Georgetown Seniors Centre's Open House Week is Sept. 9-13

By FLORENCE RIEHL

Your HillsView for September and October is now available. The back cover page contains a schedule of events for Open House Week, September 9-13. There is also a large ad in The Independent & Free Press containing the same list of events.

It is hoped you will look them over and come to the Centre that week to try something new or observe some of the activities that may interest you.

The following is a further introduction to some of the added features for Open House Week:

- Cooking Demonstration, Monday, September 9, 10 a.m. Come out and learn about the Cooking Program offered at the Superstore and take part in the demo and get some great cooking tips!

- Fall Gardening Tips, Tuesday, September 10, 10 a.m. It Doesn't End in August - Extending Interest in the Garden presentation by Sean James includes a study, month by month from September to December and beyond, combinations and individual plants, and breaking down the belief that the spring garden is the be all, end all!

- Brain Health: Wednesday, September 11, 10 a.m. as part of Mingle and Chat. The presentation by Karen Robins, Alzheimer Society of Hamilton will show the importance of keeping the brain healthy and stimulated.

- Driving Tips With Keith Black, Thursday, September 12, 10 a.m. This informative demonstration will mix conversation, some drama and lots of concrete fun as we look at the four tips of good driving: Vision skills, Space Management skills, Communication skills, Thinking skills.

- Adding life to years...it's what we do, Friday, September 13, 10 a.m. Come out and meet Don MacMullen of Right at Home and learn how they can help your family with supportive in-home care as the best solution for comfort, safety, independence and loving family relationships. Adding life to years for your loved one.

I hope you have some spare time that week to take in all these special presentations.

Euchre and Bid Euchre: every Saturday, 7-9:45 p.m. at Georgetown Seniors Centre. Come early for refreshments. Admission $3. Everyone welcome.

The Georgetown Choral Society is recruiting new members

All you need is a love of singing and a willingness to attend rehearsals. To find out if you would enjoy singing with the choir, we invite you to participate in our rehearsals during the month of September. Before you formally join the choir, there will be a simple audition to assess your voice.

The 2013-14 season includes a traditional "Olde English Christmas" concert on Dec. 7th, (featuring John Rutter's Magnificat) and an exciting exploration of "Choral Meets Bluegrass" on May 3rd, 2014.

Rehearsals are every Monday evening, 7:30 p.m., (starting September 2nd) at the Christian Reformed Church, 11611 Trafalgar Road, Georgetown (across from the Jones Funeral home).
