"I'm in an awful predicament."
"What's the trouble?"
"I've lost my glasses and I can't look for them until I've found them again!"

FEVERSHAM

Mr. R. J. Paul and son, Mr. Cecil Paul of Vancouver, B. C., visited the former's home district here after a long residence in B. C. It is forty three years since he visited here before. He was brought up on the twelfth line near Lady Bank about five miles west of here. His father Mr. Thomas Paul and wife were pioneers of Lady Bank neighborhood. R. J., or Bob, as he was familiarly called was a partner of his brother, Mr. John Paul in the blacksmith and woodworking business here in this village for many years.

Miss Erma Smith, Nurse in Training in the G. and M. Hospital, Collingwood, was home here over the week end.

Mr. Rob. Paul and son of Vancouver, who have been visiting here for a week started on the first lap of the homeward journey. They went to Toronto on Saturday. They motored from the western city.

Our schools opened on September 13 with Miss Bonar as principal and Miss Miller as assistant in the continuation school and Miss Jamieson in the public school. This is Miss Jamieson's second year teaching our public school.

We hear that the school fair which was to be held here has been called off on account of danger of spreading Infantile Paralysis, but there are no cases of it here as yet.

(Intended for Last Week)

Messrs. Thomas and Hugh Davidson of Toronto visited with their brothers here recently.

Sheldon is an old Feversham boy, a native of Heron's Hollow, and delights to come and ramble over the play grounds of his boyhood days and also to roam along the banks of the Beaver, where they used to angle for the speckled beauties.

PROTON STATION

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Acheson, from the Inistioge and Bethel communities gathered at their home on Friday evening last to extend to them their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life and to spend an informal social evening with them in their new home. At the midnight hour, Mr. John Talbot read a complimentary address and Miss Anna Maude Acheson on behalf of the assembled guests presented the newly weds with a miscellaneous shower of many beautiful household articles. Mr. and Mrs. Acheson expressed their gratitude to their friends for their lovely gifts and a bountiful lunch was partaken of.

Several from Proton Station were present at the party at Mr. and Mrs. Robt. White's, Saugeen Junction, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown (nee Miss Alma White) who were recently married. The young couple were presented with a case of silver flatware and an electric toaster. The best wishes of the community go with them to their home at Fesserton.

The school fairs in this county are cancelled for this year owing to the epidemic of Infantile Paralysis.

Died on September 18th at her home near Proton Station, Mrs. Mary Sherson, in her 97th year. Particulars next week.

Landlady — What part of the turkey do you wish?

Boarder—Some of the meat, please.

We oldsters are lucky. We got our kissing done when kisses weren't flavored with anything but girl.—Exchange. What an old chap this must be, to remember back even before the day of onions.

A little girl said to the little boy who was playing with her:

"When I was born I was so s'prised I couldn't speak for a whole year and a half.
