Wes Bowler Dies

Mr. C. Wesley Bowler, one of Markdale's highly esteemed old residents, passed away early Tuesday morning as a result of injuries received Monday afternoon when a truck loaded with logs crushed his legs.

Mr. Bowler was on his way home from the post office and when crossing the street at the main corner he failed to notice the truck approaching. The driver of the truck, Mr. E. Edmunds, did his best to avoid an accident and had succeeded in getting almost by when Mr. Bowler's feet slipped and he fell partly under the truck., The rear wheel ran over him and crushed his legs. He was picked up and rushed to the hospital but the shock was too great and he passed away as stated.

Wesley Bowler was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bowler, pioneer residents of Artemesia, and was raised on the Bowler homestead, East Backline. For a number of years he conducted a brick yard, retiring to the village nearly 25 years ago, He was well and favorably known and his unfortunate end has caused deep sorrow in the village and community.

Surviving are his widow, two sons. and five daughters, namely: Gordon in the West; Harold in Markdale; Miss Annie in Hamilton; Mrs. E. Hill in Toronto; Mrs. Wm. Dundas and Mrs. Preston York in Markdale, and Mrs. J. A. Richards in Flesherton.

The funeral was held from his late home to Markdale cemetery on Thursday afternoon. — Markdale Standard.

The Late Mrs. Weeks

There passed away on December 7th in the General and Marine hospital, Parry Sound, Edna M. Madill, aged 48 years, wife of R. S. Weeks of MacTier, following a lengthy illness.

The late Mrs. Weeks was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Madill of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., who survive, with her husband and two sons. She also leaves four brothers and three sisters, B. R. Madill of Glenside, Sask., John M. of Port Arthur, Wallie and Samuel of Sault Ste. Marie, Mrs. F. F. Walton, Mrs. John McDonald of Sault Ste. Marie and Mrs. Alex. Carruthers of Eugenia.

The remains were taken to Sault Ste. Marie for burial.

Celebrated Birthday

Mr. Edmund Binnington of Osprey township celebrated his 81st birthday with a dinner at his residence on Tuesday evening, Dec. 7th. About 25 friends and neighbors were present. Around the richly laden table the prevalent spirit of good-fellowship and cheer, as evident in the words and faces of all, was characteristic of the general fine sentiment of the occasion.

After dinner the guests were assembled in the sitting room, where a program, in which expression was given by the talent present, was conducted under the direction of Rev. S. Elliott. Among the most appreciated items was a vocal solo by Mr. Binnington himself. Addresses were given by several present congratulating Mr. Binnington on his birthday anniversary, and on the position he has won as a most honored and respected citizen of the district.

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Artemesia:

Ladies and Gentlemen,- I wish to express my appreciation of the confidence you have placed in me by electing me to the Council for 1938. I will continue to do the best I can.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year,

Yours sincerely,

—NORMAN HOSTRAWSER.

To the young, the time from one Christmas to the next one seems too long. To the older it seems very much too short.

BIG POULTRY FAIR IN MARKDALE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17th

Is the date set aside for one of the biggest old-time open market days for dressed poultry that Markdale has had in 20 years. Buyers will be on the market in Markdale from several reliable firms to buy and pay for all the poultry the country can supply. Arrangements are completed and are in the hands of capable committees. The business men are behind this and are prepared for one of the biggest crowds that Markdale has had since the old market days.

Be sure you make arrangements to be here, even if you have no fowl, as you will see your friends as this event has been extensively advertised. Tell your friends, and if you want a real good time in a busy little town Poultry Fair, then don't miss this one.
