PRICEVILLE

November meeting of St. Columba W.M.S. and W.A. was held in the church basement. Mrs. Ritchie led in devotions with several ladies taking part. Mrs. H. B. McLean introduced the new study book, "A New Church Faces a New World," telling in an interesting way, of the early beginnings of the church in important centres across Canada.

Miss Edith James presided for the W.A. part of the meeting. A report of the treasurer was given. The ladies have lately bought seven dozen pieces of silverware and have now a complete requirement of table flatware for the church. Thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mather for the donation of a range for the church kitchen.

There passed away on Thursday of last week an old and well known resident of Priceville in the person of Mr. T. A. M. Ferguson, for many years secretary of the Priceville Agricultural Society and caretaker of the cemetery. The fine upkeep of the latter testifies to the taste and care he exercised in the work pertaining thereto. He was in his 87th year, being 86 on August 11th last. A fine, kindly old gentleman, held in the highest regard by a host of friends. The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 11 a.m., and at the request of his son, Stanley, of Toronto, the funeral was private.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. L. McArthur, L. Frook, Colin H. McLean, F. G. Karstedt and Ed. Watson, a nephew from Durham. Interment was made in McNeill cemetery.

The play "Closed Lips," after being rendered 13 times throughout the district, will be given here on Dec. 9. It is highly spoken of wherever given. Come and hear it.

The Sacrament, to have been given in St. Columba church Sunday, was unavoidably postponed to Dec. 5th.

The uncertainty of life was again exemplified in the death of Mrs. Mepham in Toronto. Mrs. Mepham this summer purchased the house occupied by the late Andy Ford.

Mrs. D. G. McLean left the first of week for Owen Sound where she purposes spending the winter.

Misses James are with their sister, Mrs. Bowes, near Markdale, who is somewhat indisposed.

St. Columba Sunday School concert is booked for Dec. 23rd, and preparations are already being made for this always successful event.

Keep in mind the social evening in St. Andrew's Church Friday evening Dec. 3rd, when a good program will be given, followed by lunch. A short play, music and other numbers will be given.

St. Andrew's Church Sunday school will hold a Christmas party on Dec. 22nd, in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. McArthur and Eleanor and Mrs. A. B. McArthur and Betty Watson visited Sunday with friends at Collingwood.

Mrs. Allie McLean spent the week end in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Calder, Holstein, visited on Sunday at the home of A. L. Hincks.

A sectional meeting of the W.M.S. was held in St. Andrew's Church on Thursday evening, which was presided over by Mrs. Wm. Mackintosh of Dundalk and Mrs. Fraser of Dundalk was at the piano for the hymns. Mrs. Gemmel of Markdale gave a splendid paper on "Missions and Prayer." Mrs. Fraser brought greetings from Presbytery to the Auxiliary here. Mrs. Mackintosh sang a solo and the meeting closed with prayer. Refreshments were then served.

CEYLON

Mrs. McIllwen, Owen Sound, attended the funeral of her aunt, the late Mrs. Achsah Corrigan, on Monday.

Mrs. Hyslop, Eugenia, is on a visit with her brother, Mr. Geo. McKenzie.

Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., arrived home on Monday evening, after a month's speaking tour in the United States. Commencing at Minneapolis she addressed a large audience. She travelled into Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and to the Gulf of Mexico, speaking at several universities in these States. She returned to Toronto for the U.F.O. convention and was again elected to the Board of Directors of that body. Friday she left for Timmins, where she was the guest speaker at the commencement exercises of the Timmins High and Vocational Schools, of which Mr. W. W. Tanner, a Bruce County boy, is principal.

No man is the angel his mother thinks him, the fool his father thinks him, the prize-winner his sweetheart thinks him—or even the fascinating devil he thinks himself.

FEVERSHAM

Standing room was at a premium in the Salvation Army hall on Friday night when the S. A. Sunday School held their annual entertainment. The hall was packed and Brigadier Ursaki and the two lady officers of Orillia attended and the former made an excellent chairman. The collection amounted to sixteen dollars, which will assist in buying supplies for another year. They have an average attendance of 52 at this School. The report of the secretary, Mrs. H. Pedlar, was very satisfactory.

Week end visitors here were: Miss Queenie Kaitting of Owen Sound at Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burke's; Mrs. Ivan Alexander of Flesherton with Mr. and Mrs. H. Alexander; Mrs. Gordon of Proton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Short; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Colquette of Owen Sound at the Colquette and Alexander homes

The weather took a sudden change Sunday night and Monday morning was quite cold with the ground frozen and a skift of sonw.
