If the people would cheer for the home town with one-quarter the enthusiasm with which they root for a football team, a town could make tremendous progress.

WARD — MOORE

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday evening, November 6th, 1937, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore, when their second daughter, Myrtle Francis, was united in marriage to Gordon Graham Ward, of Toronto, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ward of Wiarton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Prosser, cousin of the bride, under an arch of evegreens, wedding bells and roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Gramsby, aunt of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in baby blue taffeta and carried Talisman roses. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cade of Toronto. Mrs. Cade wore pale pink organdy.

After the signing of the register and congratulations, the bride led the way to the dining room, where a buffet luncheon was served. The bride and groom drank their toast from cordial glasses, once owned by the great, great grandmother of the bride.
