

Community Calendar

Continued from pg. 15

Wednesday, August 14

Silver-Wood Women's Institute potluck picnic: 7 p.m. at Devereaux House, 11494 Trafalgar Rd. The WI is open to all women and has focused on personal development and community action for 116 years. Donations for the Links2Care Backpack program will be collected. Info: Linda, 905-877-9579, or Donna, 905-877-0592.

Business After Hours: Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce members network and celebrate delicious local food at Carter Farm Market, 9880 Winston Churchill Blvd. in Norval, an on-farm, locally focused, cafe and boutique specializing in field fresh produce, honey, preserves, gourmet food items and baked treats. No charge to attend but register at 905-877-7119 or go to www.haltonhillschamber.on.ca

Meditation: A practical method for solving life's problems. Drop-in classes are held on Wednesdays from 7-8:30 p.m. at the Glen Williams Town Hall, 1 Prince St. Cost is $10 or pay what you can; no one is turned away. Info: meditateinmississauga.org

Thursday, August 15

Blood donor clinic: 5-8 p.m. at Acton Legion Hall, 15 Wright Ave., Acton. Appointment preferred, walk-in if available. Call 1-888-2-DONATE (1-888-236-6283). Info: www.blood.ca.

Tai Chi in the Park: free practice in Dominion Gardens Park (Maple Ave. entrance) every Thursday until Aug. 22, 7:15 p.m., weather permitting.

Limehouse euchre: 7:30 p.m. every Thursday at Limehouse Memorial Hall. All welcome. Sponsored by the Limehouse Memorial Hall Board with proceeds to maintain the building.

Sleepytime Stories in Acton: at the Acton branch of Halton Hills Public Library! Children are invited to wear their pajamas and bring their stuffies, and enjoy some stories, music and fun together, Thursdays, 7 p.m. until August 22. Info: www.hhpl.on.ca or 519-853-0301.

For more Calendar Events go to www.theifp.ca/whats-on/events

Willow Park invites artists of all ages to Art-in-the-Park

Painters and photographers frequently visit Willow Park Ecology Centre (WPEC) to take advantage of this oasis in Norval.

This Sunday, August 11 and again on Sunday, August 25, WPEC is inviting all artists and "wannabe" artists and their families to come down to enjoy some time together exploring crafts from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. Whether you are a clay person or a painter, or just want to have some help in learning, you will have an enjoyable time. Some materials are available for a minimal cost; come get your hands dirty and try something new. There will also be some butterflies and other wooden creatures to paint in your own styles for the compost area fence.

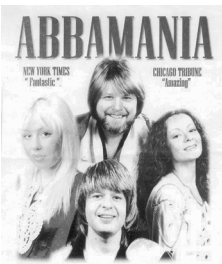

Photographers taking photos in the park may submit them to butterflies@WPEC.ca for inclusion in the contest and on the WPEC website.

Depending on public feedback and participation, this could be the start of a much larger venture to bring artisans of all kinds to the park on an annual basis. Musicians playing acoustical instruments are welcome on either or both Sundays. Contact Carolyn@willowparkecolgy.ca with your suggestions and offers to help.

For more information, please check out www.willowparkecolgy.ca

ABBAMANIA plays in Acton tonight

The Four Swedes present a tribute to ABBA in a concert in support of Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHh) at the Acton Arena & Community Centre, 415 Queen St. E., Acton, tonight (August 8). The concert starts at 8 p.m. with doors opening at 7:30 p.m. The Four Swedes perform 21 of ABBA's hits, with all the costume changes, choreography, live band and a big studio sound. For tickets call 1-800-516-5810.

Globe Camp leader Victoria Fraser (left) relaxes with July campers (from left) Brynn Swenarchuk, Senja Anderson, Cameron Playter, Jake Zanth, Thomas Morely, and Madelyn Gander before the camp show, Disney Gone Wild. Written by camp leaders Joanna and Victoria Fraser with a funky twist on the classic Disney characters, 25 kids took part in the production.

Photo submitted

Globe's Music Theatre Camp for kids begins next week

Globe is holding a Music Theatre Camp for kids, ages 8-13, August 12-23.

Don't miss out on singing, acting, dancing and theatre games. This is an amazing way for kids to explore their creative side, mingle with other energetic and theatrical kids in town, and make great friendships. The kids will get to learn about being on stage, being in a rehearsal, improvisation, and practise public speaking skills.

Camp leaders are Joanna Fraser and Victoria Fraser. Joanna recently graduated from Sheridan College with a diploma in Musical Theatre. Joanna led the camps last summer and co-directed the youth show, You're a Good Man Charlie Brown. As a lover of all things theatrical, Joanna wants to help young members to discover the joys of being in community theatre.

Victoria is very excited to be a part of Globe's summer camps again this year. Victoria is studying English and theatre at Western and has appeared in many shows there. A dancer since she could walk, Victoria was a part of the UWO dance pack for two years and loves to choreograph the young campers.

The two-week camp is held at The Old Armoury, 1A Park Ave, Georgetown Fairgrounds, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (extended hours 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. available). Contact jfraser@fraser-direct.ca for more details.

Georgetown Globe Musical Productions is a non-profit community theatre company, started in 1964. The group saved, and has been restoring, The Old Armoury for use as a rehearsal hall.

The McGibbon Hotel

LUNCH BUFFET SERVED THURSDAY & FRIDAY

Featuring:

- Roast Beef
- Baked Ham
- Meatballs

11:30 am to 2:00 pm

- Assorted Salads
- Dessert Table
- Tea & Coffee

$11.50

HST INCLUDED

Private Catering Available

~ LIVE ENTERTAINMENT ~

Fri. & Sat.
9:30 pm - close

Achilles Road

79 Main Street South, Georgetown

905-877-3388

ON STAGE NOW
AUGUST 2-24

THE MELVILLE BOYS
BY NORM FOSTER

L-R: Scott Carmichael, Jamie McRoberts,
Jim Watson, Erin MacKinnon
Photo by Sylvia Eng

TICKETS: $29

905.874.2800
www.rosetheatre.ca

ROSE
THEATRE BRAMPTON