EDITORAL NOTES

Prime Minister Mackenzie King looks well in a Windsor uniform which he has had his picture "took" in since going to England to hobnob with kings, queens and princes. He had better beware or he might become Commander-in-Chief of the British army and Canada would have to go gunning for another Prime Minister. Applying the "fine feather" proverb we see danger ahead.

There was no concerted program for the planting of shade trees on the villages streets this spring, despite the fact that many wanted to see this work commenced. It would be a good work for the Women's Institute to commence and lay plans for planting next spring. There is need for a tree planting campaign on the village streets, as many of them are bare of any foliage and anything but pleasant to view.

The ogre of northern Europe has been a sick man for the past twenty years, but now feels himself sufficiently recovered to be able to defy all covenanters and destroy all covenants entered into in the past with other powers. His defiance has again broken out in his relations towards the war in Spain, which reminds the world of the old adage, so trite in this case, that "when the devil is ill the devil a saint would be; when the devil is well, the devil a saint is he."

The scenes in South Chicago last Sunday give one a good idea of what might, and probably would, have happened in Ontario if the C. I. O., had not been checked in their career here by a real show of force. The legislation recently enacted in the United States by a supine and vote-seeking Congress gave the C. I. O. forces the idea that they could override the forces of law and order in the country and defy constituted authority. As a result much blood has been shed, and the Lewis gang stand out in their true color of actual rebels to the country of Liberty, which they are now attempting to destroy and replace with a dictatorship, if not crushed to pulp under foot at once.

A well-known Toronto bakery has commenced their summer program of delivering bread to stores in towns and villages on No. 10 Highway. The people are free to choose which bread they prefer, but we are sorry, indeed, to see local industry slighted, when just as good bread is made here in Flesherton as can be purchased anywhere.

Last Friday afternoon we attended a meeting of the newspapermen of Dufferin, Wellington and Perth Counties, in company with Editor Colgan of Markdale, which was held at Arthur. Discussions on trade questions were carried on and the members had a very profitable afternoon. Editor Claridge of Shelburne was again elected President, while Frank McIntyre also took the position of Vice-President. The octogenarian editor of the Mt.Forest Confederate, Mr. A. W. Wright, was also re-elected secretary of the Association, a position he has held for a great many years. His worth as secretary is recognized by the members.

The Markdale Standard recently advocated the establishing of offices in Markdale Flesherton and Dundalk for the issuing of motor licenses. Durham is the only centres in South Grey where licenses are issued and there is not a point on No. 10 Highway between Orangeville and Owen Sound where these can be secured. Car owners are forced to send extra money when their applications are sent away for renewal. There are sufficient motor licenses issued in this district to warrant the government appointing someone as issuer in these towns and giving service to their customers. As a commission is awarded by the government to the issuer for each license the extra cost would not be very great and motor car owners would be saved great inconvenience. We would like Mr. Oliver, member for South Grey, to use his influence for the inauguration of such a service for these localities.

SHE SHOOTS, SHE SCORES

A little eight-year-old girl was telling her family at dinner the other evening about Easter-time "examinations" her class had been having at school that day. She felt that she had done pretty well, the questions had seemed easy. The first one, she revealed, had been: "Name two of Canada's most popular winter sports."

"And what," asked her father, "was your answer to that?"

"Why," exclaimed the partisan young hockey fan, "Harvey Jackson and Red Horner, of course!"

The family laughed and laughed and then tried to explain gently to their perturbed offspring that she would get no marks for that answer.

But they were wrong, for the little girl's teacher, one of St. Mary's most popular sports, gave the bright pupil a perfect score on the play.

She—What do you mean by telling your boy friend that I was deaf and dumb?

Other She—I didn't say deaf.

PLENTY OF EVIDENCE RE THE RED TINGE

There has been plenty of evidence, notes the Alliston Herald, that the C.I.O. is tied up pretty well with the Communists. Speaking to 650 delegates at the national convention of the Young Communists League in New York, William Z. Foster, chairman of the Communist party, said: "It is not enough to support the C.I.O. and the Youth Congress. We must become leaders in these movements. We will then march forward with giant strides in the revolutionary movement that is growing like a snowball in all parts of the United States." In view of these utterances it is no wonder Ontario is striving to protect the province from the tentacles of the Communistic C.J.O.

GET THEM ALL OUT OF BED

It was two o'clock in the morning and the doctor wearily put away his instruments. He spoke dolefully:

"Madam, I would advise you to send at once for a clergyman, and if you want to make your will, for your lawyer!"

"Heavens! groaned the patient. "Am I as far gone as that?"

"No, madam, far from it. But it doesn't seem reasonable to me that I should be the only one to be dragged out of bed at this hour of the morning for nothing."

A tree which yielded sufficient wood for the winter of 1936-37 was cut on the farm of Walter Scott, who resides near Wingham. It was one of the oldest landmarks of Huron County, a gigantic soft "slippery" elm tree. According to George Baird, who cut the tree, "he just couldn't believe his own eyes" when he saw it. By actual measurement it was sixty feet up on the first limb and measured seven feet two inches across the stump. The sawyer states that there will be over thirty cords of wood in the tree. The butt log was hollow up for a distance of several feet. After that the logs were perfectly sound.

—Toronto may limit the number of gasoline stations to 709, which means hardship for folks who may have to drive two or three blocks to reach a gas depot.

able to secure 500 specially reserved seats in the Grand Stand, from which the evening display of fireworks may be seen. After this is over the pupils will walk to the Queen Victoria Public School, which is close by, where the party will sleep, the girls occupying the South Room, and the boys the North Room, of the Kindergarten Department.

On Tuesday morning, 31st, the party will again proceed to the Exhibition grounds, and at the Dufferin Street Entrance they will be met by a large party of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of Toronto, each of whom will take charge of about ten of the children, taking them through all the buildings and giving them ample opportunity to see all the exhibits.

Promptly at one o'clock the entire party will re-assemble at the Flag Pole, on the Lake front, eat lunch, and rest until three o'clock, when the party will leave for home.

Teachers are requested to note carefully the following:-

(1) As I can secure free tickets to the Grand Stand and to the Exhibition for only 500 children, and as sleeping accommodation for only that many is available, the party will consist of just that number, 500, hence, children under 11 years of age are not invited this year.

(2) Each child must bring one blanket or quilt, for sleeping purposes, and enough lunch for four meals. The lunch for the four meals should be in four separate parcels, one for each meal for each pupil.

(3) Each child's hat must be decorated with two strips of white tape (in the form of a cross) sewed to four equally distant points of the rim, and to the top of the crown. Tape for this purpose will be sent to the teachers as soon as I hear from you as to the number likely to go.

(4) As there are many hundreds of children in South Grey who have never been on a railway train, the excursion will be by that means. The following rates will apply for children under 12. All rates quoted are return: Markdale, $1.40, Flesherton, $1.30; Saugeen Jct., $1.25; Dundalk, $1.15; Children over 12 must pay twice that fare. On the C.N.R., from Elmwood the rate is $1.75; Hanover, $1.65; Neustadt, $1.60; Ayton, $1.60; children may go by car, but those who join the party must be at the Union Station, Front St., Toronto, sharp at noon, Standard time. Children will eat noon lunch on the train before arriving at the city, and all parcels of bedding and lunch will be taken from the trains (both lines) at Parkdale, and taken to the Queen Victoria School, where, through the kindness of Mr. Fuller, the Business Administrator of the Board of Education, Toronto, and of the Board itself, the children will be permitted to sleep. All parcels must be wrapped, tied, and have children's names and addresses on them.

(5) Except for transportation the children will not require any money, as the entire program outlined above is free. It will be well, however, for each child to have a small sum of money, say 25 cents, for emergencies.

(6) On no account will children be permitted to go shopping in Toronto, or to visit friends, but friends in the city may visit children early on Tuesday morning, from 7.30 to 8.30, Daylight Saving Time, at the Queen Victoria School, Close Avenue.

(7) Children will not be left alone for a moment, night or day, from the time they come to their station to take the train for Toronto. The following teachers will assist me as chaperons and will be on the trains from the start, Mr. Wm. Vanderburgh, Miss Irene Curtis, Miss Kelly Watt, Miss Irene Martin, Mr. Jackson Stewart. The chaperons will be with their respective sexes over night at the Queen Victoria School.

(8) Teachers are requested to send me, before June 15th, (early gratly appreciated), names of children likely to go. For the present at least, it might be wise not to encourage more than six from each school to go.

A cicular will be sent each teacher in due time giving information about the great exhibition.

Very kind regards,
GEO. E. PENTLAND.

P.S.

Children are asked not to pick the white trillium this year, as it has been proclaimed as Ontario's Floral Emblem, and the Government is anxious that the flower may be protected.

P.S.

The King's birthday will be celebrated on June 9th, a school holiday, but June 23rd is not a school holiday.

The courts have closed New York burlesque shows which means that strip-teas demonstration will now be left to the bathing beaches.

It is amazing to think how much in the aggregate is wasted. An old man picking over dump at Kitchener has managed to retrieve eight full tons of coal during the winter months.

BEWARE THE DOG

On the 24th of May some years ago, a burly blacksmith stood in his shop in one of our cities. It was holiday and he had nothing to do. Presently a large Newfoundland dog wandered into the shop. He was friendly and the blacksmith, who had a liking for all animals, patted the dog's head, rubbed his back and played with him. The dog, in the course of the play rose and placed his front paws on the smiddy's shoulders. Then suddenly without warning, he bit his friendly host on the nose and decamped.

The doctor who was called dressed the wound and urged the man to have the preventive treatment for rabies. The wound soon healed and the blacksmith neglected to follow his doctor's advice.

Exactly a month later, the blacksmith began to have curious symptoms. He couldn't swallow. He got rapidly worse and the doctor who was called diagnosed rabies or hydrophobie. Little could be done for the patient at this stage. He died within 2 hours, raving mad.

In cases of rabies, the onset of the malady occurs late or early because of the remoteness or nearness of the original infection to one's brain. In this case, the bite on the nose placed the infection close to the great nerve entre. Onset was consequently early.

Bites from straying dogs should be given careful attention. The offending animal, at all costs, should be secured and shut up for a period of ten days. If, at the end of this period he is alive and well, he is not rabid and the wound which has been cleansed and dressed soon heals without serious results.

If the dog shows signs of illness or if he has died of rabies, his head, in the latter event should be carefully removed and the brain tissues examined for negri bodies, the presence of which indicate rabies. The child or other person bitten should at once have a course of rabies preventive treatment. The course lasts for 21 days. It is simple of application, harmless and thoroughly effective. It is provided gratis, by all up-to-date health departments. This is one of the absolutely certain preventives of disease given to the world by the immortal Frenchman, Louis Pasteur. What a world of agony, loss of life and anxiety has the removal of hydrophobia from the list of death-dealing diseases, prevented!,

It's a good thing to give credit where credit is due, but it's better to get paid in cash.

The finances of the Nazi regime are said to be in bad shape. Not even a Hitler can build up a great army without spending money.

Two Irishmen, in Glasgow for the first time, were puzzled by the working of the traffic signals.

"Begorra," said one of them to a passing policeman, "how do we know when to cross?"

"When it shows the color of the Emerald Isle," was the reply.

When they got safely over one was heard to remark: "They're very considerate to us Irishmen, but did you notice the Orangemen didn't get much of a chance."

Barrie Examiner: We wonder how much Canada's prestige will be enhanced by sending so many Senators, M. P.s, and officials to the coronation at the country's expense. Members of the Cabinet, it is understood, have important business conferences to attend while in England, and it is only proper they should have their expenses paid as well as those of officials who are necessary for Ministers' business, but many people will not be enamored of the idea that the taxpayers should put up the whole shot for the "ornamental" members of the party.
