Live Stock Report

(By Dunn & Levack, Toronto)

The cattle market was stronger on Monday and all classes of cattle sold from 15c to 25c higher. There was a good demand for choice cattle suitable for the American trade, while local wholesalers and packers were active in securing their requirements.

Choice weighty steers brought from 7.50 to 8.00; fair to good from 6.75 to 7.25; medium 6.00 to 6.50. In the butcher section, choice handy weight steers and heifers brought from 6.50 to 6.75; fair to good from 6.75 to 6.25; common to medium 5.00 to 5.50. Baby beeves were in very good demand, choice from 8.00 to 9.00, others at lower prices according to quality. Stockers and feeders sold readily at strong prices. The cow trade was improved, choice butcher cows 4.50 to 4.75; choice light heifery kind up to 5.25; fair to good from 3.75 to 4.25; common to medium 3.00 to 3.50; canners and cutters 2.50 to 3.00. The bull trade was strong, choice light butcher bulls from 5.00 to 5.50; choice heavy bulls 4.75 to 5.00; common light bologna bulls 3.75 to 4.25.

Over 1500 lambs arrived for Monday's market, including 1200 from Alberta. Trading was slow and choice lambs sold at 8.50, with some of medium quality at slightly lower prices. Choice butcher sheep held strong at from 5.00 to 5.50. The calf market was strong on account of a good outlet for export orders, choice veal calves brought from 10.50 to 11.00; fair to good 9.00 to 10.00; common to medium 7.00 to 8.50.

Hogs continued to feature, selling at strong prices. Monday's truck deliveries selling mostly at 9.65. The prospects continue to look uncertain, as the present high prices are out of line with the local trade and if an over-supply should occur at any time, prices will weaken.

Uncle Sam has put a ban on bombs and airplanes for the Japanese. The scrap iron business, however, is still going ahead.

The past week has been one of continual cold and storm. Thursday morning the temperature in town reached 15 degrees below zero. For a few hours Saturday night the regular week end blizzard reigned and Monday afternoon a strong wind and heafy snowfall piled drifts on the highways and the plows had a difficult time keeping the main arteries open for travel. Tuesday morning the office thermometer showed 18 degrees of frost.

An Orillia housewife was the unfortunate victim of the Radio Act recently when she was forced to pay a fine for not having a license for a radio, which she did not own but which she had in her home on trial from a local dealer.

The Late Jas. Milne

The funeral of the late Jas. Milne, who died on Sunday, January 22, was held on Tuesday of last week, interment being made in Maxwell cemetery.

The late Mr. Milne was born at Fergus on July 19th, 1864, and came to Artemesia township thirty-five years ago. He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Radley, who predeceased him by eight years. He is mourned by two daughters, Jean (Mrs. Sornberger of Maxwell and Lulu (Mrs. M. Dobson) of Feversham and also by seven grandchildren. One brother, Thomas, resides at Sault Ste. Marie and a sister, Hattie, (Mrs. Harriet Allan) lives at Montana. He resided on his farm five miles east of Flesherton until six years ago, when he sold out and since then has been with his daughter, Mrs. Sornberger. He suffered a stroke four years ago last June and a second one in June last. During the past two months he was able to be around the house each day for a few hours. A week before his death he grew weaker due to a heart attack.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Jas. Winters, Wm. Seeley, Herb. Poole, Robt. McIntyre, Dan Gillies and Jess. Grummett.

Canada To Be Colorful For The Royal Visit

The task of decorating Canada for the visit of the King and Queen next spring will be entrusted to J. B. Hunter, Deputy Minister of Public Works, it was learned at Ottawa.

Cities on the Royal route will break out in profusion of flags and bunting in honor of the Royal visit. Mr. Hunter and Public Works architects across the Dominion will co-operate with civic and provincial governments to give Canada a festive appearance.

Decorating of the capital and especially the Parliament buildings will be one of Mr. Hunter's chief concerns. Miles of bunting, huge pylons, and hundreds of flags will dress up Ottawa for a fitting welcome to Their Majesties. The decorators will make every attempt to ensure Ottawa is not outdone in decorative art by Washington, for it is known the United States capital plans an ambitious decorative scheme when the Royal party visits there.
