Sarah McKennie Dies

God in his infinite wisdom, removed by death another loved one from our midst and another home is stricken with sorrow by the death of Mrs. S. McKennie who passed away on Tuesday, November 29th, in her 63rd year.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time and notwithstanding her sufferngs she bore them with a Christian spirit. She was born in York Township in 1876, her maiden name being Sarah Turner, and in April, 1911, she was married to the late Robert McKennie who predeceased her nineteen years ago. Most of her married life was spent in Collingwood. In religion she was a member of the Anglican Church.

She leaves to mourn her loss one son and two daughters namely, Mrs. Ivan Knight (Viola) of Meaford, Mrs. Arnold Kelly (Alice) of Collingwood and Albert of Collingwood Five sisters and one brother also survive Mrs. Hugh Fiddis, Mrs. Chas. Wilkinson, Mrs. Herb. Neil, Miss Alice Turner and Charles Turner all of Heathcote and Mrs. John Wilkinson of Flesherton.

The funeral service took place on Friday, December 2nd, and after a short service at the home, the remains were taken to St. Augustine Church where Rev. Oldham conducted the ceremony. Interment took place in Union Cemetery, Thornbury.

The pallbearers were six nephews, Charles, Albert and John Wilkinson, William and Wesley Fiddis and Clifford Neil.

The floral tributes were: a pillow from the family; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilkinson and family and Alice and Chas. Turner; sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fiddis, Mrs. Emily Neil, St. Augustine Church Guild, G. and M. Hospital, Collingwood, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Knight of Meaford.

The flower bearers were Miss F. Fiddis, Mrs. Ross Bradner, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. Gordon Risk, Mrs. G. Wilkinson, Mrs. Fred Wilkinson and Miss R. Turner.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thurston wish to express their appreciation for the many treats and flowers received from kind friends and also for the many enquiries as to their health.

CEYLON

MR. & MRS. V. STEWART FETED

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart of Bala took advantage of their spending the week end at the former's home on the west backline and surprised them on Friday evening. Mrs. Geo. Cairns read an address and Messrs. Bill Irwin and Mel. Hogarth presented them with a blanket and boudoir lamp in rose shades. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart replied most suitably in a very happy manner and all enjoyed a very jolly evening with cards and dancing. Lunch was served by the visitors.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 30th, the Ceylon Young People held their regular meeting with 38 in attendance. The Christian Fellowship convenor, Isaac Snell, had charge of the program. This Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th, the meeting will be held in the church.

The Ladies' Aid held their regular monthly meeting on Wed., Nov. 30, at the home of Mrs. Knox, with the president, Mrs. Snell, in the chair. The meeting opened in form, the roll call being answered by a Christmas gift suggestion. The program was in charge of Mrs. T. Stewart and Mrs. Smellie. It was decided to hold the December meeting on the 14th, instead of the 28th, and each member was asked to bring a prepared booklet to assist the program committee in speeding up their work. There will be the usual exchange of Christmas gifts at this meeting. The social committee served lunch at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Stewart and family visited the latter's mother at Portlaw on Sunday.

Miss Mildred Risk was in Kimberley for the week end.

Mr. Bert Wright of Ventry was a caller on his sister, Mrs. P. Hemphill, on Friday.

Misses Alice and Marion Muir visited Oro frends last week.

Mrs. (Rev.) Howey of Owen Sound spent a few days last week with Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Genoe and Eddie attended the funeral of Mrs. Genoe's cousin, Mrs. Sara McKenney, at Heathcote on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Wyville of Proton visited Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Carmen Hostrawser and babe left Friday to join her husband at Burwash, where the latter has received the appointment of guard. Mr. Norman Hostrawser motored them as far as Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McLeod were in Owen Sound on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Foster and friend, Goldwyn and Jimmie Patterson, of Markdale visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson.

Mr. Sangster Hemphill and Miss Maud visited Feversham friends the first of the week.

The W. I. will meet on Thursday Dec. 15th, at the home of Mrs. Roy Piper, weather permitting. Roll call —Christmas suggestions for candy making. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. McWilliam will have the topic. Exchange of gifts to cost not more than 15 cents.
