Mr. Will Meads returned home on Monday after spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr. E. Hutton of Flesherton took charge of the service Sunday in the absence of Rev. G. R. Service. The Young Men's choir of Flesherton, assisted by Mrs. Hunt at the organ, was responsible for the splendid music.

Ceylon Public School pupils took part in the Grey County music festival held at Owen Sound Friday. Those taking part were Ena and Frances Adams, Dorothy Plester, Margaret Smellie, Edna Marshall, Nancy McWilliam, Hilla and Helen Duckett, Marion Collinson, Jos McWilliam, George and Gordon Stewart and Wallace Shaw. Considering the number of entries in each number, Ceylon pupils made a creditable showing. Miss McInnis, Mrs. Collinson and Mr. Roy Piper accompanied the children.

The Women's Institute meets at the home of Mrs. J. F. Collinson on Thursday evening, June 9th, at 8 p.m.; sandwiches, Mrs. McWilliam and Mrs. Smellie.

We extend our sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr. Alex McMullen who passed away suddenly at his home near Flesherton on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. McMullen had spent the afternoon with his sister, Mrs. M. Teeter, here and upon returning home had gone to the barn to do his evening work. He was found in the yard by Mrs. McMullen but life was extinct.

Our warmest congratulations go out to our dear young friend, Miss Isobel Karstedt, just entering her teens, in taking honors at the music festival in Owen Sound last week. She was just three points behind the winner. We hope her better success in the future.

It is indeed pleasant to visit old haunts and old friends and to be assured by them we are looking well despite the fact a picture of the "wild man from Borneo" was printed in the local paper last week. Still we are truly grateful to the Sun-Times and Advance for their desire to do us honor.

One of our citziens came near having a dip in the chilly waters of the dam. Had it not been for a substantial post at the end of the bridge he would have landed in the water.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was held at St. Columba Church on Sunday last to a fine congregation.

We congratulate our old S.S. No. 13 Egremont on securing 78 points; No. 9, 77; No. 12, 76; and No. 3, Holstein, 75 at the recent music festival in Owen Sound.

Mr. James Smellie of Port Arthur is visiting the home of Mr. David Nichol and other relatives in the district. It is his first visit in nine years.

Anniversary services will be held on Sunday in St. Andrew's Church on July 3rd and the garden party will be held the following Monday.

Miss Beth Hincks spent the week end in Toronto and was accompanied home on Sunday by her sister, Jean, who will spend her summer vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin McLean spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. McMillan, Holstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Calder of Holstein visited Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Hincks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDonald visited Sunday with friends in Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Richardson and family visited the first of the week at Mr. Alex Carson's.

FEVERSHAM

Congratulations to Mr. Wm. Moffat who on May 23 celebrated his 82nd birthday and who is still enjoying good health. He resides on the Moffat homestead about three miles east of here. He was married to Miss Margaret Park many years ago and who still survives.

Mr. Winslow Kernahan of Flesherton was in town recently with his mother, Mrs. J. A. Kernahan. We understand Winslow is residing in Flesherton for the summer.

Miss Carrie Kernahan R.N. of the nursing staff of the Gravenhurst Sanitarium spent the week end at her home.

The softball game here Thursday evening between Dunedin and Feversham resulted in a win for the former, the score being 11-10.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walters and the former's mother of Toronto were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Thomson last week.

Week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Colquette were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawes and daughter, Mary, and Mrs. A. Hanson of Burford and Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Flesherton.

Mrs. Ferris of Shelburne and Mrs. Jos. Wright of Maxwell spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hawton.

Mrs. John Smalley of Collingwood spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Jos. Barber here.

The revival services in the Gospel Workers' Church are continuing this week. Good congregations have attended the meetings and deep interest is manifested. The two young evangelists are good speakers and excellent singers.

Miss Annie Heathcote is visiting friends in Nottawa and Heathcote this week.

A rather peculiar accident happened in Mr. Robinson's mill on Monday while sawing. The saw cut right through a horseshoe which had become imbedded in the wood. The shoe had been entirely grown over as there was no indications as to how the shoe got into the tree. Of course the saw was damaged considerably.
