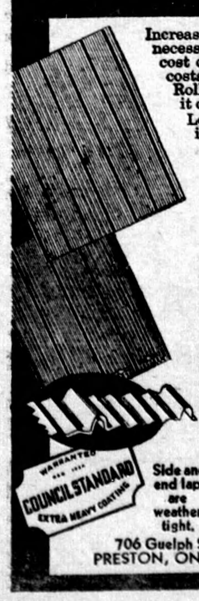
GOD SAVE THE KING

At present farm commodity prices ESP ROOFING COSTS LESS TODAY than in 1933

3 YEARS TO PAY under the HOME IMPROVEMENT PLAN



Increases in the price of steel have necessitated a slight increase in the cost of metal roofing, but it actually costs you less, relatively, to buy Rib-Roll or Tite-Lap roofing today than it did in 1933.

Look at these figures. Here is what it cost you in commodities to buy Rib-Roll or Tite-Lap roofing in 1933 as compared to today.

Cost of 100 sq. ft. Roofing

	1933	1937
Beef	120 lbs.	112 lbs.
Wheat	6.85 bu.	5.6 bu.
Oats	14 bu.	9.875 bu.
Barley	11.5 bu.	8.5 bu.
Bacon Hogs	96 lbs.	83 lbs.

So, don't put off getting a new roof to protect your crops and livestock. Get one of Canada's two best roofing values.

Rib-Roll and Tite-Lap Roofing—Easy to put on right over your old roof. They save money by cutting upkeep cost. Be sure to get the genuine E.S.P. product and have no regrets. There are many unsuccessful imitators! Send ridge and rafter measurements for free cost estimate.

Write us for details or see your banker. He will welcome you.

Use STATITE LED-HED NAILS. Lead on the head positively seals the nail-hole. A drive screw nail that holds like a bulldog.
