wardman, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Betts and Janet, Miss E. Montgomery with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber; Mr. Harold Proctor with his mother, Mrs. G. Proctor, also Miss Jean of Eugenia; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carruthers with friends in Toronto; Mr. Les. Lawrence with his mother, Mrs. Jas. Lawrence; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson, Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, Vandeleur, with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burritt; Mr. and Mrs. Will. Hutchinson with Mrs. J. M. Fawcett, Mrs. Sewell with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. D. L. Weber spent part of the week with friends in Toronto.

Mr. Stuart Ellis is home for a few days following the finishing exams at the school of pharmacy in Toronto.

A great man shows his greatness by the way he treats little men.

Teacher — But how could skin trouble give you a broken arm?

Willie—It was a banana skin, Miss.

There was one favourable thing about the depression, you got better service in Toronto hotels.
