Mother's Day was fittingly observed Sunday last by a large turnout, well over the century mark (115). The program was added to by the scholars of the Sunday School who marched in to "Onward Christian Soldiers." A junior choir composed of members of the above sang "My Mother's Old Bible is True." Another hymn was given by the junior scholars just entering their teens. The story of "The Parsonage Fire" was given by Douglas Weir and another reading by Miss Mather. Rev. H. E. Wright gave the address citing instances of well ordered homes largely due to faithful observance of Christian principles and actions. At the close of the service a meeting was held dealing with the resignation of the pastor such as per decision of the Board on Saturday evening. A motion was also made that a call be given to Rev. Ross Muir of Larder's Lake, New Ontario which was carried pending the decision of Salem congregation. It is thought the call will be accepted.

It was our good fortune to hear the fine play "Lena Rivers" given in Durham Friday evening as we had missed it here. Excellent is the verdict.

Mrs. J. P. McMillan attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Hendrick, in Toronto on Saturday.

Miss Jean McArthur was home on a short visit from Business College, Toronto.

Miss Anna McLean was also a visitor from the same institution. Mr. E. Shantz and daughter, Anne Lynne, were also visitors, the latter is staying a couple of weeks with her grandmother.
