Sudbury has a story about thousands of caterpillars ending their lives by marching into the water of Lake Ramsay. The rest of the province is hopeful this mass suicide idea will be copied all over Ontario.

The heiress to the bulk of the Rockfeller fortune says that there must be some mistake about the story of her inheritance. It is the kind of mistake, however, that most folk would be glad to have happen them.

Live Stock Report

Over 8,000 cattle arrived for Monday's market, which is the heaviest offering on record for some time, over half of which came from Western Canada, comprised mostly of stockers and feeders. The general effect on the market as a whole caused a slow trade and lower pricss on most classes, especially cattle of medium quality and heifers, which were fully a quarter lower.

Choice heavy steers sold readily at from $9.50 to $9.75, with others of medium to good quality from $7.50 to $9. Choice butcher steers sold at from $7 to $7.25 and heifers from $6.75 to $7; fair to good butchers from $5.60 to $6.50; common to medium $4.50 to $5.50. Selected stockers and feeders were in good demand, choice light kind selling from $4.75 to $5.50 and those of heavier weights from $5.50 to $6.25; common to medium stockers from $3.50 to $4.25. Choice butcher cows were in good demand at from $4.50 to $4.75, with a few extras at $5; fair to good from $3.50 to $4; common to medium $2.75 to $3.25; canners and cutters $2.50 to $2.75. Choice heavy bulls brought from $4 to $4.50, with a few tops at $5; bolognas from $3.50 to $4.

The lamb trade met with a severe setback, following last week's close, prices being fully $1 per cwt. lower, choice lambs $9.50, bucks $8.50. Best light sheep sold from $3 to $3.50. The calf market was active and strong, choice veal calves from $9 to $9.50; fair to good from $7.50 to $8.50; common to medium $5.50 to $7.

Hogs featured the market, advancing to a new high of $11.50 for truck deliveries on Monday. Prospects for the balance of the week will depend entirely upon supplies.

Tiny township has had to pay $350 in a month for sheep killed by dogs. It must be admitted that there is nothing in that bill to suggest the name of the township.
