PRICEVILLE

The August meeting of St. Columba W.M.S. and W.A. was held on the 18th at the home of Mrs. Malcolm McInnes with a good attendance. Mrs. Ritchie presided and Miss Eleanor Mather gave a report of the wonderful ten days which she and Miss Roberta Harrison spent at Presque Isle summer school. Mrs. T. B. Weir and daughter, Mary, sang a pretty duet. Miss Emma Oliver read a story on the reveries of a missionary in Africa. Mrs. G. Whyte and Miss B. Weir led in the devotional period by giving an interpretation of the famous picture "The Light of the World." Miss Edith James took the chair for the WA. and gave a short talk on "the abundant life," and led in the general business. An enjoyable social hour was spent and tea was served by the hostess. It is expected the next meeting will be on Sept. 15th at the home of Mrs. Thos. Harrison, North Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Neilson (nee Alice Parslow) of St. Pauls, Mrs. Geo. W. Parslow and daughter, Mrs. Jack Norman, of Toronto were visitors during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Parslow in town.

Mr. A. Bell, principal of the school here, with hs wife, paid a flying visit to friends in town on Monday.

Mrs. Donald Campbell was hostess to the W.M.S. and Willing Helpers Societies on Tuesday of last week, when forty were present. Mrs. Jack McMeekin presided over the W.A. After the devotional exercises a very interesting debate was held on the subject resolved "that crime is due to wealth rather than poverty." The affirmative was upheld by Misses Jean and Beth Hincks, while the negative was taken by Misses Elda Frook and Anna McEachern. The judges, Mrs. Wm. Beaton, Misses Gretta Nichol and Nellie McLean and Mrs. Dan L. McArthur, gave their decision in favor of the affirmative. Some splendid points were made by both sides. It was decided to invite the Swinton Park Ladies' Aid for a picnic to be held on the school grounds on August 31st. The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah Benedicttion. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W.M.S. and opened the meeting with silent prayer, followed by Scripture reading from Acts the 6th chapter. Mrs. Jack Whyte and Mrs. Dan McArthur gave very interesting readings, and the meeting closed with singing "Abide With Me." A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dave Nichol.

MAXWELL

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. E. Buckingham Thursday afternoon, August 19th, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Geo. Ross, was in the chair, and the roll call was responded to by first aid hints. It was decided to buy a new gate for the Community Cemetery. Mrs. Eby had charge of the program, which consisted of readings by Mrs. M. Nicholls and Mrs. Leggatt and a solo by Mrs. Geo. Lawler. Mrs. J. Long conducted a contest, which brought an enjoyable meeting to a close. The hostess served a dainty lunch, assisted by the lunch committee, Mrs. E. Hawton and Mrs. Ed. Seeley.

Live Stock Report

Suplies of cattle were slightly less than the past two weeks, and the market improved somewhat on good killing cattle, while those of medium quality met with a slow sale at much lower prices, compared to the good kind. Choice heavy steers sold from $9.50 to a top of 10 cents, with the bulk of the good to choice weighty steers from $8 to $9.

Choice butcher steers sold readily at from $6.25 to $7, with a few fancy steers at $8; fair to good butchers $5.50 to $6; common and medium $4.50 to $5.25. Baby beeves, which have featured the market for some time, were inclined to ease off in prices, only a few bringing 10 cents or over, and selling mostly at from $9 to $10. Stockers and feeders on offer were of better quality, and sold at from $4.75 to $5.50 for the light kind, and those of heavier weights up to 6 cents; common and medium kind were very slow of sale from $3.50 to $4.25; fair to good from $3.50 to $4; common to medium $2.75 to $3.25; canners and cutters $2 to $2.65. Best heavy bulls sold at $4 to $4.50; bologna bulls $3 to $3.75.

The lamb market was active and steady with choice ewe lambs selling at $9.25 on Monday, and bucks $8.25; best light sheep 3 to 4 cents, others at lower prices accordingly. Choice veal calves were strong demand for export to U.S. at from $9 to $10, with a few extra choice $10.50; fair to good veal calves ranged from $7.50 to $9, common $5 to $6.50, grass calves from $3 to $3.50.

Monday's hog market was very slow, as buyers were well supplied and reports from American markets and the United Kingdom were lower. The bulk of the sales were made on the basis of $10.25 off trucks, and prospects lower for the balance of week.
