

A trio of Halton Hills Bulldogs from the minor system recently captured gold medals for Team Ontario at separate tournaments. Jessica DiGiro-lamo captained the Ontarians to victory and was the team's leading scorer at the Female National Box Lacrosse Bantam Championships in Halifax, while goalie Drayden Patey (centre) and transition player Bret Allonby played key roles for Team Ontario in their charge to victory at the CLA festival in Whitby.

Local players starring for Ontario in 2008 with the Halton Hills Minor Lacrosse Association. Haines played in four of his team's eight preliminary games—all victories—and started the final against Team Iroquois, leaving midway through the third period with Ontario ahead 8-1 on the way to a 9-2 triumph.

Tristan Usher, 13, was recently selected to represent Ontario at tournaments in Ithaca, N.Y. and Saratoga Springs, N.Y., winning the latter with a 4-0 record.

She is a member of the Brampton Excelsiors' under-15 A girls' field team that placed third at the OWFL Championships this year and will play for Ontario at the Syracuse University Laxfest in October.

Usher began playing lacrosse at age four with Halton Hills and made the Excelsiors' under-15s when she was 10.

Sixteen-year-old Campbell Parker has been selected to play for Team Ontario at the Canadian championships, set for Montreal on the Labour Day weekend. The attackman, who also played for the Halton Hills' midget box team, will attend the Hill Academy in Vaughan this year.

Parker is the cousin of longtime National Lacrosse Leaguers Peter and Daryl Veltman.

HOW WILDBLEU™ WORKS:

Our products use a patented yarn that wicks moisture away from the skin and then forces the moisture to the surface of the fabric where it evaporates quickly. Our Heat Release Technology™ uses a combination of natural and synthetic fibers ...and it combines the best of both.
