The joint meeting of St. Columba W. M. S. and W. A. was held on May 19th at the home of Mrs. W.G. McBride and was well attended. Mrs. A. Bell, Mrs. J. C. Harrison and Miss James took part in the worship service, Mrs. Hazard and Mrs. Ritchie dealt in an interesting way with the study of "Men and Women of far Horizons." Mrs. McBride rendered a pleasing solo; Miss Edith James presided for the W. A. Plans were made for the annual garden party to be held the end of June. At the close of the meeting a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants.

The play by the young people of St. Columba United Church, "Closed Lips," will be presented on June 4th. This promises to be good.

Miss Belle Weir took a holiday on Saturday and went to Toronto over the week end and holiday, taking a well deserved rest.

Mr. Alex. McLean and his winsome wife paid a visit to his father here over the holiday, they were accompanied by Innis McLean. Mrs. McInnis is still in Toronto waiting on daughter Anna Mary, (Mrs. J. McFarlane) who we are pleased to know, is making improvement. Best wishes.

Mrs. Maltby, (nee Jean Buckham) with Mrs. Maltby Sr., were on a visit to Mrs. Buckham here over the holiday.

The garden party of St. Columba Church will be held (D.V.) on the 29th of June. Given fair weather the usual good time will be had, good committees have the other in hand.

The play, "Mary Gold," was put on by our friends from Holstein on Friday last, and was well given, all speaking out well, with possibly one exception. Mr. Bert Brebner was as usual the funny man of the caste, and performed his part well as did all the others. We were pleased to meet them again. It was under the auspices of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Richardson (nee Ollie McLean) and children, were visitors at her mother's, Mrs. D. G. McLean, here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson and family, Mr. Donald Aldcorn, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Knox and babe, all of Toronto, were holiday visitors with friends here.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Thos. Nichol was hostess to the W. M. S. and Willing Helpers societies with an attendance of 26 present. Mrs. J. McMeekin presided over the meeting, after the usual opening exercises. Miss Mary McEachern gave a reading; Mrs. A. L. Hincks gave the topic on Mother's Day; considerable business was transacted and the meeting closed with a hymn and creed. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W. M. S. meeting and opened with two minutes silent prayer. Scripture reading was read responsively; Mrs. John Nichol Sr. gave the topic on "The burning Bush." Mrs. A. L. Hincks read a chapter from the study book; Miss Margaret Nichol put on a contest and the prize was won by Mrs. J. A. Nichol and the consolation prize went to Mrs. J. McMeekin Jr. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sandy Stonehouse. A dainty lunch was served and a social time was spent over the tea cups.

Messrs. Colin McLean, John Nichol, Sr., Mrs. McMeekin Sr. Mrs. D. Campbell, Mrs. Wilfred Watson, Misses Margaret McArthur and Nellie McLean attended the Presbyterial on Thursday at Ventry.

Mrs. A. D. MacIntyre spent a couple of days with her mother, Mrs. T. Nichol.

Mrs. Alex. Carson, who spent the last two months in Toronto, returned home Friday.

Mr. Dave Hincks and Beth spent the week end in Toronto and were accompanied home by Miss Jean Hincks for her holidays.

Mrs. Harry Pedlar and two sons, Dick and Harvey of Toronto spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carson.

On Friday night a miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harrison, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKinnon. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. S. Boice and little son, Donald Keith, arrived home from Flesherton.

Mr. Bott of Lamlash was a recent visitor at Mr. Dave Nichols.

Mr. Stuart Carson, Dundalk, spent the week end at his parental home.

Mrs Jean Maltby, Toronto, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Buckham.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McLean, Toronto, spent the week end here.

Miss Mary Runciman and aunt, Miss Molly Ferguson, Toronto, spent the holiday with friends here.

Miss Monica Lambert, Toronto, is holidaying at her uncle's, Rev. Angus Sutherland's.

Mr. Murray McMillan, Miss Jean McLean and friend, Toronto, were week end guests at Mr. Hector McLean's.

Miss Delia McPhail, Toronto, spent over the holiday with her aunt, Mrs. McMeekin and cousin, Mrs. Bradey Irwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tucker and family, Ebenezer, spent Sunday at A. L. Hincks'.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sturrock and family spent Sunday with Proton friends.

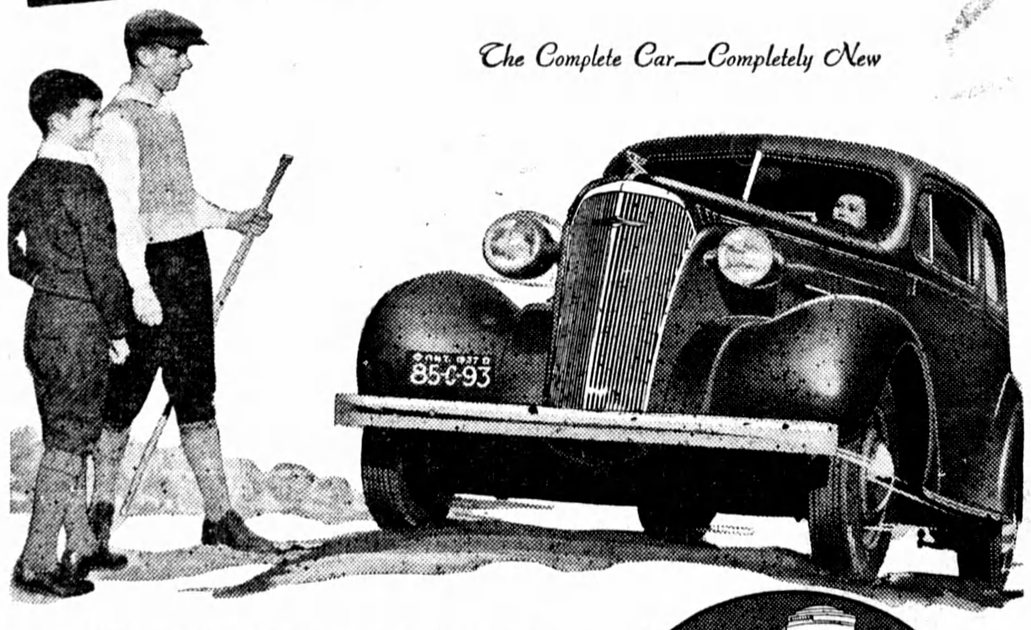
A large congregation was present on Sunday in St. Andrew's church to welcome the new student, Mr. Pickering, who will be here for the summer months and he urged the parents to see that their children were at Sunday school on Sunday. He is a splendid speaker and good congregations are expected to be present on Sundays.

Uneasy lies the head that sports the home-made haircut.

"So long as there is a conflict between good and evil in the world, those who wish to see the good triumph must take every possible means to prevent evil from gaining control," were the wise words recently uttered by the Premier of Canada.

How CHEVROLET'S VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE "Steps-Up" Performance ... Yet Saves You Money

The Complete Car—Completely New



YOU hear Chevrolet owners mentioning gasoline economy in terms of 25 and more miles per gallon. You hear others enthusing over Chevrolet performance.

These people are not boasting, they're just telling the facts. And here's why: Chevrolet is the only lowest-priced car with a Valve-in-Head Engine.

The great advantage is, a Valve-in-Head Engine gets as much as 10% more power out of every gallon of fuel than any other type. With the result that gasoline costs you less per mile.

And because the Valve-in-Head Engine gives premium performance, you find this type in all airplanes, racing cars and speedboats that hold outstanding records.

Drive a Chevrolet for performance with economy . . . and the matchless all around satisfaction of Hydraulic Brakes—Unisteel Turret Top Body by Fisher — Knee-Action gliding ride (on Master De Luxe models) and Fisher No-Draft Ventilation. No other car priced so low has them all! Low Monthly Payments on the General Motors Instalment Plan.

Jas. Leppard Died In His 83rd Year

EUGENIA

The late Mr. James Leppard, another of our old residents has passed on to the Great Beyond in the person of Mr. James Leppard in his 83rd year. His death occurred on Tuesday morning, May 11th at his late residence, 8th Line. The deceased, who had not been feeling very well at times, was not bed-fast until a couple of weeks prior to his death, which was due to liver trouble. Mr. Leppard was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Leppard and resided on the 8th Line practically all his life. He was married over 50 years ago to Miss Mary Ann Meggitt, who survives. To them were born seven children, who have gone on before, with the exception of one daughter, Mrs. Rody Gordon, (Susie), at home with her mother at present. One son, Robert John sacrificed his life in the Great World War. He is also survived by four grandchildren, Rody, Ruth, Reta and Raymond Gordon and a brother, Joe, in his 95th year, residing near Markdale, and two sisters in Michigan.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, interment being made in the family plot at Salem. Rev. Mr. Bushell officiated at the house and grave. He preached a very impressive and comforting sermon from the parable of the ten virgins. Two hymns were sung, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide with Me".

Floral tributes placed upon the casket were: A spray from 8th Line; Spray from Eugenia friends; Spray from Durham Furniture Factory employees, Rock Mills; A Cross, The Martin Family.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Robt. Haney, Robt. Purvis, James Fawcett, Fred Pedlar, Will Magee and Will Duckett.

We extend our sympathy to the friends in their sad bereavement.

The roll call was answered by each one paying her membership fee. Five new members joined the society. There were several visitors present and a very enjoyable time was spent. The programme consisted of a reading by Mrs. John Parson, a solo by Rev. Mr. Bushell, a mouth organ selection, "Home Sweet Home," by Mrs. Adam Smith, A reading, "Loyal to Our King," by Mrs. Bushell. Two verses of hymn No. 153 were sung. The ladies of the north unit dressed as grandmothers of by-gone days, gave humorous dialogue, "A meeting of the better city campaign committee." Mrs. Martin secretary of the W. A. read letters from persons appreciating the letters sent them by the W. A.. Collection was taken which amounted to $2.00, after which a sumptuous lunch was served in the basement. The grandmothers were seated at a table centred with a "grandmother's cake". After the supper hour, Mrs. F. Pedlar gave a reading, "Wanting to hire a grandmother." and Mrs. M. Badgerow sang a solo, "A Soldier's Farewell." All numbers on the program were enjoyed. The ladies were tendered a vote of thanks for their dainty lunch by Mrs. Carruthers, on behalf of the grandmothers. A vote of thanks was tendered the grandmothers for their fine program. It was decided to answer the June roll call with a verse containing the word, "Abide."

YOU NEVER SAW

Bent Over SAFE-LOCK FARM FENCE !

It Just can't happen because the locks are jointed and the stays spring erect again the second pressure is removed instead of being permanently bent. That's why so many people for over twenty years have been calling it "Hinge Lock" fence.

But if you prefer the best in the Ring Lock type we manufacture it also. Both fences are guaranteed full gauge in the lock as well as in the fence.

If your local hardware dealer doesn't handle Keenan fencing he can always obtain it for you in 24 hours.
