NDELEUR

The funeral of the late Ray Warling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Warling, who passed away in Owen Sound hospital on February 28th, following a critical operation, was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week and was largely attended. Service was held in the home at 2.30 p.m., and the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren, delivered a very comforting message. He also conducted the service at the family plot in Vandeleur cemetery. The pallbearers were six boy friends of the deceased: Melville Buchanan, Billie Johnston, Freddie Boland, Bruce Shepherd and R. J. Cargoe. The floral tributes were very beautiful and were borne by the girls of the public school. Ray was a fine, manly, likeable little fellow, who took a keen interest in everything around the farm. He will be greatly missed by his parents, who have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Several movings have taken place in the neighborhood recently. Mr. Cecil Foster moved from the old Ed. Baker farm to Mr. Reid's farm above Rocklyn and Mr. John Shires moved from the Harry Baker farm to the one vacated by Mr. Foster. Mr. Hugh Boland and family moved on Monday to the 7th line, north of Rocklyn, where Hugh will manage the farm for Mr. Perry.

In fact, he couldn't change any bill no matter what the denomination, nor did he have change for a half-dollar, quarter, dime or nickel. What did he have?

In case you cannot get it, here's the answer: One $5.00 bill, four two-dollar bills, one half-dollar, one quarter, four dimes, and four pennies.
