Tyler — Wm. Walker.

Conservatives Will Convene In June

The Executive of South Grey Liberal-Conservative Association met in Durham on Friday evening, when it was decided to hold the nomination the second week in June, when Hon. Earl Rowe will be the guest speaker. Mr. Cecil Frost, general organizer, delivered an interesting address on organization and the meeting unanimounsly endorsed the attitude of their leader on the Labor issue. Those who attended from Flesherton were Messrs. D. McTavish, Geo. Mitchell, H. A. McCauley, W. J. Bellamy and Dr. A. E. Little.

Among the names mentioned as possible nominees of the convention are Mr. Austin Ball of Hanover, Dr. Brad Jamieson of Durham, Herb Corbett of Artemesia and H. A. McCauley of Flesherton. It is thought that should Mr. Ball agree to stand he would be a factor to be reckoned with, with Dr. Brad Jamieson a good second should he also permit his name to go before the convention.

RECEIVES LETTER FROM PRINCESS

Reta, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klages of town has a birthday each year (April 21st) on the same day as Princess Elizabeth of England, and this year the Chesley school girl sent a letter of congratulations to the popular young royal princess. Needless to say, Reta was delighted to receive the following reply this week from Buckingham palace: "The Lady-in-Waiting to the Queen is commanded by Her Majesty to thank Reta Klages for her letter of Second of April addressed to Princess Elizabeth, and for the kind wishes therein expressed."— Chesley Enterprise.

IN MEMORIAM

HANLEY — In loving memory of Wm. C. Hanley, who departed this life on May 20, 1923.

Calm and peacefully he is sleeping,
Sweetest rest that follows pain,
We trust in God to meet again.
—Wife.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAMS — In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. J. A. Williams, who passed away on May 19, 1933.

Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Our eyes shed many a tear;
God only knows how we miss you,
Because you were so dear.
Not dead to us who loved you,
Not lost but gone before;
You live with us in memory still,
And will for evermore.
It is not at the time that the tears are shed
That tells that the heart is torn.
But the bitter tears of the after-years
And remembrance silently borne.
Jesus said: "Come unto me and I will give you rest."
—Ever remembered by Husband and Family.

King And Queen Crowned Wednesday

Long live King George and Queen Elizabeth! Long may they reign. This is the fervent wish of loyal British people the world over.

In a blaze of glory, the rulers of the greatest Empire the world has ever known, ascended the throne in London last Wednesday morning, and subjects all over the world, for the first time in history, had the privilege of listening to the ceremony by means of the radio, sent from England by short wave, and reproduced here over the standard wave length of the North American continent, for American stations, as well as Canadian, tuned in on the big event and evinced almost as much interest as the subjects on this side of the international border.

So far as Flesherton was concerned there was no other celebration other than listening in on the radio. Most of the places of business were closed, while others were forced to work, but this did not hinder the populace from rising early and listening in on most of the ceremony. Some residents who have not seen a sunrise in years, were about bright and early on Wednesday.

In attendance at the coronation were representatives of every country within the Empire, high dignitaries from all over the world, and sight-seers from every land on the globe who took the opportunity of viewing the world's greatest and most colorful pageant. With the radio giving a full six-hour description, about the only thing left for us to do is to give expression to the thought uppermost in every British heart: Long live King George VI!

1938 MARKERS, ROYAL BLUE, SCARLET

Ontario's 1938 license plates will reach a new high in brilliance, it was learned when Hon. Harry Nixon, provincial secretary, received a sample of the markers. The back-ground color is royal blue with scarlet letters. A royal crown in scarlet divides the figures 1938, set above the license number.

SENDS IN MEASUREMENTS FOR SET OF FALSE TEETH

Waterloo, Ont. — A dentist here doesn't know if he's on the verge of a large mail-order business or if some one has a distorted sense of humor. However, he received the following lettr:

"Dear Dr. — I've heard tell of your skill as a dentist and would like some of your teeth. As I'm busy with my spring work, I will give you the measurements. My mouth is three inches wide accrost, five eights of an inch threw the jaw and hummocky on the edges. Jaw is shaped like a hoeshew with a toe forward. If you want me to be more particular I will hov to come thar."

Teeth Filled At 88

Mrs. John Radley of this township is 88 years of age and enjoys a remarkable set of teeth and great agility and cheerful disposition. She is a sister of the late Martin Phillips and aunt of our townsman, Mr. Oscar Phillips. One day last week she came to town to have her teeth looked over and filling done. She still possesses half of her original teeth, and of these Dr. A. E. Little only found one which needed anything done to them. Something of a record, we believe.

"Skeleton is found on Sarnia golf course," says a headline over a news item from the Tunnel Town. Perhaps some portly golfer overplayed the reducing game.

John W. Gibson Died Suddenly

(By Our Ceylon Correspondent)

Death came with shocking suddenness about four o'clock Monday morning, when Mr. John Walter Gibson passed away at his home. Deceased had not been in the best of health for some little time, having been suffering from neuritis, but a very severe heart attack was the immediate cause of death.

The late Mr. Gibson was born at Pickering 74 years ago, the son of John Gibson and Catherine Bradley, who settled there on coming from Ireland. Later the family moved to Broadview Ave., Toronto. He was married to Miss Minnie Noble of Toronto and thirty nine years ago came to Ceylon and settled on the farm now occupied by his son, Mr. Wm. Gibson. His wife predeceased him twenty two years ago and he later married Miss Mary Jane Campbell of Caledon, who survives; also surviving are three sons, Mr. Roy Gibson, Oakville; Mr. Will Gibson, Ceylon; Mr. Jack Gibson, Markham, and one daughter, Helen, Mrs. Oliver Smith, Toronto. The late Mr. Gibson was the sole surviving member of his immediate family, his sisters, Mrs. Geo. Binnie, Mrs. Wm. Boyd and Mrs. Saunders, also one brother, William, all of Toronto, having predeceased him.

The late Mr. Gibson was an Anglican in religion and Conservative in politics and will be widely mourned by a large circle of friends with whom he was a great favourite.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 2.30, when Rev. G. R. Service will have charge. Interment will be made in Flesherton Cemetery.

The community extends its very sincere sympathy to the widow and relatives in their very untimely bereavement.

Ceylon Barn Burned

Fire destroyed the barn of Miss Agnes Macphail at Ceylon on Saturday noon. The barn, now used as a storehouse, was completely razed although considerable of the contents were removed before any damage was done.

Miss Macphail was in her home at the time, while her mother, accompanied by a nurse, was out motoring. The fire is believed to have started from ashes, thought to be cold, which had been dumped near the barn that morning. A stiff wind is believed to have ignited dry leaves and blown them into the interior of the building. When discovered by Mr. Fred Chislett, who lives at the Post Office nearby, the fire had made great headway and nothing could be done to save the building, although help from Flesherton and the surrounding country was soon on the scene and kept the fire within bounds. It wsa valued at $400 and was covered by insurance. Miss Macphail will not rebuild it this year.

A PLEA FOR THE TRILLIUM

(Globe and Mail)

The Royal York Hotel Golf Club has taken the lead in an effort to preserve from extinction the trillium, Ontario's floral emblem.

In a circular sent to all its members, to residents along the Kingsway, and to all west end schools, the club points out that this most lovely of spring plants dies if its blossom is plucked, and that if depletion continues at the present rate the flower will have vanished from our woodlands within a few years.

Teachers and flower lovers everywhere throughout the Province might bear this fact in mind, and it would help the work of conservation if they would impress it upon young folk and upon picnickers generally.

Growing in its native environment the three-petalled bloom is a thing of beauty. Picked, it is dead long before it can be carried home to be placed in water, and each gathered blossom leaves a doomed and dying parent plant behind it.

To preserve for future generations one of the most charming features of Ontario's woods in spring, do not pick or injure the trillium.

Two Months In Jail

Leslie Wright of Swinton Park was sentenced to two months in jail by Magistrate Spereman at Owen Sound Police Court Monday morning, on a charge of breaking and entering the Nuhn Warehouse and stealing a quantity of wool. Wright had pleaded guilty to the charge. Magistrate Spereman stated that he did not feel that he could release the accused on suspended sentence. The jail term dates back to the date of Wright's arrest on May 8th.

Free Moving Pictures

This Thursday evening a free moving picture demonstration is being held in the town hall, Flesherton, by General Motors of Canada, sponsored by D. McTavish & Son, Chevrolet dealers.

Several splendid films will be shown that will be of great interest to everyone. One film will describe a trip through the factory showing the manufacture of cars with high lights on the importance of the industry to Canada. Another film shown a squadron of army planes flying in perfect formation, every manoeuver timed to the split second. On the ground automobiles also move in formation. This is a safety picture and is of interest. To be shown, also, will be a picture depicting how the modern car has been silenced so that a watch ticking can be heard above the running of the engine. There will also be some comic pictures which will be particularly amusing.

In the safety films are rules and regulations which a driver should observe, depicted in an unusual setting, which should be of great interest to all car drivers. Be sure and attend this free showing and enjoy a pleasant evening's entertainment, which will be worth while.

HARRISON—MacKINNON

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Parkdale Presbyterian Church by Rev. MacKay, when Katherine Isabelle (Katie) MacKinnon, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacKinnon, Priceville, was united in marriage to Clifford David Harrison, eldest son of Carl Harrison of Hamilton, and the late Mrs. Harrison.

The bride wore her travelling costume, a navy blue tailored suit, matching accessories and pink blouse and triple brown squirrel neckpiece the gift of the groom. Her corsage was pink roses and sweet-peas.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gladys MacKinnon, attired in a red earth suit and matching accesories with corsage of talisman roses and purple sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Murray MacMillan.

A reception for the immediate relatives was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slater. Later the happy couple left for a short honeymoon. They will reside near Proton.

THIS IS OUR IDEA

Some time ago the editor of a contemporary said he felt the weekly newspaper should not be called upon to make a sworn statement of their circulation, because it did not represent their reading public. We agree with this for we know that The Advance is read in many homes beyond our subscription list. In fact we heard of one man who said he took the paper but scarcely had time to read it before one of the neighbors came for it and it passed through four homes before it ended up at the home of his daughter. And all those people read their neighbor's paper when they could have one of their own for but $1.50 a year. The Advance is like a wife, every man should have one of his own.

FORGET THEM

(Burks Falls Arrow)

The papers have been full again during the past week of the doings of the Duke of Windsor and Mrs. Wallis Simpson. It's just too bad that they can't be treated as any other middle-aged couple who found romance late in life and left to paddle their canoe in privacy. Our own personal opinion is that Edward made more grievous errors than falling in love with Mrs. Simpson and it was a good thing for the Empire that he was able to wiggle out of the consequences by using his love affair as an avenue of escape. When the true history of his life is written we believe that international entanglements will be made public that will prove more than another nine-days' wonder. To-day he is no more than any other private citizen except that to some extent he is being kept from the public purse and that type of man should be forgotten or ignored as soon as possible.

Another way to exterminate our wild life would be to do more spanking.

Rags make paper. Paper makes money. Money makes banks. Banks make loans. Loans make poverty. Poverty makes rags.

Youth Is Given Chance On Farms

Speaking before the Rotary Club of Owen Sound recently Hon. Duncan Marshall, Provincial Minister of Agriculture discussed farming problems and advised the farmer guests of the evening to "stay out of debt."

Youth, he told them, is being given the chance today that it deserves on the farm. The Ontario Agricultural College, which is for the benefit of the farmers' sons, has reduced costs of tuition, board, etc. It has become a college strictly for farmer's sons and its courses are short and practical. "To keep the young men and boys on the farm you have to make farming profitable," he said, "and that is what this Department is trying to do. Keep them proud of their heritage of the farm, make them realize that it is the greatest industry in the world—which it certainly is—and you will have solved your problem. Farming can be made profitable.

Agriculture is emerging slowly from the conditions of the past few years, but, while grain is high in price it is something of a hardship to Ontario farmers. "But it is well worth while to feed your cattle and pigs on high priced grain, much more so than feeding them on poor grain. The greatest profit comes in feeding stock real grain." He urged the farmers to follow this plan and they would find good beef and hog prices in the spring.

To keep the boys on the farm the business must be profitable. And so he must be the sharpest, shrewdest and cleverest man in the land.

"Farming is a gamble for you must fight the hardest, meanest, toughest foe in the world—the weather."

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Turner announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn, to Mr. Aubrey MacDonald of Sudbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDonald of Duntroon; the marriage to take place quietly in early June.

Trail Rangers' Corner

Rev. G. R. Service, B. A. Scribe

We were speaking last week about good health, "Jesus increased in Stature."

Most boys have the good fortune to possess an abundance of good health. The boy who is healthy today cannot afford to be lax or careless about his health habits if he is to maintain a strong healthy body whereby he can easily throw off disease and ill health. The best of us must be ever on guard. We must use a little common sense in maintaining healthy bodies, otherwise sooner or later we will pay, and pay dearly for our neglect.

A few simple health habits should be formed early in boyhood and maintained throughout the years, these are:

1. Have a fixed hour for retiring at night and getting up in the morning—a growing boy should have at least nine hours sleep, with the window open. Rest and sleep are just as important as work and play.

2. Keep the body clean with frequent baths so that the pores are kept open through which waste and body poisons can be eliminated.

3. It is just as important to keep the inside of the body clean as well as the outside. Therefore a boy should regularly, at least once a day, go to the toilet. Regular bowl habits are of the greatest importance if you want to keep fit and strong and feel the joy of living.

4. Clean teeth are very necessary to good health. It takes but a brief time every day to give the teeth all the care they need. They should be cleaned the last thing at night and in the morning before breakfast.

Do You Know?

1. Is a tadpole the young of a fish, lizard, frog, crab or lobster?
2. Is a cylinder a part of an alarm clock an automobile or a sail boat?
3. Who said "And now abideth, faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity?
4. When people have fever is their temperature higher or lower than normal? What is normal?

Meals in the Simcoe county jail during the past year have cost about five cents each. Of course at that price no orchestra is provided.
