Mr. Reg. Gilchrist of Owen Sound was a caller on Sunday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gilchrist.

Loyal Orange Lodge No. 509 held a very enjoyable evening in their hall on Friday evening last. The play entitled "Miss Molly" given by Victoria Corners talent was well acted and consisted of seven characters. It was very much enjoyed by all who were present. Lunch and tea were served by the ladies at 10.30 p.m. and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. This Friday evening another dance will be held.

PROTON STATION

Not much news comes to the reporter's pen these times whether it is because there is nothing doing or that we do not hear it wo do not know. Perhaps the stormy weather is the cause of the lull in activities in this village and community.

Mr. Lloyd Lyons arrived home on Monday and one of his first movements was to go to Dundalk to hockey practice. There is no doubt but that he will receive a welcome from the hockey team and officials.

Mrs. Arnold Hergott is visiting in Owen Sound.

Nurse Irish was in Dundalk nursing Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. McNalty accompanied her son-in-law, Mr. Neil Campbell, to his home at Lansdowne.

Miss Maud Acheson of Primrose visited at her home here.

Owing to stormy weather last Sunday, all the services on the Proton charge were cancelled. Our student minister, Mr. Elliott, came from Toronto on Saturday night expecting to take his usual work.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Dever attended the funeral of the late Mr. Thos. Scott of Hanover last Wednesday.

Tourist: "Is this cup sanitary?"
Native: "Must be; we all use it."

Another blizzard arrived here Saturday night and lasted all day Sunday and turned very frosty. This Monday morning the wind is very cold and still a bit stormy.

Church service next Sunday at Mt-Zion at 3 o'clock.

Mount Zion church held theeir annual meeting in the hall on January 17th. The pastor, Rev. Elliott, presided and opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Robt. Osborne was appointed congregational secretary and after the minutes of the last meeting were read it was decided to elect the present elders for life and have them ordained. The reports of the different organizations of the church were given and were found to be quite statisfactory. Mr. W. G. Jamieson and Mrs. Osborne were re-elected as Stewards for another three-year term. Mrs. Robt. Osborne was appointed as treasurer, Miss Mary Sheardown is again organist, with Mrs. Florence Lyons assistant; Mrs. Gilbert Little, Mrs. R. J. Fisher and Mr. Fred Plantt were appointed missionary committee, also Miss Mary Sheardown; Mr. Grant Helmkay is caretaker and Mr. Robt. Sheardown was nominated for envelope steward. The meeting adjourned and was closed with prayer.

EUGENIA

There was no church service on Sunday owing to stormy weather.

The W.A. met on Thursday last in the church basement. It was decided to hold a Valentine social on Thursday, February 16, instead of the regular meeting. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Gordon.

Last week in reporting the annual church congregational meeting there was an error. Mr. Will Walker was re-elected to the board of stewards and Mr. Oliver Turner was elected in place of Mr. Bert Magee retiring steward. There are six members on the board of stewards.

Miss Margaret McMillan is able to be back to school again after being ill this past week.

Miss Josie Falconer has returned to Toronto after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Falconer.

Miss Evelyn Campbell left for Toronto on Monday where she has secured a position.

Mr. Robt. Purvis, deputy-reeve, attended County Council in Owen Sound this week.

We understand that Mr. M. Phillips of Rock Mills has purchased the property of the late Miss Jean Graham and will move thereto in the near future with his wife and family. We welcome them to our village.

At the Y.P.U. meeting on Thursday evening Mr. B. Hanley was in charge of the discussion period. A debate "Resolved that Their Majesties should visit the quintuplets at Callander" was won by the negative. Mrs. C. Martin and Miss Dinsmore upheld the affirmative while Messrs. Ben Hanley and Argyle Martin took the negative. After the debate games were played and the meeting closed in the usual manner.

VICTORIA CORNERS

The young people gave their play "Miss Molly" at Orange Valley hall on Friday evening.

Mr. Allen Montgomery spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Anna Maud Acheson, who has been at Berkeley for some time, is now at home.

PRICEVILLE

At a joint meeting of the Y.P.U. members of both churches held on Tuesday evening of last week there was a large attendance. The meeting opened by singing "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Taylor. Mrs. John Whyte read the scripture lesson and Mrs. J. Harrison gave an instrumental solo. Betty Watson gave a reading followed by a bagpipe selection by Mr. A. Cameron. An address of welcome was given by President O'Dell and replied to by Mrs. Harrison. Mrs. (Rev.) Muir gave an elocutionary number in true keeping with the subject. Mrs. Sutherland gave a vocal solo after which amusing contests were indulged in. A bountiful lunch was served at the conclusion of the pleasant social intercourse between the two societies.

The funeral of the late Farquhar McKinnon was held on Saturday when the service was held in St. Columba United Church. A large number of sympathizing friends and neighbors of the deceased attended the funeral. Rev. Muir conducted the service assisted by Rev. Taylor of the Presbyterian church where the deceased was caretaker and at which place he sustained the fall that later resulted in complications and finally death.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Robt. Parslow, H. B. McLean, Dan Campbell, Colin McLean, Ray McLean, Elmer Watson, Malcolm McInnis and Alex. Carson. There was a fine display of flowers that bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The contributions of this neighborhood towards the Bible Society amounted to $21.00 without very much special effort being put forth. Without a doubt this is better than more pretentious places. We could wish it better still.

A fine coating of ice was being made on the open air rink last week but the storm of Saturday night has left a covering of snow of various depths. Very discouraging.

St. Columba W.M.S. and W.A. held their first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. H. B. McLean which was well attended. Mrs. A. R. Muir led in the study of Chapter 2 "The World In Canada" and Mrs. G. Whyte and Mrs. J. C. Harrison supplied music on the violin and piano. The oficers for 1939 are much the same as last year's. A social time was spent at the close. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Mather on February 15th.

The W.M.S. and W.H. Societies held their meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Nellie McLean, when 18 ladies were present. The new president, Mrs. Jack Whyte, was in the chair. Splendid readings were given by Mrs. Dan Campbell, Mrs. J. A. Nichol and Miss Mary McEachern. A letter of appreciation and thanks was read by the secretary from Miss Elizabeth Brown of Toronto for the lovely Bible the Society sent her for Christmas. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W.M.S., which opened with silent prayer. Scripture reading was read responsively, while readings were given by Mrs. John Nichol Sr. and Miss Margaret McArthur. The roll call was answered by the paying of membership fees. Mrs. D. L. McArthur read a chapter from the study book, after which the meeting closed with prayer. Lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sutherland.

Mr. Grant Muir was in bed last week with tonsilitis and his many friends are glad to know he is better.

Mr. Donald Carson and friend, Mr. Herbie McKnight, of Toronto spent the week end with the former's parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Knox and Mrs. Harry Pedlar of Toronto visted on Saturday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Carson, and attended the funeral of the late F. McKinnon on Saturday.

The Holdfast U.F.W.O. club meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 8, at the home of Mrs. Mel. Hogarth, when a debate will be held on the subject resolved "that country life is preferable to city life." The affirmative is being taken by Mrs. D. Campbell and Mrs. Edgar Patterson, while the negative will be taken by Mrs. J. K. McLeod and Mrs. Cameron Smellie.

Friends here were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. McCannell in Durham. The funeral is being held today, Monday, with service in Durham Presbyterian church. Interment in the McNeill cemetery, Priceville.

Mrs. A. L. Hincks visited Thursday with her parents and sister, Mrs. Wm. Hay, at Swinton Park.

Wedding bells are ringing loudly these days on the Fourth Line.

"Are those chickens freshly killed" asked the demure bride of the dealer.

"Fresh killed, lady?" he exclaimed. "Why artificial respiration would bring them around again."

MAXWELL

The regular meeting of the Y.P.U. was held in the church on Thursday evening, January 19th, with a good attendance. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Delmer Seeley while Mr. Murray Morrison gave a very interesting talk on the First Council followed by a solo by Miss Violet Duckett Readings were given by Misses Ida Benson and Thelma Morrison and the meeting closed by the Mizpah Benediction. The next meeting will be in charge of Miss Kathleen Morrison, social convenor, and will take the form of a parents' night when all are welcome.

The annual meeting of the Osprey Agricultural Society was held in the Orange Hall, Feversham, on Friday of last week, when there was an extra good attendance. The following officers were elected:

President—Mr. Garnet Magee.
1st Vice Pres.—Stewart McMullen.
2nd Vice Pres.—John McKinnon.

Directors — Ernest Hawton, Wm. Heitman, D. Stephen, Jas. Hudson, Morton Sayers, Fred Jamieson, Jas. Ottewell, John Lougheed and George McDonald.

Ladies' Com — Mrs. Hawton, Mrs. Magee and Mrs. Ottewell.

Auditors — Mrs. Magee and Mrs. Ottewell.

The delegates to the Fairs' Convention at Toronto are: Mrs. Jas. Ottewell, Mr. D. Stephen and Mr. George Ross.

It was decided to have a field crop competition this year on oats.

Mr. Wm. Kerton, our telephone trouble man, and Fred Ross are attending a plant school in Toronto.

Mr. Lawrence Fenwick had the misfortune to cut his foot while helping Mr. A. Pallister with his wood.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Basil Sornberger on the death of her father, Mr. Jas. Milne, who passed away Saturday night.

Miss Flora Morrison is visiting friends in Flesherton.

KIMBERLEY

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Graham. After the general business in closing accounts in which the secretary and treasurer reporter a very successful year, the election of officers was held, as follows: president, Miss Mary Haines; vice president; Mrs. R. D. Carruthers; treasurer, Mrs. B. A. Carruthers; secretary, Miss Myrtle Stafford. Other committees the same as last year.

The meeting for election of trustees for the Community Hall Board was held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Grieves. After closing accounts there was a satisfactory balance in the treasury. The election of trustees for the coming two years followed, with Mr. W. Haines, chairman, Mr. Leslie McMullen, Mr. Merle Weber, Mrs. Elmer Ellis and Mrs. D. A. Graham being elected.

The skating rink is going fine under the management of Garnet Baker and Ira Harris.

Mrs. W. T. Grieves spent last week with friends in Toronto.

We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Thos. Hutchinson, brother of Mr. Geo. Hutchinson of Kimberley, and a former resident of Kimberley, death taking place at the home of his nephew, Mr. Hadden Hutchinson, in Normanby township. Mr. Hutchinson was of a quiet disposition and a respected member of our United Church. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing friends. Death was due to a sudden heart attack.

Everything seems to be speeded up now and the Niagara ice jam is expected earlier than last year.

CEYLON

Mrs. Harry Piper and Mr. Milford Piper returned home from Toronto on Friday.

Mrs. Alf. Tucker of Ebenezer is visiting at the home of her nephew, Mr. Henry Tucker.

Messrs. Oscar McKee, J. D. Teeter and Bill Cairns returned home Saturday from the United Church Young Peoples' winter school at Brampton. Miss Marion Muir who was also in attendance was called home to take a school at Dromore. She left for Dromore Thursday.

Mrs. Ted Walker (Della White) returned to Toronto Sunday and Miss Laura White returned to Toronto on Monday after looking after the sale of their home.

The sale of the household effects of the late Mrs. White was held on Saturday afternoon but owing to the weather conditions the crowd was not very large. Mr. Sam McDermid purchased the property and will move therein shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mathewson have moved their household effects to Vandeleur.

Mr Harry Huston of Oshawa was a caller at P. Muir's last week. Mr. Jack Skills of Toronto is spending some time at Mr. Muir's.

Mrs. A. Sinclair and Miss Margaret of Dundalk were visitors here on Saturday.

Owing to the storm on Sunday the church services here were withdrawn.

Mr. Maurice Wright who has spent considerable time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jas. W. McMullen, has returned to Columbo, South America.

To honor their new members and also to supplement their funds the Holdfast U.F.W.O. club held a progressive euchre in the hall Thursday evening when about 40 were present. High awards went to Mrs. John Kennedy and Bob Plester, while Mrs. J. K. McLeod and Mrs. A. C. Muir won the consolation prize. Following the lunch at midnight dancing was enjoyed for a short period.

It's fine to have a friend you can trust, but it's finer to have a friend who can trust you.

Rock Mills Ladies' Aid

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. B. Field on Wednesday, January 18th. The opening hymn "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross" was sung and prayer offered. Mrs. H. Patton read the scripture, the secretary's report was read and roll call taken. Collection amounted to $2.00. The meeting was closed by singing "Will Your Anchor Hold?" and lunch was served by the hostess.
