Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White and Mr. and Mrs. Everett White and son of Toronto, visited last week end at Mr. Robt. White's.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Awde and family moved from our neighborhood to Bethel on the Lloyd Acheson farm.

Mr. Jno. Henry Richardson has been under the doctor's care, caused by a kick from a horse.

Mrs. Harold Cook, Barrow Bay, visited her sister, Mrs. Russel Linton.

Miss Winnifred Talbot has taken a position in Toronto.

The ladies of the W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Acheson on Thursday instead of Wednesday, on account of Coronation Day. The copper contest which has been in progress as a start to raising funds for a new organ for Inistioge was closed. Two sides were chosen, one getting little coppers, one big coppers, the losing side was fined five cents for each contestant.

The ladies of the W. M. S. quilted a quilt for their bale, on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Robt. Lee.

Rev. Mr. Service of Flesherton conducted the sacrament at Inistioge on Sunday.

With a grinding of brakes the officer pulled up his motor car and shouted to a little boy playing in a field: "I say, sonny, have you seen an aeroplane come down anywhere near here?"

"No, sir!" replied the boy, trying to hide his sling-shot. "I've only been shooting at a bottle."

KIMBERLEY

Many of our citizens were most interested in the Coronation, some visited, others went elsewhere to sports and etc. The public school teachers and pupils planted over 40 Scotch pines and white cedars, also two acorns. The acorns were the gift of Inspector Morrison. Several members of the W. I. met at the hall grounds and planted nine Scotch pines and six white cedars; several rose and lilac bushes and other shrubs and flowers were planted also. Mrs. S. S. Burritt planted an acorn. The pines and cedars were secured by D. A Graham from Midhurst. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burritt planted two acorns given them by Misses Edna and Annie Burritt of Toronto.

Several members of the W. I. accepted the kind invitation of the Flesherton W. I. and attended the meeting in the afternoon on Friday, and enjoyed very much the talk given on health by Mrs. Moony. The musical numbers and generous lunch were appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wardman, Miss Margaret Bidley and Mr. Jack Pattison of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Betts and Janet spent Coronation day with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber.

Miss Arlie Kirkpatrick visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kirkpatrick for a few days.

Mr. W. H. Abercrombie of Barrie spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Burritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burritt and Mrs. W. Burnett of Markdale visited Kimberley friends on Friday afternoon.

Coronation service and Mother's Day service were made special by Rev. McAuslan, by sermon and special music, also the S. S. combined their program with the church. Many mothers sent their flowers which added greatly to the occasion.

The parsonage board have decided to sell the parsonage furniture soon.

We congratulate Mr. Geo. Hutchinson on reaching his 80th birthday on March 11.

Mrs. Bruce Carruthers and Keith are visiting with Mrs. Parker at Goring.

The teachers of Flesherton High School spent a pleasant evening as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carruthers.

CENTRE LINE

Quite a number listened in to parts of the coronation on Wednesday and some went to their neighbors to hear the king speak.

Mount Zion Sunday school started on Sunday with a very good attendance. Sunday school will start at a quarter to one this summer and church at a quarter to two.

Mrs. Wallace Fisher, Delbert and Evelyn and Mr. J. J. Little visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Linton recently.

Mr. Luther Love lost a good young horse recently.

Mr. John McNevin's oldest daughter, Mrs. Fred Lutley of Regina is visiting with her father and brother here.

Miss Lillian Morton R. N. of Toronto spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morton.

The Mt. Zion W. A. held their regular meeting at the home of Mr. Lewis Sheardown on Tuesday last, with sixteen members and two visitors present. The W. A. decided to hold an ice cream social on the evening of June 25. The next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Fisher. The word for Devotional Roll Call "Peace".

It is very wet this Monday, after a steady rain all night and still raining. The farmers round here were just getting started on the land as it has been too wet to work. It will be some time now before it will be fit to do any seeding.

When relief workers begin going on strike they shouldn't be surprised if the infection spreads and the long-suffering tax-payer decides that he too will stage a walk-out so far as providing money for relief purposes is concerned.

"Why has your husband been summoned?"

"I'm not quite sure, but I think a policeman held up his hand and Jack put his foot on the exasperator."

PRICEVILLE

The Women's Institute held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Watson on Thursday, May 6. A good program was provided by community singing and other numbers; Mrs. Sutherland gave a splendid paper "Home Life, an English Tradition upheld by our Gracious Sovereigns." Miss Belle Weir read a poem, "My Mother's Day," Mrs. Jack Whyte gave a paper on "Sawdust used as fuel in B. C.." The Treasurer's report was read and showed a substantial balance on hand. The Institute has recently installed stone water coolers in the school at considerable cost.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

Pres. — Mrs. W. Moody
Vice Pres. — Mrs. Wilf. Watson
Sec. Treas. — Mrs. A. Bell.
Directors — Mrs. G. Whyte and Mrs. J. McMillan.

A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers and a dainty potluck lunch was served.

Messrs. Jack Ross, Orville Darrock, and Misses Helen Richardson and Gladys Greenwood, all of Harriston, visited their friends here over the week end at the home of Principal Bell of the school, and his wife, and took in the services at St. Columba on Sunday. Rev. H. E. Wright conducted. A fine duet by Mrs. H. R. McLean and Miss Belle Weir, the tenor and bass joining in the refrain.

Mr. Allan McInnis, principal of Palgrave school was also present and visited his parents.

The descriptive lecture on Monday evening, May 10th by Rev. Wm. Allen of radio fame, was but poorly attended, a clear case of the failure of the use of printers ink and not even notices in the stores. He was moved to righteous indignation at the lack of preparation made. The lantern had to be borrowed from the United church at the last moment and the same church's organist was sent for, just on the point of retiring, finally it got started near nine o'clock, half the program only, was given. A total of $11.00 was realized on a 50—50 basis.

The Coronation services came in remarkably clear and highly enjoyable here, a wonderful tribute to science. ',Long live the King," and his Scotch Lassie!

Mrs. Roy Carter, a fine looking, buxsome lady of Detroit, visited her cousins here last week. They were the Aldcorns, McKees and Mrs. Buckham. Her father was a younger brother of Mrs. McKinnon, who died last winter at the age of 98 years.

Keep in mind the play "Mary Gold" to be presented by the Holstein people here in the Agricultural Hall on Friday, May 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector McLean visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan, Holstein.

Mrs. Colin McLean and son Innis of Toronto, spent the week end at their home.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. R. Sinclair was hostess to the U. F. W. O. Club meeting with twenty six present. Mrs. J. A. Nichol presided; considerable business was transacted. Mrs. Edgar Patterson gave a splendid reading on Coronation; Miss Betty Tucker gave a recitation on "bridge building"; Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., was present and gave an interesting talk on Coronation which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Sinclair conducted a contest and the prize was won by Mrs. Allie Muir and Mrs. D. Campbell, after which a bountiful lunch was served.

Mr. David Hincks and daughter, Beth, and Mrs. Andrew Hincks, spent the week end with friends at Elora, Guelph and Arthur.

Rev. Wm. Macintosh of Dundalk occupied the pulpit on Sunday at St. Andrew's church. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was fittingly observed.

Next Sabbath we will have the minister who has been appointed to come for the Summer months to stay here in Priceville and a good turn out is expected, to welcome him.

Miss Annie McKinnon underwent an operation in Toronto last week.

Congratulations to Mr. Clifford Harrison and Miss Katie McKinnon, who were married on Saturday in Toronto.

Those In Arrears

It is now a month since we made our first appeal for subscribers in arrears to send in the whole or part of their arrearages, to enable us to meet our obligations. A few obliged us in our appeal, but there are many more in arrears from whom we would like to hear. If you are one of these kindly send in your renewal at once. It is impossible to publish a paper without cash and subscriptions are one of our main items of revenue. Let us hear from you now.

FARM AND HOME WEEK

The usual Farm and Home Week at the Ontario Agricultural College will be held June 21 to June 25 inclusive. On account of the numerous high-class animals which have been added to the college herds and flocks in recent months, a record attendance is expected this year. Very special efforts will be made to have better special exhibits and to have all arrangements and facilities as complete as possible.
