M.P.P. IS CORRECT — NOT M.L.A.

The Ontario Legislature has decreed that members of the Assembly are to be designated Members of Provincial Parliament, abbreviated "M.P.P."

Of recent years there has been quite a discussion as to which was proper —M.L.A. or M.P.P., but this great problem (?) has now been settled by parliamentary resolution.

Personally we admit that we prefer the term M.P.P.

A larger turnout than usual graced St. Columba Church last Sunday. The occasion was the 60th anniversary of continuous leadership of a choir in the service of praise. The event was heightened by the presence of ten present and past members of the Dromore choir who joined fervently in the rendering of the doxology in anthem form with its Hallelujahs and amens. The afternoon was spent conversationally. Our son and three daughters and families were present as also were Messrs. Peter Ramage of Durham and Arthur Ramage of Thornbury. The Dromore choir gave a selection just previous to the sermon, the base section taking the melody in the verses reverting to their own part in the refrain.

Mostly all are through seeding and housecleaning.
