A number of Orangemen from here went to Collingwood. They did not take the colors.

The first re-union of the Ellis family was held on the first of July at Orillia. The Ellis, Boyle, Chard and McMullen families attended from here, Other members, about 80 in all, gathered from Little Current, Powassan, Foss Mills, Peterboro, Cambellford, Atwood, Markdale and South River. Mr. Chas. Laidlaw acted as spokesman and made references to the members who had passed on. Mr. W. T. Ellis was elected as honorary president as the oldest member living. Mr. V. A. Ellis, Collingwood was elected president and Mrs. Bert Carter secretary for next year.

17 Lodges at Markdale

Seventeen lodges, including two of the ladies' lodges, marched in the parade at the Glorious Twelfth celebration held at Markdale on Monday. There was not as large a crowd as in former years as there were a number of celebrations at near-by centres. Horse races were held on the track at the agricultural grounds, while a softball tournament was staged on the diamond in the infield. Singhampton defeated Desboro 20-15 and Berkeley defeated Maxwell 2-1 in a thrilling game. In the final Berkeley won from Singhampton 8-5, also a real good game. The crowd was very orderly and the day passed off without any accidents to mar the celebration. The Dundalk-Honeywood band rendered excellent music for the parade and in the evening.

MAXWELL
