Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porteous, recent bride and groom returned from their trip to Toronto, St. Catherines and Niagara on Saturday, June 12th. On the following Monday evening about one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the bride's home and charivaried them, after which they were invited in and a few social hours spent in chat and dancing. A shower was held the following week on Tuesday evening in the L. O. L. Hall. During the lunch hour at midnight, the bride and groom were asked to come forward and an address was read by Billie Hanley and presentation of an Aladdin Lamp and a set of ivory and red kitchenware was made by Messrs. Court Smith and Chas. Hanley. They also received some other pretty and useful gifts during the evening. The address was as follows:

Dear Rowena and Joe:

We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here this evening to spend a happy time with you in honor of your recent marriage. We hold you as one of the highly esteemed couples in our community and are delighted to know that you are going to live in our neighborhood.

We ask you to please accept this Aladdin Lamp and set of kitchenware as a small token of friendship. Hoping this lamp may lighten many of the dark evenings of your journey through life and we all join in wishing it may be a long happy one.

Signed on behalf of your many friends and neighbors: Chas. Hanley and Court Smith.

Joe replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the friends for their kindness and inviting one and all to visit them in their new home on the 8th line after which the crowd joined in singing, "For they are jolly good fellows."

Lunch was served after which dancing was resumed.

OWEN SOUND

After 56 Years

For the past fifty-six years the writer has had the pleasure of conducting the Northern Business College—and on July 1st transfers the responsibilities to Mr. Chas. K. Johnston, the President and Miss Marjorie H. Willson, the new Secretary-Treasurer.

To the old students, and old friends and the public generally, we say thank you ever so much, for your generous patronage.

The choice of my successors has been made with great care—I wished to have the college carried on in the same practical and thorough manner that has characterized it in the past. It is with complete confidence that I hand over the ownership and management to my successors. Their scholastic attainments, splendid record of leadership in commercial education in well known Canadian schools and excellence of character make it a pleasure to transfer the management and makes me happy to see the institution in such good hands.

I bespeak for them a welcome to our community and the splendid support you have given me through the many years I have had the privilege of serving you.
