The Y. P. S. of St. Columba purpose making a trip collectively to Niagara Falls some time in the early future, by truck or prabably bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Parslow and Mr. Walter Williamson and his mother visited the latter's brother, Mr. W. J. Blakestone and family at Stratford last week and from there to London on a visit to the latter's son, an accountant in a bank there. A pleasant trip was had through verdant spring weather.

We were pleased to meet last week with Misses Ella and Laura McKinnon, on a visit to relatives here. They purpose taking a trip this Summer to the birth-place of their father, and to France and Germany and to the grave of their brother who fell in battle near Vimy. Miss Mary Aldcorn will be one of the party, and Miss Annie Harrow.

We are indeed pleased to learn of the improved condition in health of Mrs. John McFarlane (nee Anna Mary McLean), she is expected up home here after becoming able to journey. Her mother is still attending her at home in Toronto.

Mr. Chas. Braden, near Shelburne is, we are glad to hear, recovering from an attack of pneumonia, which caused many anxious moments to his wife, (Victoria McMillan) and relatives here.

Rev. H. E. Wright, on Sunday, gave a fine synopsis of the doings at Conference which he attended last week. Several of the various schemes of the church were mentioned, which he thought the laity should be posted on.

We were favoured at morning service on Sunday by Miss Campbell, teacher at Boothville school, assisting with her fine voice in the choir at St. Columba church. After faithful work of five years, she is leaving much to the regret of many.

The fine annual garden party of St. Columba was announced to be held on June 29th. The play of the Chatsworth tennis club, "Adventures of Grandpa," will be given on that occasion, making it the tenth delivery of the club, a fact which must speak for its excellence.

Our own fine local talent will journey to Holstein on Monday, June 21, to give their fine play, "Closed lips," in connection with the United Church anniversary, in that town of fine actors. They will give a good account of themselves.

Joyous wedding bells, how they rhyme, how they chime on the soft and balmy air." (more anon).

A bee will be held on the lot next to the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon, June 18, to clean up the grounds. Anyone who could bring a team and wagon would be greatly appreciated.

39,000 Truck Owners Can't be wrong

THEY BOUGHT CHEVROLET Trucks

IN Canada, there are, it is estimated, about 39,000 owners operating Chevrolet trucks. Some are individual operators, others control whole fleets.

In the hands of these men, Chevrolet trucks are daily demonstrating the stamina, dependability and economy which General Motors builds into them on special truck assembly lines. They are establishing outstanding performance records.

With so many owners getting so much satisfaction from Chevrolet commercial vehicles, perhaps you, too, would find it to your advantage—and profit—to investigate the 1937 line. In it there is a low-priced model for every purpose.

Talk it over with your Chevrolet dealer—now! He is prepared to make a liberal allowance on your present truck or trucks . . . and to arrange convenient financing through the General Motors Instalment Plan.
